Course Description

Art History is a visual course and is based almost entirely on slide lectures, discussions, and videos. It is an introductory course, designed to promote deeper appreciation of art in general, and of ancient and medieval art in particular. Because we will be looking at art almost constantly, the class should be enjoyable as well as educational. Involvement, participation, and good attendance are essential for success in this course. Your rewards for this will not only be three units, but hopefully, a deeper connection with the history of human expression and a new way of looking at the visual world.

Remember, as Ad Reinhart said: "Looking is not as easy as it looks".

Course Requirements and Instructional Methods

This is primarily a lecture course. The requirements of the course include keeping up with the reading in the textbook, and studying and keeping up with the course material in order to be prepared to take the Midterm and the Final, as well as attending and participating in the class meetings. You will be required to keep up with the reading and be prepared to recognize and identify assigned works of art for the midterm and final.

You will also be required to attend a gallery exhibition at the IVC ART Gallery.

A study guide will be given for both the Midterm and the Final.

Cheating and plagiarism are prohibited in this class and will result in serious consequences. (See below section on cheating and plagiarism).*

Course Grading Based on Course Objectives

- One Midterm – worth 33 1/3% of the overall course grade. (Make-ups are given only in extreme emergencies. I must be notified before the test begins and I will require paperwork from a doctor, hospital, or military official).
- One Final Exam – worth 33 1/3% of the overall course grade. (There is no make-up for the final).
- Exit Papers – worth 33 1/3% of the overall course grade.
At the end of some class sessions I will be asking you to answer a brief question which you will turn in on your way out of class. You will normally have less than 5 minutes to answer but the questions will not require more time than that. Exit papers will not be returned to you, I will simply check them off and record that you did them, unless there is a problem with them. At the end of the semester you will receive an overall grade for the percentage of Exit papers you turned in. If you did: 90 – 100% of them = A, 80 – 90% = B, 70 – 80% = C, 60 – 70% = D, less than 60% = F.
- There will also be an opportunity to earn extra credit by attending an art museum and writing a museum report (to be discussed later). There will be a possible 10 points for extra credit.

Attendance and Participation

Any more than two absences will begin to lower your grade and may cause you to be dropped from the class. Excessive absences will impact your course grade.

Participation means staying awake and not engaging in other activities during the class sessions (reading, using technology, talking, etc.). It also means contributing meaningful questions and comments during class.

Arriving to class late or leaving early on an excessive basis will impact your course grade. If you need to leave early please inform me at the beginning of class.

IVC Attendance Policy

- A student who fails to attend the first meeting of a class or does not complete the first mandatory activity of an online class will be dropped by the instructor as of the first official meeting of that class. Should readmission be desired, the student's status will be the same as that of any other student who desires to add a class. It is the student's responsibility to drop or officially withdraw from the class. See General Catalog for details.
- Regular attendance in all classes is expected of all students. A student whose continuous, unexcused absences exceed the number of hours the class is scheduled to meet per week may be dropped. For online courses, students who fail to complete required activities for two consecutive weeks may be considered to have excessive absences and may be dropped.
- Absences attributed to the representation of the college at officially approved events (conferences, contests, and field trips) will be counted as 'excused' absences.

Classroom Etiquette

- Electronic Devices: Cell phones and electronic devices must be turned off and put away during class, unless otherwise directed by the instructor.
- Food and Drink are prohibited in all classrooms. Water bottles with lids/caps are the only exception. Additional restrictions will apply in labs. Please comply as directed by the instructor.
- Disruptive Students: Students who disrupt or interfere with a class may be sent out of the room and told to meet with the Campus Disciplinary Officer before returning to continue with coursework. Disciplinary procedures will be followed as outlined in the General Catalog.
- Children in the classroom: Due to college rules and state laws, no one who is not enrolled in the class may attend, including children.

Academic Honesty

Academic honesty in the advancement of knowledge requires that all students and instructors respect the integrity of one another's work and recognize the important of acknowledging and safeguarding intellectual property.

There are many different forms of academic dishonesty. The following kinds of honesty violations and their definitions are not meant to be exhaustive. Rather, they are intended to serve as examples of unacceptable academic conduct.

- Plagiarism is taking and presenting as one's own the writings or ideas of others, without citing the source. You should understand the concept of plagiarism and keep it in mind when taking exams and preparing written materials. If you do not understand how to "cite a source" correctly, you must ask for help.
- Cheating is defined as fraud, deceit, or dishonesty in an academic assignment, or using or attempting to use materials, or assisting others in using materials that are prohibited or inappropriate in the context of the academic assignment in question.

Anyone caught cheating or plagiarizing will receive a zero (0) on the exam or assignment, and the instructor may report the incident to the Campus Disciplinary Officer, who may place related documentation in a file. Repeated acts of cheating may result in an F in the course and/or disciplinary action. Please refer to the General Catalog for more information on academic dishonesty or other misconduct. Acts of cheating include, but are not limited to, the following: (a) plagiarism; (b) copying or attempting to copy from others during an examination or on an assignment; (c) communicating test information with another person during an examination; (d) allowing others to do an assignment or portion of an assignment; (e) using a commercial term paper service.

Student Equity Program

- The Student Equity Program strives to improve Imperial Valley College’s success outcomes, particularly for students who have been historically underrepresented and underserved. The college identifies strategies to monitor and address equity issues, making efforts to mitigate any disproportionate impact on student success and achievement. Our institutional data provides insight surrounding student populations who historically, are not fully represented. Student Equity addresses disparities and/or disproportionate impact in student success across disaggregated student equity groups including gender, ethnicity, disability status, financial need, Veterans, foster youth, homelessness, and formerly incarcerated students. The Student Equity Program provides direct supportive services to empower students experiencing insecurities related to food, housing, transportation, textbooks, and shower access. We recognize that students who struggle meeting their basic needs are also at an academic and economic disadvantage, creating barriers to academic success and wellness. We strive to remove barriers that affect IVC students’ access to education, degree and certificate completion, successful completion of developmental math and English courses, and the ability to transfer to a university. Contact: 760.355.5736 or 760.355.5733 Building 100.
- The Student Equity Program also houses IVC’s Homeless Liaison, who provides direct services, campus, and community referrals to students experiencing homelessness as defined by the McKinney-Vento Act. Contact: 760.355.5736 Building 100.
