Course Description

This course examines the complex, dynamic relationship between communities and the justice system in addressing crime and conflict with an emphasis on the challenges and prospects of administering justice within a diverse multicultural population. Topics may include the consensus and conflicting values in Cultural, Religion, and the Law. Through interaction and study, the student will become aware of the relationship and role law enforcement, the courts and corrections have in our multicultural society and how that role is evolving to an ever changing population. Emphasis will be placed upon the development of positive relationships between members in the criminal justice system and the public they serve. Concepts of community-oriented policing as they apply to administration of justice issues, future trends, and training will be discussed.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon course completion, the successful student will have acquired new skills, knowledge, and or attitudes as demonstrated by being able to:

- 1. Explain the history and evolution of multiculturalism in the U.S. and the challenges presented to Law Enforcement by a multicultural society.
- 2. Identify and explain the key issues that pose potential conflict between diverse communities and the courts, law enforcement and corrections.
- 3. Identify and describe the strategies that can be used for the administration of justice in a multicultural society, specifically dealing with Law Enforcement, Courts and Corrections and their relationships with the community as a whole.

Course Objectives

Upon satisfactory completion of the course, students will be able to:

- 1. Identify the components of the criminal justice system to include Law Enforcement, Court System and the Correctional System.
- 2. Identify the conflicting roles and expectations an officer faces in a multicultural society/population.
- 3. Identify what ethics and professionalism mean witin the law enforcement community.
- 4. Identify what multiculturalism is and the how this can influence the communities perception of law enforcement.
- 5. Experiment with and develop an awareness of their own perceptions, attitudes, beliefs and values, and demonstrate knowledge of how the self-image of police and the public image of police affect police-community relations. The student will identify and be able to summarize the factors which affect discretionary decisions making.
- 6. Demonstrate, through oral and written exercises, satisfactory solutions to help meet the needs of groups with particular needs within the community. The student will demonstrate knowledge of the individuals' civil rights.
- 7. Demonstrate specific knowledge about the communication barriers between the community and the criminal justice system, and be able to restate techniques on how to reduce those barriers for more effective policy-community relations.
- 8. Discuss and analyze current topics, programs and future trends in policing and community relations through study, discussions, role playing, field trips, et cetera.
- 9. Identify the Demographics of a community/population center and idenfity how different groups within a community may require different approaches for effective community relations.
- 10. Demonstrate, through oral and written exercises, how the Court System works within the Community and can affect how the Community sees the Criminal Justice System.
- 11. Demonstrate, through oral and written exercises, satisfactory awareness of the growing Multicultural populations within the Correctional setting and how to manage those diverse populations in the modern era.

Final Exam

Instructional Methodology: Lecture

Out of Class Assignments: The Department of Education policy states that (1) credit hour is the amount of student work that reasonably approximates not less than one hour of class time and two (2) hours of out of class time per week over the span of a semester. WASC has adopted a similar requirement.

Course Grading Based on Course Objectives

Grading Procedure: Total Points: 500

Quizzes: 160 points (4 @ 40 points each)

Individual Presentation: 100 points

Individual Presentation Comments: 30 points

Discussion Questions (20 Points) Each Discussion Question is worth 10 points and must be one full paragraph

Written Assignments: 90 points (2 @ 45 points each)

Final Exam: 100 points (50 questions @ 2 points each)

A = 450-500 B = 400-449 C = 350-399 D = 300-349 F = 0-299

Chapter Quizzes (160 Points)

Each quiz (4) is twenty questions worth two points per question.

Final Exam (100 Points)

Final exam is 50 questions worth two points per question.

Individual Presentation (100 Points)

You must make a 5 minute oral presentation on a criminal justice topic of your choosing. You may use powerpoint or any other visual aid if you so desire. You must speak in a loud, clear voice and make eye contact with the class.

Grading Criteria:

2 minutes = 20 points	Content = 10 points
3 minutes = 30 points	Preparation = 10 points
4 minutes = 40 points	Voice volume = 10 points
5 minutes = 50 points	Eye contact = 10 points

Individual Presentation Comments (30 Points)

You must write 5 short sentences/bullet points on each presentation. You must use the template provided on Canvas.

Grading Criteria

You will earn 6 points per presentation day. You must comment on all presentations made.

Presentations will be made on five separate dates.

Written Assignments (90 Points)

You will be given 2 written assignments related to criminal justice.

Due dates are listed in the syllabus.

Grading Criteria:

Written assignments are worth 45 points each.

Course Policies

Attendance

A student who fails to attend the first meeting of a class or does not complete the first mandatory activity of an online class will be dropped by the instructor as of the first official meeting of that class. Should readmission be desired, the student's status will be the same as that of any other student who desires to add a class. It is the student's responsibility to drop or officially withdraw from the class. See General Catalog for details.

Regular attendance in all classes is expected of all students. A student whose continuous, unexcused absences exceed the number of hours the class is scheduled to meet per week may be dropped. Arriving late to class or leaving before dismissal will count as ½ an absence.

Absences attributed to the representation of the college at officially approved events (conferences, contests, and field trips) will be counted as excused absences.

Classroom Policies

Electronic Devices: Cell phones and electronic devices must be turned off and put away during class, unless otherwise directed by the instructor.

Food and Drink: Food and drink are prohibited in all classrooms. Water bottles with lids/caps are the only exception. Additional restrictions will apply in labs. Please comply as directed by the instructor.

Disruptive Students: Students who disrupt or interfere with a class may be sent out of the room and told to meet with the Campus Disciplinary Officer before returning to continue with coursework. Disciplinary procedures will be followed as outlined in the General Catalog.

Children in the classroom: Due to college rules and state laws, only students enrolled in the class may attend; children are not allowed.
