Course Description

ESL 013 is a grammar based listening and speaking class in an English only environment for the intermediate ESL student. Students will further develop listening comprehension and will increase fluency, accuracy, and confidence in oral production.

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Apply knowledge of ESL pronunciation rules in oral and/or aural exercises. 2. Participate in speeches, conversation, and presentations utilizing the format and vocabulary of the identified speech act. 3. Listen to a passage or conversation to identify the main ideas and supporting details either orally or in writing.

Course Objectives

1. Development of knowledge and use of verb tenses. 2. Development of knowledge and use of affirmative, negative, and interrogative sentences. 3. Development of knowledge and use of modal auxiliary verbs. 4. Development of knowledge and use of comparative, superlative, and equative adjectives. 5. Development of knowledge and use of nouns and pronouns. 6. Development of knowledge and use of object pronouns and phrasal verbs. 7. Development of correct pronunciation of vowels and consonants and corresponding receptive skills. 8. Oral production of dialogs. 9. Development of situational/functional English. 10. Development of receptive listening skills. 11. Development of knowledge and use of vocabulary.

Textbooks & Other Resources or Links

21st Century Communication, listening, speaking, and critical thinking, level two, 21st Century Communication, listening, speaking, and critical thinking, level two workbook (online, the necessary code comes with the text), Notebook with notebook paper. English/English dictionary (Longman recommended.)

Course Requirements and Instructional Methods

In this class, you will take five unit tests and several quizzes. In addition, you will be required to do homework activities in the text and online workbook and be prepared to review them in class. Each unit requires group discussions that will allow you to practice your English listening and speaking skills and group oral presentations. Furthermore, each unit has listening, speaking, critical thinking, pronunciation, and note taking skills activities. You will also be given dictations for some of the listening sections in each unit.

Out of Class Assignments: The Department of Education policy states that one (1) credit hour is the amount of student work that reasonably approximates not less than one hour of class time and two (2) hours of out-of-class time per week over the span of a semester. WASC has adopted a similar requirement.

Course Grading Based on Course Objectives

Your grade will be based on a point system. You will receive points for unit exams and quizzes, oral presentations, the final examination, online homework, and class participation. The unit exams and quizzes are 50% of your grade. The oral presentations are 30%. Class participation is 10%, and the online homework is 10%. If you want to receive a high grade in this class, you must take and pass all exams, give oral presentations, and actively participate in class. You must be in class to actively participate. Therefore, if you come late to class, take longer than necessary breaks, leave early, or are absent frequently, you will not receive participation points. If you do not complete the online homework, your final grade will drop one letter. Also, you must pay attention in class and attempt to speak English in order to receive participation points. You may make up only ONE test. It is very important to remember that you can miss and make up only one test. You must make up a test within a week of taking it.

Attendance

- A student who fails to attend the first meeting of a class or does not complete the first mandatory activity of an online class will be dropped by the instructor as of the first official meeting of that class. Should readmission be desired, the student's status will be the same as that of any other student who desires to add a class. It is the student's responsibility to drop or officially withdraw from the class. See General Catalog for details.
- Regular attendance in all classes is expected of all students. A student whose continuous, unexcused absences exceed the number of hours the class is scheduled to meet per week may be dropped. For online courses, students who fail to complete required activities for two consecutive weeks may be considered to have excessive absences and may be dropped.
- Absences attributed to the representation of the college at officially approved events (conferences, contests, and field trips) will be counted as 'excused' absences.

Classroom Etiquette

- Electronic Devices: Cell phones and electronic devices must be turned off and put away during class unless otherwise directed by the instructor. The first time I see a student using technology of any kind in the classroom, I will ask him/ her to put it away. The second time, I will take the device from the student for the class period. If you are using technology in class, you are not participating and will lose participation points.
- Food and Drink are prohibited in all classrooms. Water bottles with lids/caps are the only exception. Additional restrictions will apply in labs. Please comply as directed by the instructor.
- Disruptive Students: Students who disrupt or interfere with a class may be sent out of the room and told to meet with the Campus Disciplinary Officer before returning to continue with coursework. Disciplinary procedures will be followed as outlined in the General Catalog.
- Children in the classroom: Due to college rules and state laws, no one who is not enrolled in the class may attend, including children.
- When I am playing the book's CD or a DVD, there should be no talking. Students must be able to listen carefully to the CD or DVD in order to improve their listening comprehension skills. Also, when students are participating in group discussions, they must speak quietly because many students will be talking at the same time.

- When I am in front of the classroom teaching, there should be no unnecessary talking. Do not socialize in class. If you have a question, you may ask me one, but do not socialize with your classmates.
- Do not leave the classroom unless it is absolutely necessary. It is a distraction to me and your classmates when you leave and come back to the classroom. Leave the classroom for emergencies only.

Online Netiquette

- What is netiquette? Netiquette is internet manners, online etiquette, and digital etiquette all rolled into one word. Basically, netiquette is a set of rules for behaving properly online.
- Students are to comply with the following rules of netiquette: (1) identify yourself, (2) include a subject line, (3) avoid sarcasm, (4) respect others' opinions and privacy, (5) acknowledge and return messages promptly, (6) copy with caution, (7) do not spam or junk mail, (8) be concise, (9) use appropriate language, (10) use appropriate emoticons (emotional icons) to help convey meaning, and (11) use appropriate intensifiers to help convey meaning [do not use ALL CAPS or multiple exclamation marks (!!!)].

Academic Honesty

Academic honesty in the advancement of knowledge requires that all students and instructors respect the integrity of one another's work and recognize the important of acknowledging and safeguarding intellectual property.

There are many different forms of academic dishonesty. The following kinds of honesty violations and their definitions are not meant to be exhaustive. Rather, they are intended to serve as examples of unacceptable academic conduct.

- Plagiarism is taking and presenting as one's own the writings or ideas of others, without citing the source. You should understand the concept of plagiarism and keep it in mind when taking exams and preparing written materials. If you do not understand how to "cite a source" correctly, you must ask for help.
- Cheating is defined as fraud, deceit, or dishonesty in an academic assignment, or using or attempting to use materials, or assisting others in using materials that are prohibited or inappropriate in the context of the academic assignment in question.

Anyone caught cheating or plagiarizing will receive a zero (0) on the exam or assignment, and the instructor may report the incident to the Campus Disciplinary Officer, who may place related documentation in a file. Repeated acts of cheating may result in an F in the course and/or disciplinary action. Please refer to the General Catalog for more information on academic dishonesty or other misconduct. Acts of cheating include, but are not limited to, the following: (a) plagiarism; (b) copying or attempting to copy from others during an examination or on an assignment; (c) communicating test information with another person during an examination; (d) allowing others to do an assignment or portion of an assignment; (e) using a commercial term paper service.
