Course Description

The standard course in first-year English. The course seeks to improve the student's ability to understand serious and complex prose and to improve the student's ability to write an exposition that is thoughtful and clear, including the production of a well-documented research paper. This version of first-year English incorporates a lab component to provide intensive instruction in reading, writing, research, and critical thinking skills to aid in student success. Limitation on Enrollment: Course not open to students with a C or higher in English 110. (C-ID: ENGL 100) (CSU/UC)

Course Prerequisite(s) and/or Corequisite(s)

Eligibility for English 105 as determined by the college's multiple measures assessment process.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon course completion, the successful student will have acquired new skills, knowledge, and or attitudes as demonstrated by being able to:

1. Compose college-level essays that contain clear thesis statements, effective support, and unified organization.
2. Synthesize information from multiple sources to produce a research paper that is formatted and documented according to MLA guidelines.
3. Demonstrate an ability to comprehend and interpret a variety of college-level texts, including complex arguments and at least one full-length novel, play, or non-fiction book, without relying on outside sources for assistance.
4. Develop essays that avoid sentence-level and grammatical errors.

Course Objectives

Upon satisfactory completion of the course, students will be able to:

1. Write multiple essays—including one research paper and one final exam—that, together, add up to 6,000 words of formal writing
2. Demonstrate a command of the writing process, which may include pre-writing, drafting, revising, self-editing, peer group editing, and proofreading

3. Compose error-free essays that avoid sentence-level and grammar problems
4. Compose unified essays that include support for the thesis statement, clear development, and effective transitions
5. Demonstrate a command of writing patterns by effectively integrating various rhetorical modes, such as compare/contrast, definition, cause/effect, and argumentation together to produce sophisticated, college-level essays as appropriate
6. Demonstrate an ability to adapt writing strategies to the requirements of the writing situation (e.g. in-class writing, research writing, reflective writing) or to tailor a written assignment to address specific audiences (both general and academic)
7. Demonstrate a thorough understanding of research strategies and library skills (including electronic databases) to identify and evaluate resources for a research paper
8. Synthesize information from multiple sources to produce a research paper that is formatted and documented according to MLA guidelines
9. Demonstrate a command of rules regarding plagiarism and academic ethics
10. Read actively, using metacognitive strategies to monitor comprehension, build vocabulary, and improve analysis of college-level texts
11. Analyze the rhetorical context when reading by identifying genre, medium, purpose, audience and tone
12. Analyze and evaluate the strategies an author uses to make and support a claim, including the use of fallacies
13. Synthesize knowledge by relating texts to personal experience, to past and present events, and to other texts
14. Review and apply foundational writing skills including grammar and sentence structure.
15. Read model essays and the work of peers to identify strengths and/or weaknesses.
16. Read and evaluate texts for relevancy, appropriateness, and accuracy

Recommended texts and materials: A notebook with lined paper, dictionary, thesaurus, and an MLA Handbook (Many of these resources are available online)

This course utilizes Canvas, so access to a computer and internet will be necessary.

Course Requirements and Instructional Methods

This course is a hybrid course. That means that part of your instruction is online, but part is also in a classroom on campus. Both parts are required.

- Assignments Homework: Texts, materials, and/or videos will be provided online (except for the class novel). You are required to do all of the reading and the assigned exercises and assignments.
- Quizzes: There will be multiple quizzes throughout the semester. These will be simple comprehension quizzes based on the readings or film viewings from class.
- Discussions: Five or more discussions will be assigned using the forum feature on Canvas. For these discussions, you will be asked to write a short essay response to a question, and provide follow up commentary to your peers.

- Workshops: Everyone is expected to be in attendance and participate in workshops. You are expected to have a rough draft ready to share with your peers through the discussion boards, and provide helpful feedback. There will be more details about this discussed in class. Workshops may be conducted through the discussion boards or in-class!
- Journal: Each class will begin with a 10-15 minute journal session. One, single-spaced page equals a completed journal. These will be checked and then collected at the end of the semester. You can miss 2 without a point penalty.
- Writing Assignment: For this class, there will be a total of 5 graded essays and a final in-class essay. These essays will be worth at least half of your grade. These essays include a descriptive narrative, compare and contrast, and argument, research project (includes a short presentation), and literary analysis. Only complete essays (including rough drafts) will be accepted for a grade.
- Midterm and Final Exam: These will consist of an “in-class” essay. You will have a limited window of time to write an essay demonstrating your mastery writing skills gained throughout the semester.

Most due dates for this class will be on Fridays or Sundays. I will always let you know in class, but be sure to check Canvas for assignment details frequently.

Course Grading Based on Course Objectives

- Writing Assignments (5): 10 points each possible (total of 50 points)
- Presentation: 5 points
- Workshops (5): 5 points each possible
- 4 Quizzes (5): 25 points possible (minimum: there may be more quizzes assigned)
- Discussion (6+): 30 points possible (minimum: there may be more discussions assigned)
- Journals: 10 Points (based on how many are completed at the end of semester)
- Midterm and Final: 10 points and 20 points possible

*Note: There may be more or less points available depending on how many quizzes and discussions we complete by the end of semester. Every point matters!

Note: Final versions of essays will be accepted up to one week late with a point penalty (seven days from the due date). Work will not be accepted beyond that time. Late work will automatically lose one point. Other assignments must be turned in by the due date.

There may be exceptions for extraordinary cases, so please stay in contact with me.

Academic Honesty (Artificial Intelligence -AI)

IVC values critical thinking and communication skills and considers academic integrity essential to learning. Using AI tools as a replacement for your own thinking, writing, or quantitative reasoning goes against both our mission and academic honesty policy and will be considered academic dishonesty, or plagiarism unless you have been instructed to do so by your instructor. In case of any uncertainty regarding the ethical use of AI tools, students are encouraged to reach out to their instructors for clarification.

Essays or other writing with a 50% or higher score of AI probability will receive a zero for that assignment. Writing that demonstrates the markers and/or signs of AI may be questioned and require individual discussion with me.

Course Policies

A student who fails to attend the first meeting of a class or does not complete the first mandatory activity of an online class will be dropped by the instructor as of the first official meeting of that class.

Should readmission be desired, the student's status will be the same as that of any other student who desires to add a class.

It is the student's responsibility to drop or officially withdraw from the class. I do not drop students!

Regular attendance in all classes is expected of all students. A student whose continuous, unexcused absences exceed the number of hours the class is scheduled to meet per week may be dropped. For online courses, students who fail to complete required activities for two consecutive weeks may be considered to have excessive absences and may be dropped.

Absences attributed to the representation of the college at officially approved events (conferences, contests, and field trips) will be counted as 'excused' absences.

Other Course Information

Plagiarism and Cheating

Plagiarism is to take and present as one's own the writings or ideas of others, without citing the source. You should understand the concept of plagiarism and keep it in mind when taking exams and preparing written materials. If you do not understand how to correctly 'cite a source', you must ask for help.

Cheating is defined as fraud, deceit, or dishonesty in an academic assignment or using or attempting to use materials, or assisting others in using materials, or assisting others in using materials, which are prohibited or inappropriate in the context of the academic assignment in question. Anyone caught cheating or will receive a zero (0) on the exam or assignment, and the instructor may report the incident to the Campus Disciplinary Officer, who may place related documentation in a file. Repeated acts of cheating may result in an F in the course and/or disciplinary action.

Please refer to the General School Catalog for more information on academic dishonesty or other misconduct. Acts of cheating include, but are not limited to the following: (a) plagiarism; (b) copying or attempting to copy from others during an examination or on an assignment ;(c) communicating test information with another person during an examination; (d) allowing others to do an assignment or portion of an assignment, (e) use of a commercial term paper service
