Course Requirements and Instructional Methods

Silvils, Kevin and Riddle, Deana (2010). The Game of Basketball: Basketball Fundamentals, Intangibles and Finer Points of the Game for Coaches, Players and Fans A Southern Family Publishing. ISBN: 9780615345260

Access to internet/Laptop or Desktop computer/Google Chrome Browse or Firefox to access canvas information/E Book will be provided in Mastering Health System

Out of Class Assignments: Choose one local basketball program and attend a practice and then a game. Evaluate the coach's system and practice methodology compared to the teams' performance in the game.

Reading and Writing: Choose any basketball coach and research their philosophy of coaching by accessing on-line articles. Consider what elements can be applied to your performance in this class. Present your ideas in a short, written essay.

Course Grading Based on Course Objectives

A Gradebook will be implemented into Canvas to help you keep track of how you're doing in the class. The assignments will be given and graded in a timely manner.

Exams:	400pts	Scale:	A = 100 - 90%
Weekly Modules:	100pts		B = 89 - 80%
Quizzes	100pts		C = 79 - 70%
Behavior Change	100pt		D = 69 - 60%
Reading Assignment	60pt		F= 59% and Below
Final	200pts
Total Points:	960 pts

Attendance

Students will be required to check in and complete all required assignments that will be given on a weekly basis. All attendance and participation grades will be generated through online coursework. Students that don't have access to online resources will be given time accommodations to help them stay on task or catch up.

- A student who fails to attend the first meeting of a class or does not complete the first mandatory activity of an online class will be dropped by the instructor as of the first official meeting of that class. Should readmission be desired, the student's status will be the same as that of any other student who desires to add a class. It is the student's responsibility to drop or officially withdraw from the class. See General Catalog for details.
- Regular attendance in all classes is expected of all students. A student whose continuous, unexcused absences exceed the number of hours the class is scheduled to meet per week may be dropped.
- Absences attributed to the representation of the college at officially approved events (conferences, contests, and field trips) will be counted as 'excused' absences.

Classroom Etiquette

Required Information --Discretionary language

- Electronic Devices: Cell phones and electronic devices must be turned off and put away during class unless otherwise directed by the instructor. Consider: specifics for your class/program
- Food and Drink are prohibited in all classrooms. Water bottles with lids/caps are the only exception. Additional restrictions will apply in labs. Please comply as directed.
- Disruptive Students: Students who disrupt or interfere with a class may be sent out of the room and told to meet with the Campus Disciplinary Officer before returning to continue with coursework. Disciplinary procedures will be followed as outlined in the General Catalog.
- Children in the classroom: Due to college rules and state laws, no one who is not enrolled in the class may attend, including children.

Academic Honesty

- Plagiarism is to take and present as one's own the writings or ideas of others, without citing the source. You should understand the concept of plagiarism and keep it in mind when taking exams and preparing written materials. If you do not understand how to correctly 'cite a source', you must ask for help.

- Cheating is defined as fraud, deceit, or dishonesty in an academic assignment or using or attempting to use materials, or assisting others in using materials, or assisting others in using materials, which are prohibited or inappropriate in the context of the academic assignment in question.

Anyone caught cheating or will receive a zero (0) on the exam or assignment, and the instructor may report the incident to the Campus Disciplinary Officer, who may place related documentation in a file. Repeated acts of cheating may result in an F in the course and/or disciplinary action. Please refer to the General School Catalog for more information on academic dishonesty or other misconduct. Acts of cheating include, but are not limited to the following: (a) plagiarism; (b) copying or attempting to copy from others during an examination or on an assignment ;(c) communicating test information with another person during an examination; (d) allowing others to do an assignment or portion of an assignment, (e) use of a commercial term paper service
