Course Requirements and Instructional Methods

REQUIREMENTS

Class Participation, Mid-Term, Final Exam, Class Presentation, Thought Papers and Journals.

Mid-Term and Final Exam will cover chapters and course material throughout the semester. These exams will vary from true and false to multiple choice.

Journals will be a resource for the student to be able to analyze and reflect on the dialogue and content discussed in class. Weekly journals also serve as participation points for the student.

Thought Paper will cover the concepts and ideas based on material covered in class written by your perspective. Thought papers should be 2 pages not including reference page. Students will be expected to clearly identify and demonstrate an understanding of the lessons covered and be able to construct a paper comparing and contrasting their point of view with the point of view from the text/lecture. Details will be covered further in class. APA style formatting and include a title page and reference page. 2 pages double space, with 2 references.

Reading and Writing:

Reading assignments include assigned text readings; current articles and/or sources from the internet. Students give written and/or verbal critical analysis of the readings. Written assignments include reflective responses, sharing the students' viewpoints and opinions in regard to the major developmental theories.

Course Grading Based on Course Objectives

Journals:	4 @ 25 pts = 100 pts	300-350 points = A
Thought Papers:	2 @ 25 pts = 50 pts	200-249 points = B
Quizzes	4 @ 25 pts = 100 pts	150-199 points = C
Final Exam:	100 pts	100-149 points = D
	Total: 350 pts	99 and below = F

Attendance

A student who fails to attend the first meeting of a class will be dropped by the instructor as of the first official meeting of that class. Should readmission be desired, the student's status will be the same as that of any other student who desires to add a class. It is the student's responsibility to drop or officially withdraw from the class. See General Catalog for details.

Regular attendance in all classes is expected of all students. A student whose has 3, unexcused absences may be dropped.

Classroom Etiquette

Electronic Devices: Cell phones and electronic devices must be turned off and put away during class unless otherwise directed by the instructor.

Food and Drink are prohibited in all classrooms. Water bottles with lids/caps are the only exception. Additional restrictions will apply in labs. Please comply as directed.

Disruptive Students: Students who disrupt or interfere with a class may be sent out of the room and told to meet with the Campus Disciplinary Officer before returning to continue with coursework. Disciplinary procedures will be followed as outlined in the General Catalog.

Children in the classroom: Due to college rules and state laws, no one who is not enrolled in the class may attend, including children.

Academic Honesty

Plagiarism is to take and present as one's own the writings or ideas of others, without citing the source. You should understand the concept of plagiarism and keep it in mind when taking exams and preparing written materials. If you do not understand how to correctly 'cite a source', you must ask for help.

Cheating is defined as fraud, deceit, or dishonesty in an academic assignment or using or attempting to use materials, or assisting others in using materials, or assisting others in using materials, which are prohibited or inappropriate in the context of the academic assignment in question.

Anyone caught cheating or will receive a zero (0) on the exam or assignment, and the instructor may report the incident to the Campus Disciplinary Officer, who may place related documentation in a file. Repeated acts of cheating may result in an F in the course and/or disciplinary action. Please refer to the General School Catalog for more information on academic dishonesty or other misconduct. Acts of cheating include, but are not limited to the following: (a) plagiarism; (b) copying or attempting to copy from others during an examination or on an assignment ;(c) communicating test information with another person during an examination; (d) allowing others to do an assignment or portion of an assignment, (e) use of a commercial term paper service
