For additional oral practice, concurrent enrollment in SPAN 113 (Formerly SPAN 5A) is recommended. The beginning Spanish course is based on a contrastive analysis between Spanish and English and is designed to develop in the English-speaking student rudimentary abilities in the four basic language skills: hearing, speaking, reading, and writing. The main emphasis is on the present tense of both regular and irregular verbs. The student will be familiarized with those features of Hispanic culture, which reflect the different frame of reference from which the native speaker of Spanish views the world. Additional language structures and vocabulary practice will be assigned. We will cover: Chapters Preliminar and 1 through 5 of the textbook and MySpanishLab.

Course Requirements and Instructional Methods

How to contact me:

The easy way to reach me is by email.

If you email me, please put "Spanish 100 online" in the subject line of the email. Don't forget to put your name inside the email, especially since many of your email addresses do not identify who you are. If you would like to talk with me over the phone, please make sure to speak slowly, loudly, and clearly when you leave a message, and make sure you give me your name and phone number so I can call you back.

- Be familiar with the Internet. Know how to browse, search, and download;
- Read for information effectively and follow instructions.
- Actively and persistently communicate with the instructor.

- Completing all homework and projects by the due dates on MySpanishlab and Canvas. Late work is not accepted.
- Using the class web pages will be the equivalent of attending class. You will be expected to view the pages on a regular basis (at least several times per week). You will be responsible to post in the discussion area at least twice a week. It is a good idea to post once at the beginning of the week and again after the middle of the week to allow interaction between all students from the class.
- Because this is a 6 weeks course for five units, you should plan on doing approximately 23 hours of work weekly since we will meet once a week and you must read and complete assignments from the textbook that and MySpanishlab.
- Important information for a fully online course:
 - This is a fully online course; this means, you will take quizzes, exams, discussions, escrituras, voice recording in MySpanishlab online and quizzes, midterm and final exam in Canvas. Therefore, it is important that you complete all the assignments on the due dates.
 - The quizzes are due by 11:59 p.m. on the due date.
 - The tests are due by 11:59 p.m. on the due date.
 - When you are taking a quiz or exam online, open just one browser. This is very important because if you open different browsers and accidentally close the one that has your quiz/exam, you will lose it. The system only allows you one attempt and it is timed. I have no control over this issue. You will not be able to retake the quiz/exam.
 - Use Google Chrome or Fire Fox browser. Do not use Explorer browser
 - There is a midterm and a final exam scheduled to take in Canvas.
 - You must complete the discussion every week on your own time. Read and follow the instructions in order for you to complete your task. You are also required to comment on one of your classmates' posts every week in order for you to receive full credit for participation. Please make sure that you read the topic for the discussion and the rubric that I will provide at the beginning of the week.
 - You will find the discussion topic at the bottom of the Modules or click on the tool Discussions.
 - For the homework that I assigned from the textbook every week, you will find it in the Modules.
 - Also, you will have homework that must be completed in MySpanishLab every week.

Course Format:

Capítulos

Click on lessons, click on Capítulo, then click on Semana and in there you will find all the modules for the week.

Modules

Go to Repaso semanal (weekly review) after watching the video and seeing what you need to do go to Capítulo. In each Capítulo you will have the modules for each chapter that we will cover for the semester. You must complete all the activities assigned in each the modules every week because every module content the material that you must learn every week and remember that they take the place of the professor's lectures. Then, go to MySpanishlab and complete the tasks related to the modules.

Repaso:

During the summer, we will cover six chapters from Preliminar to Chapter 5 each chapter per week and because of the compressing time be sure that you read the due dates because changes per week. It's important that you complete the Module called Repaso since the material covered in these Modules are reviews of grammar in a previous week, these are components that are essential for a better understanding of material presented in this course Spanish 100. Also, complete the extra activities in MySpanishlab.

Written assignments:

You will be assigned four written (Escrituras) tasks throughout the course, at the end of every chapter. The instructor will assign the topics for these written tasks in MySpanishlab. It's important to pay attention to the grammar (including accent marks). These tasks will be assigned in weeks 2, 3 and 4. Be careful these written activities will be graded based on their content such as style, use of the vocabulary and grammar. For these assignments, do not open them, if you are not ready to complete them since Escrituras are timed.

Voice Recording and Written Activities:

In MySpanishlab, you will listen/read to short dialogues and answer questions and record activities based on the conversations.

Quizzes & Tests:

There are quizzes in MySpanishlab and Canvas every week and at the end of each chapter there is an exam. For quizzes and tests, please know that I realize that in life there are many situations that occur, such as; submitting incomplete assignments, the browser accidentally shutting down while you are taking a quiz, being sick or having an illness or a death in the family. Taking in consideration these situations, I will drop the lowest score for a test and two lowest scores for the quizzes but be careful since I won't reset any test nor quizzes. Also, there are two exams, the midterm and final exam in Canvas (MidtermExamPrácticaMidterm).

Midterm/Final Exam:

A study guide for the midterm and final exams will be provided the week before the exams, but you can go over every "Module: Gramática..." to review the material we covered in every chapter. Midterm date is between July 15-19, 2017. Date for Final Exam is July 27, 2017. Both the Midterm and Final will be available in Canvas.

Discussions:

There is a discussion every week. The first discussion starts on the first week. You will find the discussion topic at the bottom of the Modules or click on the tool Forums. Click where it says discussion, you won't see anything until you post your task, read and follow instructions in order for you to post your activity. Do not forget that you will also have to comment on two of your classmate's activities. These discussions will be worth 10-15 points each.

If any student uses inappropriate language or is disrespectful to another student, that student will lose points and need to have a personal conversation with the instructor. Remember, this is a college class and the discussion should be academic in nature, so don't get off topic or you will also lose points. In addition, if you choose to upload a picture into your profile, make sure it is an appropriate photo and that it is sized properly or I will have to ask you to remove it. For example, too much skin exposure, even on a baby is inappropriate. Thank you for your cooperation in this matter.

Late assignments:

Late assignments won't be accepted.

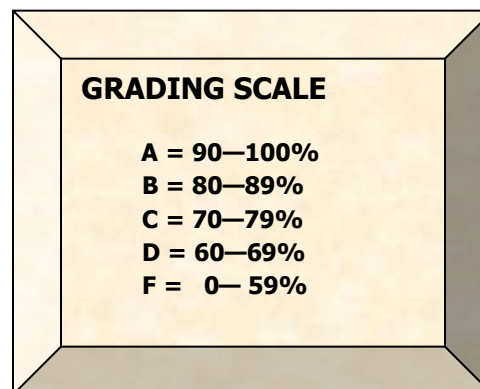

Grading Criteria:

For grading refer to the final grading scale. For the due dates for all the activities in MySpanishlab and Canvas, please refer to the calendar of assignments due in the syllabus.

Online Classroom “Netiquette”

- Netiquette, as you probably know, is a combination of the words "network" and "etiquette." Basically, it describes things you should and shouldn't do while communicating with other people online. This is especially important in an online classroom environment. Here are some examples:
- Identify yourself. Include a subject line. Be careful when using humor or sarcasm every person interpret things differently. Be respectful of diverse opinions. Acknowledge and return messages promptly. Use appropriate language. Use appropriate intensifiers to help convey meaning [do not use ALL CAPS or multiple exclamation marks (!!!)].
- Please, follow the examples of Netiquette and be friendly and courteous with your classmates. If you posting that are inappropriate, please send me an email and I will deal with the problem.

If you do not understand how to correctly cite a source, you should ask for help.
- Cheating is defined as fraud, deceit, or dishonesty in an academic assignment or using or attempting to use materials, or assisting others in using materials, or assisting others in using materials, which are prohibited or inappropriate in the context of the academic assignment in question. Anyone caught cheating or will receive a zero (0) on the exam or assignment, and the instructor may report the incident to the Campus Disciplinary Officer, who may place related documentation in a file. Repeated acts of cheating may result in an F in the course and/or disciplinary action. Please refer to the IVC General Catalog for more information on academic dishonesty or other misconduct. Acts of cheating include, but are not limited to the following: (a) plagiarism, (b) copying or attempting to copy from others during an examination or on an assignment, (c) communicating test information with another person during an examination, (d) allowing others to do an assignment or portion of an assignment, and (e) use of a commercial term paper service.
