Course Description

This course is a survey in American history from the pre-Columbian era to the end of Reconstruction. This course will cover the major political, economic, social, gender, racial, cultural, and intellectual transformations of the colonial and early American eras.

Student Learning Outcomes

: Students will be able to (1) identify and recall key information from a historical text and/or a documentary film; (2) describe the causes and/or impact of a historical event; and (3) explain and analyze the key information contained in a primary source document.

Course Objectives

Upon satisfactory completion of the course, students will be able to:

Identify the major events and key intellectual, cultural, social, political and economic trends in United States history from the pre-Columbian period to 1877, and identify and understand the significance of important personalities and ideas in United States history before 1877. Specifically:

- 1. Describe the peoples and cultures existing in North America before European contact;*
- 2. Describe European exploration of North America and early colonization efforts;*
- 3. Describe the British colonies of North America and explain the role of the colonies within the British empire.*
- 4. Discuss and analyze labor relations, indentured servants and slavery in British North America;*
- 5. Understand colonial-Native American and U.S.-Native American relations;*

- 6. Understand the factors that led to the American Revolution and the key events, personalities and effects of the Revolutionary War;
- 7. Understand how the American political and legal system was created and how it functioned in the early national period;
- 8. Identify important political trends and figures and the rise of political parties in ante-bellum America;
- 9. Understand U.S. foreign policy before 1877;
- 10. Explain the evolution of the market economy of the nineteenth century;
- 11. Explain how technology shaped culture, social arrangements, leisure, family life, and work;
- 12. Understand how immigrants impacted society, politics and culture;
- 13. Explain the status of women before 1877;
- 14. Understand the role of sectionalism in early American history;
- 15. Describe how religion impacted society, intellectual currents, and political thought;
- 16. Analyze Westward expansion, Manifest Destiny and the Mexican-American War;
- 17. Discuss the major factors that led to the Civil War and the key events and personalities of that war;
- 18. Understand the significance of the Civil War on society, race relations, economics, and politics;
- 19. Describe the process of post-Civil War Reconstruction and the challenges and opportunities faced by the nation and people until 1877.

Course Requirements and Instructional Methods

: A variety of presentation and teaching methods will be utilized: power point lectures, class and group discussions requiring your active participation, and films requiring a reflection. Both outside and in-class writing assignments will be required. Students should actively read the textbooks, note any questions you have about the material, and take careful notes in class.

Out of Class Assignments:* Will be assigned and are due at the teacher determination. Late assignments will be downgraded (one meeting late limit). You should expect to be responsible for writing 7-10 pages for your outside writing assignments.

The Department of Education policy states that one (1) credit hour is the amount of student work that reasonably approximates not less than one hour of class time and two (2) hours of out-of-class time per week over the span of a semester. WASC has adopted a similar requirement.

Course Grading Based on Course Objectives

Grades will be based on and tests, writing assignments, and homework assignments. Tests will be multiple choice, true or false, matching and short essays. No makeup exams will be given unless you have made arrangements with me in advance. The course grade is based on total points accumulated during the semester. There are a possible total of 670-700 points including extra credit. Final grades are calculated as follows: 90-100% (A), 80-89% (B), 70-79% (C), 60-69% (D), below 60% (F).

Attendance

History 120 is schedule to meet for 1 hour & 25 min. You may be dropped from the class if your attendance becomes a problem unless you have made prior arrangements with me. If you are absent, it is your responsibility to learn any assignment or test that is due for the next class meeting. Please call me if you know that you are going to be absent more than one meeting in a row.

- A student who fails to attend the first meeting of a class or does not complete the first mandatory activity of an online class will be dropped by the instructor as of the first official meeting of that class. Should readmission be desired, the student's status will be the same as that of any other student who desires to add a class. It is the student's responsibility to drop or officially withdraw from the class. See General Catalog for details.
- Regular attendance in all classes is expected of all students. A student whose continuous, unexcused absences exceed the number of hours the class is scheduled to meet per week may be dropped. For online courses, students who fail to complete required activities for two consecutive weeks may be considered to have excessive absences and may be dropped.
- Absences attributed to the representation of the college at officially approved events (conferences, contests, and field trips) will be counted as 'excused' absences.

Classroom Etiquette

- Electronic Devices:* Cell phones and electronic devices must be turned off and put away during class, unless otherwise directed by the instructor.

- Food and Drink are prohibited in all classrooms. Water bottles with lids/caps are the only exception. Additional restrictions will apply in labs. Please comply as directed by the instructor.
- Disruptive Students: Students who disrupt or interfere with a class may be sent out of the room and told to meet with the Campus Disciplinary Officer before returning to continue with coursework. Disciplinary procedures will be followed as outlined in the General Catalog.
- Children in the classroom: Due to college rules and state laws, no one who is not enrolled in the class may attend, including children.

Online Netiquette

- What is netiquette? Netiquette is internet manners, online etiquette, and digital etiquette all rolled into one word. Basically, netiquette is a set of rules for behaving properly online.
- Students are to comply with the following rules of netiquette: (1) identify yourself, (2) include a subject line, (3) avoid sarcasm, (4) respect others' opinions and privacy, (5) acknowledge and return messages promptly, (6) copy with caution, (7) do not spam or junk mail, (8) be concise, (9) use appropriate language, (10) use appropriate emoticons (emotional icons) to help convey meaning, and (11) use appropriate intensifiers to help convey meaning [do not use ALL CAPS or multiple exclamation marks (!!!)].

Academic Honesty

Academic honesty in the advancement of knowledge requires that all students and instructors respect the integrity of one another's work and recognize the important of acknowledging and safeguarding intellectual property.

There are many different forms of academic dishonesty. The following kinds of honesty violations and their definitions are not meant to be exhaustive. Rather, they are intended to serve as examples of unacceptable academic conduct.

- Plagiarism is taking and presenting as one's own the writings or ideas of others, without citing the source. You should understand the concept of plagiarism and keep it in mind when taking exams and preparing written materials. If you do not understand how to "cite a source" correctly, you must ask for help.
- Cheating is defined as fraud, deceit, or dishonesty in an academic assignment, or using or attempting to use materials, or assisting others in using materials that are prohibited or inappropriate in the context of the academic assignment in question.

Anyone caught cheating or plagiarizing will receive a zero (0) on the exam or assignment, and the instructor may report the incident to the Campus Disciplinary Officer, who may place related documentation in a file. Repeated acts of cheating may result in an F in the course and/or disciplinary action. Please refer to the General Catalog for more information on academic dishonesty or other misconduct. Acts of cheating include, but are not limited to, the following: (a) plagiarism; (b) copying or attempting to copy from others during an examination or on an assignment; (c) communicating test information with another person during an examination; (d) allowing others to do an assignment or portion of an assignment; (e) using a commercial term paper service.
