Course Description

This course is designed for students to study the basic concepts in the political and historical traditions of America and California by analyzing national, state, and local political institutions from colonial times to the present. The course examines the evolution of concepts and ideas that are fundamental to our political culture. It emphasizes the concepts citizens should understand in order to vote intelligently and otherwise effectively participate in the political process. This course is designed specifically to satisfy the CSU History, Constitution, and American Ideals requirement. The course is not open to students with credit in POLS 102.

Course Prerequisite(s) and/or Corequisite(s)

Student Learning Outcomes

- Describe different instruments of US foreign policy, give examples of their use, explain the role of different institutions in crafting foreign policy, describe different explanations for why a particular policy was made, and evaluate the relative strengths and weaknesses of that policy.
- Describe the system of checks and balances in American government and evaluate how it affects legislation.
- Identify, compare, and contrast the various positions on the ideological spectrum, and apply the core values and beliefs of each position to contemporary political issues.

Course Objectives

- Assess the contribution of the American colonial experience to contemporary American political culture
- Analyze the motivations of the founders of the Constitution
- Distinguish among and analyze federal, confederate, and unitary forms of government; analyze the use of each in U.S. history
- Analyze the civil liberties and the civil rights and relate them to historical and contemporary political issues
- Distinguish among the major issues regarding slavery from the colonial period to the adoption of the Thirteenth, Fourteenth, and Fifteenth Amendments

- Analyze American pluralism from its ethnic, gender, and socio-economic perspectives
- Analyze the role played in American politics historically and contemporarily by major ethnic minority groups and people of both genders
- Analyze the evolution of the political party system as it relates to specific historical issues, differentiate between liberal and conservative policy options, and analyze the basic motivations in public policy-making
- Differentiate among the various components of the American electoral machinery and analyze how various ethnic and socio-economic groups relate to them.
- Analyze the development, importance, and effects of public opinion polling and the media in American politics
- Analyze the evolution, political power, and functions of interest groups
- Assess the importance and the influence of the media on the American political process, past and present
- Analyze the legislative, executive, and judicial branches from the perspective of their historical development and as to how they relate to the diverse citizenry
- Analyze the development of the function and the power of the bureaucracy and its interaction with politicians and the public
- Analyze fiscal and monetary policy from the perspective of their political and social consequences
- Analyze the evolution of the American economy and the economic and social consequences of industrialization
- Analyze the evolution of social policy from political and social perspectives
- Analyze American foreign policy in its expansionist and imperialist era through its current superpower status
- Analyze the historical development of California through its Spanish, Mexican, and American eras
- Assess the social consequences and the public policy implications of California's evolving economic and demographic patterns
- Analyze and distinguish among state, county, city, and special district government.

Course Requirements and Instructional Methods

DISCUSSION POSTS (20%): Discussion forums will open the Monday of each new module—initial topic replies are due the following Wednesday at 11pm and peer replies are due the following Saturday at 11pm. To ensure that we are presenting claims/positions based on evidence, your posts are expected to cite our textbook and/or the module's associated video(s) in your initial post (see assignment instructions in Canvas). Please let me know if you encounter any post that violate our netiquette policy (see below). Strict plagiarism standards and software is used to check these posts. Please note that I grade whatever initial post students submit to gain access to the discussion forum (even if it is blank, incomplete, etc.) and that posts are not editable, once submitted. Discussion posts cannot be made up, so please don't wait until the deadlines, or ask for extensions. However, recognizing that life happens, we will have an extra credit opportunity that will allow you to make up these points during Module #16.

IMPERIAL VALLEY COLLEGE

COURSE EXAMS (75%): You will be given three course exams for this course. Each exam may consist of multiple choice, fill in the blank, short answer, & quote/clause identification. The material you will be tested on will be drawn from the readings, lectures, and any supplemental videos associated with the Learning Unit in which each exam is located (see Assignment Schedule below). Honorlock will proctor your exams this semester—an online proctoring service that allows you to take our exams remotely. You DO NOT need to create an account or schedule an appointment in advance. Honorlock and Honorlock support is available 24/7, and all that is required is a compatible computer and stable internet connection (you will NOT need a camera or identification for any of our exams). You have until Sunday at 11 pm during exam weeks to complete all exams. However, if you chose to take the exam during the weekend, you do so at your own risk as I am not available via email and IVC support services are limited during this time. Further Honorlock and exam details are available in Canvas (see below schedule for due dates).

California State & Local Government Capstone Project (5%): Students will complete a capstone project in which they will research a state/local government agency to devise a solution to a state/local problem, applying key concepts and historical perspectives learned throughout the course. Further details are provided after Course Exam #1 in Canvas.

Academic Honesty (Artificial Intelligence -AI)

IVC values critical thinking and communication skills and considers academic integrity essential to learning. Using AI tools as a replacement for your own thinking, writing, or quantitative reasoning goes against both our mission and academic honesty policy and will be considered academic dishonesty, or plagiarism unless you have been instructed to do so by your instructor. In case of any uncertainty regarding the ethical use of AI tools, students are encouraged to reach out to their instructors for clarification.

Accessibility Statement

Imperial Valley College is committed to providing an accessible learning experience for all students, regardless of course modality. Every effort has been made to ensure that this course complies with all state and federal accessibility regulations, including Section 508 of the Rehabilitation Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), and Title 5 of the California Code of Regulations. However, if you encounter any content that is not accessible, please contact your instructor or the area dean for assistance. If you have specific accommodations through DSPS, contact them for additional assistance.

Course Policies

Communication

- The best way to contact me is through email. I will generally respond to emails Monday – Friday between 7am – 5:30pm within 24 hours of receiving them. If you do not receive a response, please resend, or call my office: 760-355-6288.
- Email should be used to schedule online office appointments, for short questions clarifying assignments or specific lecture items. In-depth questions about course readings, an entire lecture, etc. are appropriate for office hours, not e-mail. For general questions, please consult the syllabus first and/or use the Canvas Q/A forum or consult your peers first.
- Scores of all assignments & exams will be posted on Canvas. If you wish to discuss your grade, please communicate via Canvas or office hours.
- If you need accommodations due to disabilities, unforeseen circumstances, etc. be proactive—I can better assist you before, rather than after assignments are due.

Drop policy

- In distance education, our coursework is used to determine your attendance. Students who fail to submit substantive coursework by due dates or complete assignments on the first day may be dropped from the class. Please refer to the class schedule for specific attendance & effective coursework requirements.

Student conduct & Online Netiquette

- In order to learn, we must be open to the views of people different from ourselves. Therefore, please honor the uniqueness of your fellow classmates and appreciate the opportunity we have to learn from one another. Please respect each other's opinions and refrain from personal attacks or demeaning comments of any kind.
- Netiquette is internet manners, online etiquette, and digital etiquette all rolled into one word. Our rules of netiquette: (1) identify yourself, (2) include a subject line, (3) avoid sarcasm, (4) respect others' opinions and privacy, (5) acknowledge and return messages promptly, (6) copy with caution, (7) do not spam or junk mail, (8) be concise, (9) use appropriate language, (10) use appropriate emoticons (emotional icons) to help convey meaning, and (11) use appropriate intensifiers to help convey meaning [do not use ALL CAPS or multiple exclamation marks (!!!!)].

Late work policy

- Extensions are granted under extenuating circumstances. Excuses that may prove acceptable include serious injury & family emergencies, serious accident, or the observance of a religious holiday. In order to be excused, you will need to email the original documentation. Unexcused late work may be accepted, but at my discretion.

Missing assignments & grade challenges

- You are responsible for any work lost or late due to technical problems.

- Missing assignments and requests to re-grade must be reported/requested within one week of the assessment being graded. Grade challenges must be accompanied with detailed explanation & evidence justifying the request.
