Course Requirements and Instructional Methods

Lecture Questions Guide, (4 questions must be turn in by July 22)

The Lecture Questions will be given at the end of each Lecture topic (questions are located on the last slide of each power point presentation). Each Lecture Question must be one page length. Times New Roman, doble space, word-fond 12 and must be turn via Canvas before the due day

The first paragraph must answer the question, additionally; the second paragraph must be on your opinions about the topic. The students will be given 8 lecture questions through the summer semesters. In addition, they will only answer and turn in 4 Lecture questions for the summer semester.

The lecture Questions would be due by the last week of the summer semester. However, I recommend not wait until the last week of the semester to turn them in. To get all complete points on the lecture questions I recommend sticking to the facts that we discuss in class. Your paper should be in 12-point Times New Roman format always. Font size and style mismatches are automatic red marks on your paper and will result in a lower grade. You are expected to proofread your assignments before and after you print it, make sure the language and prose of your statements does three things: make sense, is grammatically correct and is in proper syntax. Deliver competent phrases that do not detract but amplify your writing, the overall language level of the paper must be on a college level.

Research Project: Due July 23.

Write a four to five research paper. You will pick any topic on an event, person or social event that we discussed in class. The topic must be from the Reconstruction (after the U.S. Civil War 1860s) to the late 1980s. In addition, you must mention the importance of why we need to know about such event, person, or cultural movement. And how it is linked to U.S. History. Also, the research must have a thesis argument to get a full grade.

Sources: You must use at least three to four sources to get full points. Sources can be Internet articles, Newspaper or magazine articles, and books. (NO Wikipedia, and encyclopedias). You can also use the class reading as a source. The Sources are going to help you understand and explain what happen in the United States during that time. I will expect a Bibliography (we will look how to make one bibliography in class).

Format: The format of the assignment can be written in MLA, APA or Chicago Style. Times New Roman, doble space, word-fond 12 and must be turn via Canvas before the due day. Also, the research must have at least three to four citations.

Research Project must be turned in via Canvas, do not send it via email. I will not accept late assignments (no excuses you have the whole semester to work on it)

Final.

There will be a written essay. There are going to be two to four essay questions, you would only choose one out of the two. The essay questions would be based on the readings and lecture notes. In the essay, the student will identify important terms and historical figures that shape the political, economic, and social life of the United States during the last decades of the 19th century and the 20th century.

Email Policy

Do not be disrespectful when writing an email examples “hey when’s the assignment due?” “Did we have homework today?” or “hey I am going to be absent” email whose answers are given in the syllabus will be ignored.

In addition, I will not answer Emails unless there is an emergency. Also, do not send an email with questions whose answers are on the class syllabus.
