Course Requirements and Instructional Methods

This is a public speaking course. Therefore, completing the assigned speeches are MANDATORY. A total of three (3) speeches (Introductory Speech, Informative Speech, and Persuasive Speech) must be completed to pass the class. Failing to submit one or more of these speech assignments will result in failing the class, even if you have a passing grade. This class will also have a variety of lectures, quizzes, discussions, tests, and outline assignments delivered online via Canvas.

IMPERIAL VALLEY COLLEGE

Course Objectives

Upon satisfactory completion of the course, students will be able to:

1. Apply rhetorical theories to create and analyze public speeches in a variety of contexts including historical and/or contemporary.
2. Formulate and implement effective research strategies to gather information and ideas from primary and secondary sources, evaluating them for credibility, accuracy, and relevancy.
3. Employ sound reasoning and construct compelling arguments in support of a guiding thesis and organizational pattern appropriate for the audience, occasion, and purpose.
4. Demonstrate rhetorical sensitivity to diversity, equity, inclusion, accessibility, and belonging and adhere to ethical communication practices which include truthfulness, accuracy, honesty, and reason.
5. Compose and deliver a variety of speeches, including informative and persuasive speeches, to a live audience (one or many) using effective delivery practices.
6. Employ effective listening practices.
7. Compose, organize, and present to a live peer audience speeches to introduce, inform, and persuade in the English language.
8. Define, identify, and apply the three Aristotelian appeals of ethos, pathos, and logos.
9. Recognize and demonstrate ethical practices in all phases of speech preparation.
10. Develop a clear, cohesive thesis and create a concise speech outline.
11. Recognize and demonstrate the characteristics of effective verbal and nonverbal delivery.
12. Design and incorporate effective visual aids.
13. Analyze and evaluate peer speeches with faculty guidance.
14. Recognize the elements of and demonstrate effective techniques for reducing communication apprehension.

Course Grading Based on Course Objectives

Final Grades: Your final grade in class will be determined based on how many points you have earned on all the assignments combined. However, if you do not complete the assigned mandatory speeches, you will not pass the class, regardless if you scored above a certain percentage. The grade breakdown is as follows:

A=90% - 100%

B=80% - 89%

C=70% - 79%

D=60% - 69%

F=below 60%

Academic Honesty (Artificial Intelligence -AI)

IVC values critical thinking and communication skills and considers academic integrity essential to learning. Using AI tools as a replacement for your own thinking, writing, or quantitative reasoning goes against both our mission and academic honesty policy and will be considered academic dishonesty, or plagiarism unless you have been instructed to do so by your instructor. In case of any uncertainty regarding the ethical use of AI tools, students are encouraged to reach out to their instructors for clarification. In this Public Speaking class specifically, using any AI tools to conduct research or write speeches/outlines for you is not allowed. Doing so will result in a 0 on the assignment, and multiple instances may result in being dropped from, or failing, the class.

Course Policies

Attendance/Drop Policy: It is the student's responsibility to drop all classes in which they are no longer attending. Students that have excessive absences, or in an online class, fails to submit work on time multiple times in a row without communicating with me may be withdrawn from the class. Students who remain enrolled in my class past the withdrawal deadline will receive a letter grade (A, B, C, D, or F).

Late Work Policy: Any assignment submitted after the due date published on Canvas will be considered late. Should you submit an assignment late, your final grade on the assignment will be penalized by 10% per day. Late work will only be accepted up to 10 days from the day it is due. Only emergencies are acceptable exceptions to this rule.
