Textbooks & Other Resources or Links

The course textbook is Principles of Management by Bright, Cortes, Hartmann, et al. It is published on openstax.com. It is an open source textbook and is free to use. The text, and all other necessary course materials, are available on, and/or accessible through, the course website on Canvas.

Course Requirements and Instructional Methods

Class activities will consist of lecture, group discussion, group activities, and multimedia presentations. Assignments will include reading of the textbook and other relevant material, and analysis of business cases and problems. This will be done both in-class and through out-of-class reading and homework assignments that will be distributed throughout the semester. There will be at least one major negotiation exercise held during the semester in which teams of students will negotiate a solution to a simulated business problem. There will be two exams during the semester: a Mid-term Exam and a Final Exam. Each exam will cover approximately half of the course. Please see the “Course Grading” section directly below for more information on this topic.

Course Grading Based on Course Objectives

	Course Grading	Grade Scale
Mid-term Exam	100	A = 315 - 350

Final Exam	100	B = 280 - 314
Class Exercises and Homework	100	C = 245 - 279
Negotiation Exercise	50	D = 210 - 244
Total	350

Note on Exams: Each student will need to provide a Scantron (100) and a # 2 pencil for each exam. There will be no make-up exams.

Note on Homework: Each homework assignment is worth 10 points. There will be at least 15 homework assignments during the semester. Since there are 100 homework points available in this class, only the top 10 homework scores count toward final course grades. All other homework scores, if any, will be dropped when course grades are calculated.

Homework must be turned in on the date assigned to receive full credit. Homework may be turned in one class period late for up to one-half credit. No homework will be accepted that is more than one class period late. There will be no make-up homework.

Note on Negotiation: The Negotiation Exercise is worth 50 points. This includes 25 points for participating in the negotiation session and 25 points for negotiation evaluations. Students must attend class on the day of the negotiation session and actively participate in the negotiations to receive participation points. Evaluations will be done as an online assignment the week after the negotiation session and must be completed according to instruction.

General Note: More specific information on all these activities will be presented as the semester proceeds.

Academic Honesty (Artificial Intelligence -AI)

IVC values critical thinking and communication skills and considers academic integrity essential to learning. Using AI tools as a replacement for your own thinking, writing, or quantitative reasoning goes against both our mission and academic honesty policy and will be considered academic dishonesty, or plagiarism unless you have been instructed to do so by your instructor. In case of any uncertainty regarding the ethical use of AI tools, students are encouraged to reach out to their instructors for clarification.

Course Policies

IVC ATTENDANCE POLICY

A student who fails to attend the first meeting of a class or does not complete the first mandatory activity of an online class will be dropped by the instructor as of the first official meeting of that class. Should readmission be desired, the student's status will be the same as that of any other student who desires to add a class. After the first week's drops for nonattendance and nonparticipation, it is the student's responsibility to drop or officially withdraw from the class. See General Catalog for details.

Regular attendance in all classes is expected of all students. A student whose continuous, unexcused absences exceed the number of hours the class is scheduled to meet per week may be dropped. For online courses, students who fail to complete required activities for two consecutive weeks may be considered to have excessive absences and may be dropped. However, as noted above, it is ultimately the student's responsibility to drop a class.

Absences attributed to the representation of the college at officially approved events (conferences, contests, and field trips) will be counted as 'excused' absences.

Other Course Information

Students are to comply with the following rules of netiquette: (1) identify yourself, (2) include a subject line, (3) avoid sarcasm, (4) respect others' opinions and privacy, (5) acknowledge and return messages promptly, (6) copy with caution, (7) do not spam or junk mail, (8) be concise, (9) use appropriate language, (10) use appropriate emoticons (emotional icons) to help convey meaning, and (11) use appropriate intensifiers to help convey meaning [do not use ALL CAPS or multiple exclamation marks (!!!!)].

Academic honesty in the advancement of knowledge requires that all students and instructors respect the integrity of one another's work and recognize the important of acknowledging and safeguarding intellectual property.

There are many different forms of academic dishonesty. The following kinds of honesty violations and their definitions are not meant to be exhaustive. Rather, they are intended to serve as examples of unacceptable academic conduct.

- Plagiarism is taking and presenting as one's own the writings or ideas of others, without citing the source. You should understand the concept of plagiarism and keep it in mind when taking exams and preparing written materials. If you do not understand how to "cite a source" correctly, you must ask for help.
- Cheating is defined as fraud, deceit, or dishonesty in an academic assignment, or using or attempting to use materials, or assisting others in using materials that are prohibited or inappropriate in the context of the academic assignment in question.

Anyone caught cheating or plagiarizing will receive a zero (0) on the exam or assignment, and the instructor may report the incident to the Campus Disciplinary Officer, who may place
