Course Requirements and Instructional Methods

Welcome to ART100! This semester, we will work on our critical thinking, communication, and teamwork skills while learning about art and architecture from a broad survey of Western cultures ranging from Prehistoric times through the Middle Ages.

Daily Attendance Assignment:

Attendance is recorded each class period by student participation in the daily discussion activity. Weekly participation grade reflects class attendance and completion of online work ON TIME before the end of the due date. Students will be asked to share handwritten daily activities by scanning to PDF/taking images of in-class work to submit to the Canvas submission portal on the respective date.

PLEASE NOTE: Students are responsible for tracking their own attendance in the course. It is VITAL that you follow the directions after EVERY CLASS to document the handwritten work completed in class with your groupmates so that you can upload to the Daily Attendance Submission Portal.

Week 0 Introduction:

Our first week of class is Week 0. We will cover course policies as well as have a brief introduction to our subject matter and our classmates. Students will complete policy quizzes and an introductory discussion board.

Weekly Reading Notes:

Students are assigned weekly readings from our Open Education Resource book Introduction to Art History I and any other assigned readings provided on Canvas relating to our class meeting topics. These readings include scholarly articles and reliable sources from university and museum websites. Students are expected to complete these readings outside of class and follow instructor-provided directions to complete weekly Reading Notes on Canvas. Students are welcome to use resources provided in the weekly module and/or work together

Course Policies

RESPECT: The most important rule in all my courses is respect: respect for each other and our subject matter. We will interact with each other via written discussion board posts, leaving comments on classmates' posts, working with classmates throughout the semester during class sessions and group projects, as well as encountering art from varying time periods, cultures, and perspectives. It is important that our learning community is inclusive when interacting with classmates and openminded when encountering art that might make us uncomfortable. My hope is for us to have fruitful discussions that activate critical thinking regarding how different cultures represent such themes and ideas visually in their works.

Communication: The most common form of communication will be instructor's campus email, caitlin.chavez@imperial.edu. The instructor will respond to emails within 48 hours (excluding weekends and holidays). Under special circumstances (instructor absence or campus closure), you will be notified of potential delays.

**In the case the instructor has not responded to you within 48 hours, feel free to send a follow up email. Sometimes your email may have been overlooked or I reviewed it at a time that I was not able to respond properly and then I did not follow up within 48 hours.

Imperial Email policy: Students are required to check their email several times throughout the week to stay notified of important announcements or reminders regarding the weekly coursework. Students will also use their IVC email account to write emails to the instructor as well as communicate with classmates during the final group project.

DO NOT use email addresses that are not your campus email. These emails may end up in my junk folder and I will not be able to respond to you in a timely manner.

Attendance: Weekly participation and engagement in the course is important for student success. Students are expected to spend three hours a week in person participating in discussions and in-class work and additional hours completing the assignments and readings online. Attendance is recorded when students arrive to class on time and participate in the daily discussions. Online assignments should be completed by the due date.

Students who do not show up on the first day of class, Monday, February 10, or email instructor to inform of their absence will be dropped from the course to support IVC's efforts to combat financial aid fraud and to allow space for Waitlisted Students and/or Course Crashers.

Students who have 3 consecutive class absences/two weeks missing work without communication to the instructor will be subject to being dropped by the instructor before 5/10/2024 final drop date.

Instructor attendance policy: For the face-to-face class, students' attendance will be recorded by students submitting copies of their handwritten classwork to the submission portal. In order to earn full participation for the week, students will need to have completed their weekly reading notes/discussion board/ other assessments before FRIDAY, 11:59 PM of the week. Attendance/participation in this course is worth 25% of your total semester grade.

Submission Policy: Work is due by 11:59 PM on FRIDAYS during the semester unless otherwise noted in the course schedule or during in class sessions. Not submitting work will result in a 0 for the assignment and affect your weekly attendance/participation grade. If you are not able to submit your work by the weekly deadline, please email me ASAP so that I can work with you on a plan for success and an appropriate submission date.

Extenuating Circumstances: In the case of an extenuating circumstance, such as illness or family emergency, students are encouraged to inform the instructor as soon as possible so I can excuse your absence and we can work together on a plan for your success in the course.

Make-up Policy: Communicate with the instructor ASAP if you are interested in making up missing work.

Assignment Submission Policy: Students will submit assignments through Canvas following the directions. For discussion board posts, students will submit written text with an attached picture(s). In the case students need to resubmit a Word Doc or PDF to a Submission Portal for an assignment, they will need to contact Prof C via email to reset the portal.

The instructor DOES NOT accept email attachments for assignment submissions. Students need to submit work to Canvas.

Academic Honesty: All incidences of scholastic dishonesty—including but not limited to cheating, plagiarism, and collusion—will result in an assignment grade of “0” and, per college protocols, will be reported. Similarly, any work copied in whole or in part from the Internet or work resulting from a commercial or paid service will receive a grade of “0.” For further information, please refer to the college’s academic policies and standards in the General Catalog.

Prof C. Cheating Policy: In this course, you will have short, weekly writing assignments and a couple of longer essays. It is important that you complete these assignments in YOUR OWN WORDS and do not copy-paste from the internet. Students will be assigned a grade of “0” the first two times they are caught copy-pasting content from the internet. The third time a student is caught plagiarizing will result in the assignment of an academic penalty, which will follow the process outlined in the General Catalog.

AI Policy: During our class work sessions, students may be directed to use AI free online tools to complete work related to our weekly topics. We will approach this technology as a tool to help us organize our notes discussed in class. For writing assignments that prompt you to write your own response in your own words, use of AI tools will fall under academic dishonesty and students will earn an automatic 0 on writing assignments related to Reading Notes, Formal Analysis Discussion Post, Midterm Oral Presentation and Final Newsletter assignments.

IVC values critical thinking and communication skills and considers academic integrity essential to learning. Using AI tools as a replacement for your own thinking, writing, or quantitative reasoning goes against both our mission and academic honesty policy and will be considered academic dishonesty, or plagiarism unless you have been instructed to do so by your instructor. In case of any uncertainty regarding the ethical use of AI tools, students are encouraged to reach out to their instructors for clarification.

Prof C. E-mail Etiquette: Emails between students and instructors should maintain professionalism in respect to both parties. It is important to me to respond as soon as possible to students’ concerns as well as highlight the importance of writing emails respectfully and professionally. In your emails, please make sure to greet with a “Dear/Good morning/afternoon/evening/etc. Prof C.” and sign your email with “From/sincerely” and your name and class section (We are ART100:20583). In the body of your email, please read over out loud to make sure your text is correct and makes sense before sending. It is my goal to extend polite email correspondence with my students so that they can always feel comfortable emailing me about any questions and concerns. Additionally, practicing polite email correspondence is an invaluable skill that will serve all well in their future career and workforce pursuits.

Technology requirements:

Even though we are a face-to-face class, our assessments are delivered through Canvas, a Learning Management System (LMS), and students are expected to have access to a stable Internet, updated browser (i.e., Chrome is most preferred), current software (i.e., Outlook, Microsoft Word, PowerPoint, etc.), hardware (i.e., laptop or desktop with working microphone and webcam), and other free platforms/apps/social media (i.e., Zoom, YouTube, Kapwing, Canva, other video editing tools, etc.).

For technological assistance (e.g., loaner laptop from IVC to w-fi access), please refer to <https://www.imperial.edu/students/assessment-center/>.
