Course Description

An introduction to debate, with emphasis on the creation and refutation of arguments concerning current social, political, and legal issues

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon course completion, the successful student will have acquired new skills, knowledge, and or attitudes as demonstrated by being able to:

1. write a case for an argumentative debate;
2. write and submit five properly worded debate propositions;
3. use logos to support their arguments during the debate process.

Course Objectives

Upon satisfactory completion of the course, students will be able to:

1. create, critique, and refute arguments;
2. identify fallacious argumentation;
3. be familiar with the most commonly debated topics (i.e., gun control, capital punishment, legalization of prostitution, animal rights, euthanasia, etc.) and the arguments that are typically made in these debates;
4. participate in formal classroom debates;
5. understand the responsibilities of the proposition vs. opposition as well as the role of each speaker on the proposition and opposition teams.
