Course Requirements and Instructional Methods

Homework/Written Assignments: Please write your name, date, class code, and page number to identify your homework. Homework is due at the beginning of the class. I will not accept homework that does not have the class code and page number written on it. Chatting, repeated exits from the classroom, sleeping, and doing other homework, etc. do not show good participation and are disruptive to the class.  $\otimes$

Quizzes:/Written Assignments: You will have announced and unannounced quizzes each week. Your written assignments from the units will be in academic paragraph, letter, and web page form. For our class, an academic paragraph should be between 8-12 sentences. Your written assignments will include the Writing Assignment section of the chapter. You will be graded on grammar, content and format.

Journal Writing: You will be required to complete journal entries 3 times a week. I will not grade the entries for grammar errors. Be sure to date each entry. One entry should be from the chapter, one from Story Starters on Canvas, and one entry of your choice. Starting in chapter 7, double-entry writing is required. If you have 3 entries per week, you will receive 100 full credit; 2 entries per week = 70% credit; less than 2 per week = 60% credit. Each entry should be 400 words or 20 minutes of writing. Look on page 30 for instructions. Look on page 50 for entries that will earn you extra credit. I have posted a link on Canvas where you can time yourself. Go to Canvas; click on Stop Watch. Week 1 and 2 make online journal entries. Go to Canvas; click on Journal Writing; click on Online Journal Writing.

Chapter Tests: Each test will have two sections. You will be tested on the grammar and sentence structures of each chapter, and you will write a paragraph using those structures in a specific rhetorical style: narrative, process, definition, cause/effect, comparison/contrast, etc.

Final Exam: The final exam will be given on the final class meeting, and the final will be conducted in the same classroom where the class meets during the semester. It will be comprehensive.

There will be no late or make up exams, homework, quizzes, etc. unless you have spoken to me before the due date or testing date.

Out of Class Assignments: The Department of Education policy states that one (1) credit hour is the amount of student work that reasonably approximates not less than one hour of class time and two (2) hours of out-of-class time per week over the span of a semester. WASC has adopted a similar requirement.

Course Grading Based on Course Objectives

Attendance

- A student who fails to attend the first meeting of a class or does not complete the first mandatory activity of an online class will be dropped by the instructor as of the first official meeting of that class.
  Should readmission be desired, the student's status will be the same as that of any other student who desires to add a class. It is the student's responsibility to drop or officially withdraw from the class. See General Catalog for details.
- Regular attendance in all classes is expected of all students. A student whose continuous, unexcused absences exceed the number of hours the class is scheduled to meet per week may be dropped. For online courses, students who fail to complete required activities for two consecutive weeks may be considered to have excessive absences and may be dropped.
- Absences attributed to the representation of the college at officially approved events (conferences, contests, and field trips) will be counted as 'excused' absences.

Classroom Etiquette

- Electronic Devices: Cell phones and electronic devices must be turned off and put away during class, unless otherwise directed by the instructor.
- Food and Drink are prohibited in all classrooms. Water bottles with lids/caps are the only exception. Additional restrictions will apply in labs. Please comply as directed by the instructor.
- Disruptive Students: Students who disrupt or interfere with a class may be sent out of the room and told to meet with the Campus Disciplinary Officer before returning to continue with coursework. Disciplinary procedures will be followed as outlined in the General Catalog.
- Children in the classroom: Due to college rules and state laws, no one who is not enrolled in the class may attend, including children.

Academic Honesty

Bad, Bad!!! Do I have to say it!

Academic honesty in the advancement of knowledge requires that all students and instructors respect the integrity of one another's work and recognize the important of acknowledging and safeguarding intellectual property.

There are many different forms of academic dishonesty. The following kinds of honesty violations and their definitions are not meant to be exhaustive. Rather, they are intended to serve as examples of unacceptable academic conduct.

• Plagiarism is taking and presenting as one's own the writings or ideas of others, without citing the source. You should understand the concept of plagiarism and keep it in mind when taking exams and preparing written materials. If you do not understand how to "cite a source" correctly, you must ask for help.

• Cheating is defined as fraud, deceit, or dishonesty in an academic assignment, or using or attempting to use materials, or assisting others in using materials that are prohibited or inappropriate in the context of the academic assignment in question.

Anyone caught cheating or plagiarizing will receive a zero (0) on the exam or assignment, and the instructor may report the incident to the Campus Disciplinary Officer, who may place related documentation in a file. Repeated acts of cheating may result in an F in the course and/or disciplinary action. Please refer to the General Catalog for more information on academic dishonesty or other misconduct. Acts of cheating include, but are not limited to, the following: (a) plagiarism; (b) copying or attempting to copy from others during an examination or on an assignment; (c) communicating test information with another person during an examination; (d) allowing others to do an assignment or portion of an assignment; (e) using a commercial term paper service.
