Course Description

Required language: The course will cover the philosophy of Administration of Justice in America, and identify its various subsystems. It will examine the roles and role expectations of criminal justice agents and their interrelationship in society. The concepts of crime causations , punishment and rehabilitation are introduced. The basic course provides a better understanding of the criminal justice system and orients the student to career opportunities. Ethics, education and training for professionalism in the system are discussed

Student Learning Outcomes

Required language: Upon course completion, the successful student will have acquired new skills, knowledge, and or attitudes as demonstrated by being able to:

1. Identify the Objectives of the Justice System and the Role of Criminal Justice Personnel. (ILO4, ILO5)
2. Describe the Laws of Arrest including Felonies and Misdemeanors. (ILO1, ILO2, ILO3, ILO4)
3. Identify the Roles, History and Organization of Law Enforcement in the U.S. (ILO4, ILO5)

Course Objectives

Required language: Upon satisfactory completion of the course, students will be able to:

1. Summarize the evolution of the Administration of Justice System.
2. Demonstrate an awareness of the objectives of the system, the crime problem and role expectations of criminal justice personnel.
3. Distinguish the system's responsibilities to the community, social implications of crime and general concepts in crime causation.
4. Compare and contract various agencies, their organizational structures and develop an appreciation of the education, training and professionalism in the justice system.
5. Demonstrate an understanding of basic legal terms, the organization and concepts of the United States court system and identify the roles, functions and relationships of persons within the court system.

6. Summarize the history, structure and operation of the American correctional system.

Written Assignments

Out of Class Assignments: The Department of Education policy states that one (1) credit hour is the amount of student work that reasonably approximates not less than one hour of class time and two (2) hours of out-of-class time per week over the span of a semester. WASC has adopted a similar requirement.

Course Grading Based on Course Objectives

How much you learn in the course, as well as your final grade, depends on the effort you put into the readings and in class assignments. Tests and quizzes may be given on Blackboard or in class at instructor's discretion. No makeup tests, quizzes or in class assignments will be given, unless there are extenuating circumstances at which point the student will provide verifiable documentation. Five assignments (30 pts each), four quizzes (15 pts each) and four tests (100 pts each) plus the final (200 points) will be given. 30 points for class participation to include class attendance. There are a total of 840 points available. Grades will be assigned on the basis of the following weights:

POSSIBLE POINTS		FINAL GRADES
Participation	30 points
Quiz	60 points	90 -100 % = A
Assignments	150 points	80 - 89 % = B
Tests	400 points	70 - 79% = C
Final	200 points	60 - 69 % = D
Total 840 points		Less than 60% = F

Class assignments may be IN CLASS ASSIGNMENTS or take home and there are no make ups for missed class work. Students who are not present for preparation and presentation of the assignment will receive ½ credit of the possible points upon completion of the assignment.

Attendance

- A student who fails to attend the first meeting of a class or does not complete the first mandatory activity of an online class will be dropped by the instructor as of the first official meeting of that class. Should readmission be desired, the student’s status will be the same as that of any other student who desires to add a class. It is the student’s responsibility to drop or officially withdraw from the class. See General Catalog for details.
- Regular attendance in all classes is expected of all students. A student whose continuous, unexcused absences exceed the number of hours the class is scheduled to meet per week may be dropped. Attendance is a portion of your grade under Participation noted above. If not dropped for excessive absences, 3 points will be deducted for each missed day from class from your participation score and 2 points for arriving late to class or leaving early.
- Absences attributed to the representation of the college at officially approved events (conferences, contests, and field trips) will be counted as ‘excused’ absences.

Classroom Etiquette

- Electronic Devices: Cell phones and electronic devices must be turned off and put away during class unless otherwise directed by the instructor. Cell phones and electronic devices must be turned off and put away during class, with the exception of laptops or iPads for note taking purposes only. Cell phones ringing during class and all electronic devices not put away will be held by the instructor until the end of class. Students violating this policy during a class period will have 5 points deducted from their class
- Food and Drink are prohibited in all classrooms. Water bottles with lids/caps are the only exception. Additional restrictions will apply in labs. Please comply as directed.

- Disruptive Students: Students who disrupt or interfere with a class may be sent out of the room and told to meet with the Campus Disciplinary Officer before returning to continue with coursework. Disciplinary procedures will be followed as outlined in the General Catalog.
- Children in the classroom: Due to college rules and state laws, no one who is not enrolled in the class may attend, including children.

Academic Honesty

- Plagiarism is to take and present as one's own the writings or ideas of others, without citing the source. You should understand the concept of plagiarism and keep it in mind when taking exams and preparing written materials. If you do not understand how to correctly 'cite a source', you must ask for help.
- Cheating is defined as fraud, deceit, or dishonesty in an academic assignment or using or attempting to use materials, or assisting others in using materials, or assisting others in using materials, which are prohibited or inappropriate in the context of the academic assignment in question.

Anyone caught cheating or will receive a zero (0) on the exam or assignment, and the instructor may report the incident to the Campus Disciplinary Officer, who may place related documentation in a file. Repeated acts of cheating may result in an F in the course and/or disciplinary action. Please refer to the General School Catalog for more information on academic dishonesty or other misconduct. Acts of cheating include, but are not limited to the following: (a) plagiarism; (b) copying or attempting to copy from others during an examination or on an assignment ;(c) communicating test information with another person during an examination; (d) allowing others to do an assignment or portion of an assignment, (e) use of a commercial term paper service
