Disabled Student Programs and Services

Students with disabilities at Imperial Valley College are eligible for accommodations related to their disability under Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act and the Americans with Disabilities Act. IVC recommends that any student with a documented disability who may need educational accommodations should notify the instructor or the Disabled Student Programs and Service (DSP&S) office as soon as possible. The DSP&S office is located in Room 2117 of the Health Sciences Building, 760-355-6312.

Plagiarism and Cheating

Dishonesty in the classroom is considered a very serious offense. Any form of cheating, turning in work which is not one's own (plagiarism), is grounds for disciplinary action. The consequences of these actions are severe and may include the possibility of expulsion.

Attendance Policy

Regular attendance in all classes is expected of all students enrolled. Students are expected to attend every class session. Instructors are expected to take a student's attendance record into account in computing grades. If class attendance is not possible it is your responsibility to notify the instructor. Students with three unexcused absences will be dropped from the course by the instructor. Class will begin immediately as scheduled. Three tardies will result in an absence so please plan on being on time. Students are asked that they maintain all electronic devices turned off or on vibrate while attending class. If students leave class early, it will also be counted as an absence, so plan on attending all sessions in full unless other arrangements have been made with the instructor ahead of time. Absences attributed to the representation of the college at officially approved conferences and contests and attendance upon field trips will not be counted as absences.

Maintain control of your own records.

As soon as you know you will not be attending a class, DROP IT by using WebSTAR. You will receive grades of F for courses you are no longer attending and have not dropped and those grades will remain on your transcript forever.

DO NOT RELY ON ANYONE ELSE; PROTECT YOUR RECORDS. Instructors MAY drop for nonattendance, but many do not. You are responsible for all classes for which you register. Do not assume you will be dropped for nonattendance. The failing grades you receive will not be changed because you quit attending. The following deadlines are for full-term classes. Short-term classes have unique deadlines – contact the Admissions and Records Office.

Deadline to drop without owing fees and/or be eligible for a refund Wednesday, June 26

Deadline to drop course without it appearing on your transcript (without W) Monday, July 01

Deadline to drop full-term course Tuesday, July 23

CAUTION: Do Not Wait until these deadlines to drop. Some fall on days when the College is closed. If you have problems, no one will be available to assist and exceptions will not be made because you did not drop on time.

Standards of Student Conduct

Imperial Valley College is maintained for the purpose of providing students in the community with programs of instruction in higher education. Students shall assume an obligation to conduct themselves in a manner compatible with the college's function as an educational institution. Students shall observe the rules and regulations of the College and shall refrain from conduct which interferes with the College's teaching and administration, or which unreasonably interferes with the rights of others. Please refer to the IVC General Catalog available online for further information regarding student conduct. www.imperial.edu

Assignments and Grading

The following schedule is subject to change as the instructor deems necessary in order to more fully integrate the objectives of the course, and to accommodate the scheduling of lectures, quizzes, and/or student presentations.

Quizzes:

There will be two quizzes throughout the semester. Each quiz will be worth 35 points. Quizzes will be based on your readings and on in-class lectures. Taking notes during lectures is highly encouraged. Quiz dates are listed at the end of the syllabus on the schedule of assignments, readings and exams. Please bring a scantron form for every quiz. There are no make-ups on quizzes unless prior arrangements have been made with the instructor.

Mid-Term

The Mid-term will be on the first portion of the semester readings. The readings include chapters 1-8 from Harrison and Harris "A More Perfect Union". The Mid-Term is worth 100 points. Please bring a scantron form. The Mid-Term will take place on July 16, 2013.

Class Participation:

Students are expected to participate in all class discussions. All students are encouraged to participate and voice their opinion in all Political issues. Do not be afraid to engage in an argument. Political opinions can be very controversial, since we each have our own values, traditions and beliefs. Just remember to be respectful of all students. Class participation is worth 80 points.

Final Examination:

The final examination will be based on the second half of the semester readings. The readings include Chapters 9-15 from Harrison and Harris, "A More Perfect Union". There will be a Final Exam Review one day before the exam, it will be to your own advantage to attend class on this day and take notes to help with the exam. Please bring a scantron form. The Final Exam is worth 150 points. The exam will take place on August 01, 2013.

Community Service:

Community service is a requirement for this course and a part of your grade. The community service project will be discussed further in class by the instructor. Community service is worth 100 points.
