Course Requirements and Instructional Methods

Discussion Posts = 13 posts at 20 points each = 260 PTS total

The discussion posts will be once a week (most weeks - NOT every week) with your initial post due on Thursday by 11:59 PM. The word count for your posts are to be (250 words) failure to meet the word count will result in a loss of points. I will assign a discussion prompt for each week (again, most weeks but NOT every week) dealing with the chapter you just read. You will be required to answer the question using your textbook as your reference. These are NOT opinion posts - do not write in the first person.

Responses = 26 responses at 5 points each = 130 PTS total

When you have finished your post for the week you MUST respond to TWO other classmate's posts! The word count for these responses are to be (50 words). These responses can be written in the first person.

14 quizzes = 708 PTS total

You will have quizzes once a week. These quizzes will help you become familiar with the material the chapter we have just studied. If you do well on the quizzes you will do well on the exam, since I will be using different questions from each quiz you have taken.

Visual Analysis Paper: 100 PTS total

3 pages minimum: More information on this paper will be given in our Week 3 module

Task Assignments: 15 points each assignment

In each chapter there are TASK assignments, you will either be assigned TASKS or asked to choose TASKS from each chapter. Instructions will be communicated clearly. Read instructions on this carefully. TASKS are to be completed and submitted through Canvas and are due by Saturday at 11:59 PM.

Exams:

Midterm Exam: 105 PTS total

Final Exam: 103 PTS total

Total points = 1,406

NOTE ON LATE WORK: All late assignments and quizzes will be deducted 10%. After two weeks, the deduction will increase to 20%. If an emergency occurs or you are unable to complete the tasks on time, please ask for an extension and provide your reason in order to avoid point reduction.

NOTE ON QUIZZES: All late quizzes will be deducted 10%. After two weeks, this will increase to a 20% deduction.

EXAMINATIONS: If you face an emergency, please contact me no later than the date of the examination, prior to the actual exam. It will be mandated that you provide proof of reason (i.e. doctor's note, court appearance notice, etc.) to be eligible for a makeup exam. For any conflicts known ahead of time, an alternate date will be offered.

Work Based Learning

Work-based learning (WBL) allows students to apply classroom content in professional settings while gaining real-world experiences. These opportunities will provide you with a deeper, more engaging and relevant learning environment. This semester, I will be offering the following WBL activities in order to provide you with the opportunity to explore career options in art history and the humanities.

WBL Activity Name	WBL Activity Description
WBL Activity 1: Virtual museum or art gallery visit	Research and experience based analysis. Students will be asked to watch a virtual video of museum or gallery walk and write about their experience while engaging in a discussion.
WBL Activity 2: Research-based experiences	Students will be asked to complete some research in their art analysis essay.
WBL Activity 3: Virtual tour of museum stock room (behind the scenes)	A virtual tour of what occurs behind the scenes in a museum. This will be supplemented with questions.

Some examples of WBL assignments are job shadowing, informational interviews, guest speakers and workplace simulations.

Course Policies

- Pay attention to important dates and deadlines: copy of CALENDAR and IMPORTANT DATES included
- Regular correspondence is expected of all students unless an emergency occurs. Unexcused absences/irregular attendance without a valid excuse will be marked against you.
- If you are COVID positive or experiencing symptoms, please stay home! In order for your absence to be considered excused, you are required to email your instructor a copy verifying an official COVID test (I WILL NOT ACCEPT AN AT-HOME TEST AS VERIFICATION).

Academic Honesty

- Plagiarism is to take and present as one's own the writings or ideas of others, without citing the source. You should understand the concept of plagiarism and keep it in mind when taking exams and preparing written materials. If you do not understand how to correctly 'cite a source', you must ask for help.
- Cheating is defined as fraud, deceit, or dishonesty in an academic assignment or using or attempting to use materials, or assisting others in using materials, or assisting others in using materials, which are prohibited or inappropriate in the context of the academic assignment in question. Anyone caught cheating will receive a zero (0) on the exam or assignment and the instructor may report the incident to the Campus Disciplinary Officer, who may place related documentation in a file. Repeated acts of cheating may result in an F in the course and/or disciplinary action. Please refer to the General School Catalog for more information on academic dishonesty or other misconduct. Acts of cheating include, but are not limited to the following:
 - plagiarism (copying anything word for word from your book without citing)
 - copying or attempting to copy from others during an examination or on an assignment;
 - communicating test information with another person during an examination;
 - allowing others to do an assignment or portion of an assignment;
 - use of a commercial term paper service.

Anticipated Class Schedule/Calendar

Week = Module # / Dates	Activity, Assignment, and/or Topic	Due Dates
To maintain the integrity of this course, I reserve the right to make changes as I deem necessary. Students will be informed of any changes via Announcements and/or e-mail on Canvas. As we move through the course, it is your responsibility to read the areas of the textbook and/or the readings on Canvas that correspond to the week's themes and subject areas in order to reinforce what you see and discuss in class. There is a lot of material to cover, set aside a dedicated time to read for this class each week. This approach should hopefully be less overwhelming than attempting to read every detail of the survey textbook.
