Ethics Policy: Each student is expected to maintain academic ethics and honesty in all its forms, including but, not limited to, cheating and plagiarism as defined hereafter:

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY AND STUDENT CONDUCT GUIDELINES: Academic misconduct includes misconduct associated with the classroom, laboratory or clinical learning process. Some examples of academic misconduct are cheating and plagiarism.

Cheating includes, but is not limited to, (a) use of any unauthorized assistance in taking quizzes, tests, assessment tests or examinations; (b) dependence upon the aid of sources beyond those authorized by the faculty member in writing papers, preparing reports, solving problems, or carrying out other assignments; or (c) the acquisition, without permission, of tests or other academic material belonging to a member of the college faculty or staff.

Plagiarism includes, but is not limited to, the use of paraphrased or directly quoted published or unpublished work of another person without full and clear acknowledgment. It also includes the unacknowledged use of materials prepared by another person or agency engaged in the selling of term papers or other academic materials. Information gathered from the internet and not properly identified is also considered plagiarism.

Any student found by a faculty member to have committed academic misconduct may be subject to sanctions as determined by the faculty member. Sanctions MAY include a warning, grade adjustment, and course failure. Consequences for plagiarism include a zero on the assignment and a referral to Sergio Lopez, Dean of Student Development and Campus Events.

- Anyone who disrupts the learning process in the classroom will be referred to Sergio Lopez. Examples of disruptive behavior include the following:-Talking to others while the instructor or another person is addressing the class-Talking while students are making presentations.-Inappropriate non-verbal written behavior, Inappropriate language, etc., Leaving class early or arriving late
- Leaving class early or arriving late will count against your Classroom/Debate participation grade

- Scheduled tests will be given at the beginning of each class—No make-up tests will be offered

Discipline Policy

“Imperial Valley College is maintained for the purpose of providing students in the community with programs of instruction in higher education. The College is concerned with the fostering of knowledge, the search for truth and the dissemination of ideas. Students shall assume an obligation to conduct themselves in a manner compatible with the college’s function as an educational institution. An instructor MAY REMOVE a student for the day of removal and the next class meeting. Such action must be immediately reported to Sergio Lopez, Dean of Student Development and Campus Events. During the period of removal the student MAY NOT return without the consent of the instructor.

Accommodations Any student with a documented disability who may need educational accommodations should notify the instructor or the Disabled Student Programs and Services (DSPS) office as soon as possible. The DSPS office is located in the Health Sciences Building, room 2117 at 355-6312.

Access and Success!

IVCs new mantra for students—and we mean it . . . so, in order to achieve this goal it is imperative that you do two things: 1) contact me if you are having difficulty and, 2) attend each class and be fully prepared when you come to class.

ILOs (Institutional Learning Outcomes)—All five ILOs apply to this class they are:

Communication Skills
Critical Thinking Skills
Personal Responsibility
Information Literacy
Global Awareness

Note: I reserve the right to change this schedule, as necessary. It is YOUR responsibility to know about, understand and adapt to any changes that may be made to this schedule.
