There will be an exam after each major unit of study which will be announced in advance. The exams will comprise multiple choice questions. You will need Scranton Sheets and #2 pencils for the Exams. Exams will NOT be made-up except in documented extenuating circumstances. If an exam is made-up, it must be done no later than 1 week following the original date. No exceptions! The Final Exam may be comprehensive, or, may be based on the last part of the course. It depends on the general achievement of your class as a whole. There will be a total of 3 Exams, including the Final Exam.

The "Famous Composer" Class Presentation: Each student will choose a composer from the assigned musical era (given by the instructor), and will write a paper (3 pages minimum, double spaced) about the composer's life and works. The student will also give a 10 to 15 minute presentation of the composer chosen, which will be graded. The student has the option to work individually, or in a small group. Concert Attendance and Critique: The student is required to

One concert must be classical in nature (for example, band, orchestra, choir, etc.); and the other may be contemporary, or a 2nd classical concert. The concert critiques must be type-written, and at least a full-page in length (double-spaced). The concert ticket and program (if available), must be attached to the critiques for validity. Concert Critiques are due 1 week before the Final Exam, or at latest, on the Final Exam day.

Out of Class Assignments: The Department of Education policy states that one (1) credit hour is the amount of student work that reasonably approximates not less than one hour of class time and two (2) hours of out-of-class time per week over the span of a semester.
