• Speeches

The speeches presented in this class will account for most of your course grade. All speeches will be delivered extemporaneously with speaking notes. Some speeches will require research and visual aids. All speeches require you to submit an outline and an MLA formatted work cited page. Please follow MLA formatting for these in-text citations.

You will be delivering several mandatory speeches during the course including:

1. Self and Classmate Introductory Speeches (2 minutes each)
2. Present Fallacies in Advertisements or in Political Speeches (3-5 minutes)
3. Informative/Demonstrative Speech (5-7 minutes)
4. Persuasive Speech (7 - 9 minutes)
5. Final Exam

◆ You will be instructed on the details of these types of speeches at an appropriate time.

◆ You must present all major speeches, fallacy presentations, and take the Final exam in order to pass this course, regardless of your grade. This means that even if you have a passing grade on Canvas, I may still fail you if you do not present ONE of the mandatory assignments. Please refer to the anticipated schedule for the dates of these mandatory assignments. Lastly, you MUST be present on speech presentation days, irrespective of if you are presenting, or have already presented. On the days when you are not presenting, you will serve as an audience member for your peers; therefore, you must attend class.

Leaving early on presentation days will count as an absence. Again, do not schedule personal appointments during class.

• Quizzes

You will be quizzed on every assigned chapter from the course textbook. Quizzes may be a combination of true/false, multiple-choice, fill-in-the-blanks, and short-answer questions.

Extra Credit: I do offer extra credit assignments!

Academic Honesty (Artificial Intelligence -AI)

IVC values critical thinking and communication skills and considers academic integrity essential to learning. Using AI tools such as ChatGPT as a replacement for your own thinking, writing, or quantitative reasoning goes against both our mission and academic honesty policy and will be considered academic dishonesty, or plagiarism unless you have been instructed to do so by your instructor. In case of any uncertainty regarding the ethical use of AI tools, students are encouraged to reach out to their instructors for clarification.

Course Policies

- A student who fails to attend the first meeting of a class or does not complete the first mandatory activity of an online class will be dropped by the instructor as of the first official meeting of that class. Should readmission be desired, the student's status will be the same as that of any other student who desires to add a class. It is the student's responsibility to drop or officially withdraw from the class. See General Catalog for details.

There are no acceptable "excused absences." Hospitalizations and COVID-19 require documentation. Home tests will not be accepted as documentation for Covid-19. Also, it is your responsibility to schedule personal appointments and family events so that these do not interfere with this class. These include weddings, funerals, and so on. Please speak to me if you have an important, scheduled, life event on any mandatory presentation days on DAY ONE of the semester. It is your responsibility to remind me of our agreement from day one, so that I do not mark you absent.

Regular attendance in all classes is expected of all students. A student whose continuous, unexcused absences exceed the number of hours the class is scheduled to meet per week may be dropped. More than three (3) absences will get you dropped from this class. For online courses, students who fail to complete required activities for two consecutive weeks may be considered to have excessive absences and may be dropped.

Please do NOT email me if you are going to be absent. I do not need to know why you are not in class. You get 3 absences before you are dropped; however, even if I don't drop you, absences affect your grade significantly. Also, if you are absent, do not email me to ask what you missed. I teach in person, not online. If you want to know what you missed, contact one of your classmates for notes, or schedule an appointment with me during my office hours. Office Hour appointments are limited to 15 minutes.

Please keep in mind that we only meet once every week and that you will miss out on lectures, discussions, and explanations of assignments if you are absent. Do not expect instructions or notes to be posted on Canvas. Again, I teach in person, not online. I reserve the right to give instructions or to post prompts in person without notice on Canvas. Being absent will also affect your grade if we have in-class assignments. I sometimes create assignments for in-class completion without notice.

Attendance on presentation days, midterms, and Finals is Mandatory if you wish to pass this class.

- Absences attributed to the representation of the college at officially approved events (conferences, contests, and field trips) will be counted as 'excused' absences.

Other Course Information

This course includes "brave" and "safe" spaces. This means that during our discussions, anything you wish to share ("brave space") shall be respected by ALL. Please know that I will drop any student who disrespects, bullies, or demeans anyone in the class. I welcome any gender, cultural identities, and pronouns. We will dedicate one discussion in this course regarding the identity topic in colleges and public speaking. Please try and use non-binary language in this course (ex. Folks, people, individuals, students, instead of men and women).
