Course Description

Required language—not written by the professor in this class

The standard course in freshman English. The course seeks to improve the student's ability to understand serious and complex prose and to improve the student's ability to write an exposition that is thoughtful and clear, including the production of a well-documented research paper. (CSU, UC)

Student Learning Outcomes

Required language—not written by the professor in this class

Upon course completion, the successful student will have acquired new skills, knowledge, and/or attitudes as demonstrated by being able to:

- Demonstrate mastery of research strategies, including appropriate use and correct documentation of research materials (ILO1, ILO4, ILO5)
- Analyze an argumentative text for claim, support, and fallacies (ILO1, ILO2)
- Develop an essay of multiple pages that effectively presents and strongly supports a thesis statement. (ILO1, ILO2)
- Demonstrate command of rules regarding plagiarism and academic ethics. (ILO3)

Course Objectives

Required language—not written by the professor in this class

Upon satisfactory completion of the course, students will be able to:

- Read, analyze, and interpret a variety of written texts, including one single-author text.
- Identify evidence, tone, purpose, and audience, and fallacies in a variety of written works.
- Demonstrate a thorough understanding of the writing process, from development and drafting to revising and editing.
- Demonstrate a command of varying writing patterns, such as comparison and contrast, definition, and argumentation.
- Demonstrate an understanding of connotative and figurative language while writing for an academic audience.
- Adapt writing strategies to the requirements of the writing situation (e.g., to essay exam or other timed writing, research writing, reflective writing)
- Examine and analyze their own writing and that of other students with a view towards improving the effectiveness of the written work.

- Develop text analysis and interpretation supported by citations, synthesized with the study and application of documentation styles and library skills (including electronic databases) to produce a research paper.
- Demonstrate an understanding of the writing process by writing at least four essays using a variety of rhetorical modes, along with one research paper, composing a total of at least 6,000 words of formal writing. Expository and argumentative papers constitute the bulk of student writing.
- Participate in a number of activities and areas of study as deemed appropriate by the instructor.

Course Requirements and Instructional Methods

Students entering English 110 are expected to have some command of basic writing issues and familiarity with analysis and reasoning. This semester, we will focus on depth of understanding and complexity of language used to create, support, and critically engage arguments. In our readings, we will encounter a variety of claims. Some claims will be sound. We will measure those and study the practices that deliver reasonable, accurate conclusions. Some claims will be irrational or hate-based. In that case, we will evaluate the logic errors and identify the assumptions involved. By the end of term, you should be a more self-aware and self-critical reader capable of accurate, nuanced claims and reasoned analysis of a text.

All writing projects must be completed and submitted as described in individual assignment sheets. Late essays/projects will receive a one-letter grade deduction per day overdue. Partially completed projects will receive failing grades. Each of the major writing projects you submit may be revised once for an improved grade (unless that grade was the result of an ethics violation); however, any accumulated penalties will remain.

Course Grading Based on Course Objectives

While you should consult the professor with specific questions about your work, it's up to you to monitor your overall effort, progress, and points. Points will be distributed as indicated:

- #1 In-class Essay: 10
- #2 Analysis Essay: 20
- #3 Research Annotations: 10
- #4 Research Essay: 20
- MLA Quiz: 5
- Reading Quizzes: 20
- Final Exam: 15

Attendance

Required content—not written by the professor in this class

IVC Attendance Policy:

- A student who fails to attend the first meeting of a class or does not complete the first mandatory activity of an online class will be dropped by the instructor as of the first official meeting of that class. Should readmission be desired, the student's status will be the same as that of any other student who desires to add a class. It is the student's responsibility to drop or officially withdraw from the class. See General Catalog for details.
- Regular attendance in all classes is expected of all students. A student whose continuous, unexcused absences exceed the number of hours the class is scheduled to meet per week may be dropped. For online courses, students who fail to complete required activities for two consecutive weeks may be considered to have excessive absences and may be dropped.

- Absences attributed to the representation of the college at officially approved events (conferences, contests, and field trips) will be counted as 'excused' absences.

The following reflects expectations regarding missed work and excused absences:

If you should miss a class session in college, you must contact a classmate (NOT your professor) to request notes. Absence due to required attendance at an IVC-affiliated event will be excused, though the professor must be notified in advance and assignment deadlines must be met. All other absences are unexcused. Students absent the first day will be dropped. Students who accumulate more than three consecutive unexcused absences may be dropped.

Classroom Etiquette

No student may attempt to use this class or its assignments to advocate discriminatory ideology or implement it as a weapon against other students, the professor, or parties/identities not present/represented. Recognizable, historically determined bigotry creates a toxic environment in the classroom and impedes and discourages sound, nuanced reason; self-critique; and, realistic assessment of subject.

Students who disrupt or interfere with a class may be sent out of the room and told to meet with the Campus Disciplinary Officer before returning to continue with coursework. Disciplinary procedures will be followed as outlined in the General Catalog.

Computers, tablets, and phones should be shut off or silenced. If you have advance notice of an emergency situation (such as a sick child) requiring the need to respond to an anticipated call, notify the professor before the class session.

Academic Honesty

Required Language—not written by the professor in this class

Academic honesty in the advancement of knowledge requires that all students and instructors respect the integrity of one another's work and recognize the important of acknowledging and safeguarding intellectual property.

There are many different forms of academic dishonesty. The following kinds of honesty violations and their definitions are not meant to be exhaustive. Rather, they are intended to serve as examples of unacceptable academic conduct.

- Plagiarism is taking and presenting as one's own the writings or ideas of others, without citing the source. You should understand the concept of plagiarism and keep it in mind when taking exams and preparing written materials. If you do not understand how to "cite a source" correctly, you must ask for help.
- Cheating is defined as fraud, deceit, or dishonesty in an academic assignment, or using or attempting to use materials, or assisting others in using materials that are prohibited or inappropriate in the context of the academic assignment in question.

Anyone caught cheating or plagiarizing will receive a zero (0) on the exam or assignment, and the instructor may report the incident to the Campus Disciplinary Officer, who may place related documentation in a file. Repeated acts of cheating may result in an F in the course and/or disciplinary action. Please refer to the General Catalog for more information on academic dishonesty or other misconduct. Acts of cheating include, but are not limited to, the following: (a) plagiarism; (b) copying or attempting to copy from others during an examination or on an assignment; (c) communicating test information with another person during an examination; (d) allowing others to do an assignment or portion of an assignment; (e) using a commercial term paper service.

The preceding administrator-produced verbiage is potentially misleading and insufficient in its description of plagiarism and the responses to it. The following reflects a more comprehensive review of plagiarism types and the range of outcomes:

Depending on type and severity, an instance of plagiarism may be addressed with an ungraded revision; a reduced/failing grade for the project; or disciplinary action from administrative staff. If you are at all uncertain on the issue of plagiarism, show me your source materials and explain your research methodology before submitting the essay. Do not solicit "help" from personal acquaintances. Instances of plagiarism can occur through contact with faculty unaware of professional ethics or plagiarism standards.

- False Authorship. Obtaining by any means another's work, and using that work in an essay/assignment presented for a grade. False authorship includes texts copied with minor changes/adjustments, translation from another language without acknowledgement, and patchwriting several sources into one document.
- Misrepresentation of Source. Distorting or altering the meaning of a source text in order to support a claim. Falsification of information about the source would also fall into the category of misrepresentation. Most often, students misrepresent the text because of personal bias or inadequate reading skills.
- Unacknowledged collaboration. Allowing too much outside influence or re-writing of the student's work. The individual's consent or cooperation is irrelevant.
- Recycling. Submitting all or part of a text that was prepared for another assignment/course.
- Insufficient Citation. Including quotations or paraphrased content from another's work with faulty, or no, citation. Direct quotations also require quotation marks or, when appropriate, block quote spacing.
