Course Requirements and Instructional Methods

Reading Reviews (All 5 MUST BE TURN IN BY 5/31)

The Reading reviews are going to be based on the reading assignments. Each Writing Assignment is one pages long. The first paragraph must be a summary of the reading (what you think is the most important subject of the reading). In addition, the second paragraph must be of your opinion on the reading.

The students will only write five writing assignments for this Spring 2022 semester. It is up to you to choose the readings that you would write your writing assignments about.

To get a good grade on the Reading Review, I recommend you stay with the facts. The point of the paper is to remain objective and detailed yet brief. Your paper should be in 12-point Times New Roman & Double Spaced always. Font size and style mismatches are automatic red marks on your paper and will result in a lower grade. You are expected to proofread your assignments before and after you print it, making sure the language and prose of your statements does three things: make sense, is grammatically correct and in syntax; deliver competent phrases that do not detract and amplify your writing; have overall language on a university level.

Film Analysis (Due by 4/7)

You will pick a movie that you think reflects the struggle or the culture of the Chicax community. The movies can be from the 1950s to 2021. The format of is 3 pages long, double space, font size 12 and times new roman.

- What is the argument of the movie and how does it represent the Chicax community?
- Who are characters that are involved in the movie and why is that event or topic important in Chicax History?
- Why is the Film important in Chicax popular culture?
- How does the movie address the issues that we have discuss in class?

Chicax Analysis (Due by 5/31)

You will pick a source (It can be a film, television show, play, book, magazine, Chicax cultural or spiritual tradition) that deals with the class subject of Chcianx. You must analyze the source and mention in your analysis the following topics:

1. What makes such Chicax source historically important to our community? What is the historical importance of Such source?
2. How does the source reflect the Chicax society from which it came from (such as time period and location)? And How did the Chicax society at the time reacted towards the topic of the book?
3. Compare the source to another book, play or movie/television show in our modern-day society that is like the source you chose. How is it the same? How is it different?
4. How would you describe or explain the source to the classroom? And what terms from class would you be using to describe the source?
5. What methods or strategies would help students understand the topic of the book?

The Chicax analysis will be 4 to 5 pages long, double spaced and in the MLA or Chicago style. Font size must be 12 and in times new roman. You must cite your sources. I will not accept late assignments (no excuses you have the whole semester to work on it)

Final.

The final will be on identifying important term that we discuss in class. You will answer by wiring a paragraph for each question. You are obligated to use examples from the lecture notes from the class readings and the articles from Canvas. You can also use outside sources to support your idea.

Student Equity Program

- The Student Equity Program strives to improve Imperial Valley College's success outcomes, particularly for students who have been historically underrepresented and underserved. The college identifies strategies to monitor and address equity issues, making efforts to mitigate any disproportionate impact on student success and achievement. Our institutional data provides insight surrounding student populations who historically, are not fully represented. Student Equity addresses disparities and/or disproportionate impact in student success across disaggregated student equity groups including gender, ethnicity, disability status, financial need, Veterans, foster youth, homelessness, and formerly incarcerated students. The Student Equity Program provides direct supportive services to empower students experiencing insecurities related to food, housing, transportation, textbooks, and shower access. We recognize that students who struggle meeting their basic needs are also at an academic and economic disadvantage, creating barriers to academic success and wellness. We strive to remove barriers that affect IVC students’ access to education, degree and certificate completion, successful completion of developmental math and English courses, and the ability to transfer to a university. Contact: 760.355.5736 or 760.355.5733 Building 100.
