Course Requirements and Instructional Methods

This is primarily a lecture and discussion course, which means that your attendance and participation are mandatory. You will earn participation points each class period, so arrive prepared, on time, and ready to stay in the classroom for the full class period. Being late and leaving the classroom distracts your classmates and me and will result in lost points. Participation points cannot be made up, but will be excused for absences pre-approved through the college.

COMPONENT	POINTS POSSIBLE
Class attendance and participation	300
Midterm Exam	250
Formal Analysis Essay	200
Final Exam	250
Optional Extra Credit	50

To assess your achievement of course objectives, there will be two exams and one Formal Analysis Essay. The exams will consist of image identification, multiple-choice questions, and a short essay. In advance of the exam, I will post in Canvas a study guide listing the artworks on which to focus. You may use a single sheet of hand-written notes during the exam, but you'll want to be sure to study well ahead of time.

The Formal Analysis Essay asks you to look carefully at an artwork featured in your textbook and develop an essay that describes the work in detail, so that someone who wasn't looking at it could picture it clearly. Use the vocabulary we've been studying in class to think about and describe its formal elements. See the assignment sheet for all details.

You may earn up to 50 points of extra credit by completing an optional creative project. This might involve traveling to view works of art in person and reporting on your experience, creating an artwork and writing about it, doing research into a specific topic related to class, or completing another project of your own design. Whatever you choose to do should be produced for, and relate clearly to, this course. See the assignment sheet for all details.

Out of Class Assignments: The Department of Education policy states that one (1) credit hour is the amount of student work that reasonably approximates not less than one hour of class time and two (2) hours of out-of-class time per week over the span of a semester. WASC has adopted a similar requirement.

This means that since this is a 3-credit, accelerated course, we'll be spending about 8.5 hours in class per week—and you're responsible for about 17 hours of work outside of class each week. You should use that time to read the textbook, review your lecture notes, study for the exams, and work on assignments.

Course Grading Based on Course Objectives

Grading Scheme

LETTER GRADE	PERCENTAGE
A	≥ 90%
B	≥ 80.0%
C	≥70%
D	≥ 60%
F	≥ 59.9%

Late Policy:

Late assignments will be docked one letter grade (10%) for each day they are late. Assignments later than one week will not be accepted without prior approval.

Attendance

- A student who fails to attend the first meeting of a class or does not complete the first mandatory activity of an online class will be dropped by the instructor as of the first official meeting of that class. Should readmission be desired, the student's status will be the same as that of any other student who desires to add a class. It is the student's responsibility to drop or officially withdraw from the class. See General Catalog for details.
- Regular attendance in all classes is expected of all students. A student whose continuous, unexcused absences exceed the number of hours the class is scheduled to meet per week may be dropped. For online courses, students who fail to complete required activities for two consecutive weeks may be considered to have excessive absences and may be dropped.
- Absences attributed to the representation of the college at officially approved events (conferences, contests, and field trips) will be counted as 'excused' absences.

Classroom Etiquette

- Cell phones and electronic devices must be turned off and put away during class, unless otherwise directed by the instructor.
- Food and drink are prohibited in all classrooms; water bottles with lids/caps are the only exception.
- Students who disrupt or interfere with a class may be sent out of the room and told to meet with the Campus Disciplinary Officer before returning to continue with coursework. Disciplinary procedures will be followed as outlined in the General Catalog.
- Due to college rules and state laws, only enrolled students may attend class; children are not allowed.

Online Netiquette

- “Netiquette” refers to the rules of behaving well online. It can be more difficult to discern meaning in written text than in spoken conversation, so pay particular attention to your words.
- Keep your language clear and concise; ensure posts are on-topic; use correct spelling, grammar, and capitalization (all caps = yelling); and contribute productively to conversations.

Academic Honesty

Academic honesty in the advancement of knowledge requires that all students and instructors respect the integrity of one another’s work and recognize the importance of acknowledging and safeguarding intellectual property.

There are many different forms of academic dishonesty. The following kinds of honesty violations and their definitions are not meant to be exhaustive. Rather, they are intended to serve as examples of unacceptable academic conduct.

- Plagiarism is taking and presenting as one’s own the writings or ideas of others, without citing the source. You should understand the concept of plagiarism and keep it in mind when taking exams and preparing written materials. If you do not understand how to “cite a source” correctly, you must ask for help.
- Cheating is defined as fraud, deceit, or dishonesty in an academic assignment, or using or attempting to use materials, or assisting others in using materials that are prohibited or inappropriate in the context of the academic assignment in question.

Anyone caught cheating or plagiarizing will receive a zero (0) on the exam or assignment, and the instructor may report the incident to the Campus Disciplinary Officer, who may place related documentation in a file. Repeated acts of cheating may result in an F in the course and/or disciplinary action. Please refer to the General Catalog for more information on academic dishonesty or other misconduct. Acts of cheating include, but are not limited to, the following: (a) plagiarism; (b) copying or attempting to copy from others during an examination or on an assignment; (c) communicating test information with another person during an examination; (d) allowing others to do an assignment or portion of an assignment; (e) using a commercial term paper service.

Student Equity Program

- The Student Equity Program strives to improve Imperial Valley College’s success outcomes, particularly for students who have been historically underrepresented and underserved. The college identifies strategies to monitor and address equity issues, making efforts to mitigate any disproportionate impact on student success and achievement. Our institutional data provides insight surrounding student populations who historically, are not fully represented. Student Equity addresses disparities and/or disproportionate impact in student success across disaggregated student equity groups including gender, ethnicity, disability status, financial need, Veterans, foster youth, homelessness, and formerly incarcerated students. The Student Equity Program provides direct supportive services to empower students experiencing insecurities related to food, housing, transportation, textbooks, and shower access. We recognize that students who struggle meeting their basic needs are also at an academic and economic disadvantage, creating barriers to academic success and wellness. We strive to remove barriers that affect IVC students’ access to education, degree and certificate completion, successful completion of developmental math and English courses, and the ability to transfer to a university. Contact: 760.355.5736 or 760.355.5733 Building 100.
- The Student Equity Program also houses IVC’s Homeless Liaison, who provides direct services, campus, and community referrals to students experiencing homelessness as defined by the McKinney-Vento Act. Contact: 760.355.5736 Building 100.
