COURSE DESCRIPTION:

The course will cover the techniques of handling juvenile offenders and victims, prevention and repression of delinquency, diagnosis and referral, organization of community resources, juvenile law and procedures.

REQUIRED TEXTBOOK:

Peoples, Edward E. Juvenile Procedures in California

EVALUATION METHODOLOGY:

Your grade in this course is based on the accumulation of percentage points generated from the following: There will be two exams, a mid-term and a final examination. Each exam is worth one third of your grade (the lowest test score from the two exams will be dropped.) Therefore, the mid-term and final exams MUST be taken. Extra points can be generated by making oral presentations to the class. A maximum of 10 percentage (extra credit) points can be earned per student, per testing period.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES:

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

1st Outcome: Examine the development of America's juvenile system from its inception to the present.

- 2nd Outcome: Categorize current juvenile problems and explain the juvenile system response to each of the problems.
- 3rd Outcome: Compare and contrast the organization and jurisdiction of local, state and federal juvenile justice system entities. Critique its differences and similarities.
- 4th Outcome: Explain how specific laws regulate the investigation, arrest, detention, and disposition of juvenile offenders and victims. Identify how the juvenile offender is processed through the juvenile system.

GRADES:

Grades will be based on the following percentages:

90% to 100%	= A
80% to 89%	= B
70% to 79%	= C
60% to 69%	= D
0% to 59%	= F

ATTENDANCE:

The IVC Catalog states that a student may be dropped from a course when their absences exceed the number of class hours which the class meets per week. YOU WILL BE DROPPED FROM THE CLASS IF YOU ACCUMULATE 3 OR MORE ABSCENCES DURING THE SEMESTER.

TEST MAKE-UP POLICY:

If a test is missed, NO make-up is allowed. However, this missed test will be considered your lowest test score and it will be dropped. Moreover, if all tests are taken, the lowest test score will be dropped. The mid-term and final exams MUST BE TAKEN and neither score will be dropped.

Any student with a documented disability and who is in need of educational accommodations should notify the instructor or the Disabled Student and Services (DSP&S) office as soon as possible. The DSP&S Office is located in Room 2117 of the Health Sciences Building. Tel. # (760) 355-6312.

Any questions or concerns, please see the instructor at the end of each class.
