Course Requirements and Instructional Methods

- This course is conducted entirely online, necessitating students to engage with their computers for the completion of all coursework. Mastery of the module content, which is updated following class schedule.
- Throughout the duration of this class, the following assignments are imperative in accordance with the class schedule: (Therefore, students can follow the class well if you always refer to the class schedule.)
- Prior to each class, students are expected to equip themselves with the necessary workbook, pencil, and eraser (pens are not permissible). Moreover, students are required to have a musical instrument (flutophone), which will serve as a means to apply the theoretical musical concepts covered.
- Each of the 15 modules includes Check for Understanding Activities and Assignments. These activities help students review the material they studied online and deepen their understanding of each module.
- Throughout the course duration, students will engage in 6 comprehensive Quizzes, 1 discussion and alongside two practical flutophone performance tests
- The five quizzes are multi choice, and each quiz is similar to the question types in the textbook. Therefore, these are quizzes that can be easily solved if students are sincere in solving the problems in the textbook.
- And also, there are two times practical tests of the Flutophone as the applied instrument, and students must film and submit to the quiz section a video of their performance.
- Additionally, the curriculum includes Final Test meticulously scheduled. These quizzes and test play a pivotal role in enhancing comprehension and will significantly contribute to the overall student evaluation.

Academic Honesty (Artificial Intelligence -AI)

IVC values critical thinking and communication skills and considers academic integrity essential to learning. Using AI tools as a replacement for your own thinking, writing, or quantitative reasoning goes against both our mission and academic honesty policy and will be considered academic dishonesty, or plagiarism unless you have been instructed to do so by your instructor. In case of any uncertainty regarding the ethical use of AI tools, students are encouraged to reach out to their instructors for clarification.

Accessibility Statement

Imperial Valley College is committed to providing an accessible learning experience for all students, regardless of course modality. Every effort has been made to ensure that this course complies with all state and federal accessibility regulations, including Section 508 of the Rehabilitation Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), and Title 5 of the California Code of Regulations. However, if you encounter any content that is not accessible, please contact your instructor or the area dean for assistance. If you have specific accommodations through DSPS, contact them for additional assistance.

We are here to support you and ensure that you have equal access to all course materials.

Course Policies

- This course is taught online. Therefore, any student who does not complete the first required activity for a class will be dropped by the instructor at the first formal meeting for that class. If they wish to re-enroll, their status will be the same as any other student who wishes to add a class. It is the student's responsibility to drop or formally withdraw from a class.
- All students are required to attend all classes regularly. Students' access status will be recorded online and students will be assessed through online quizzes and tests. Therefore, students must meet the due dates for quizzes and tests, and failure to do so may result in a grade penalty.
- Additionally, students with consecutive unexcused absences exceeding the number of hours the class is scheduled to cover per week may be dropped. For this course, any student who fails to complete the required activity for two consecutive weeks will be considered excessive absences and may be dropped.

- Absences that occur while representing the university at officially sanctioned events (conferences, contests, field trips) are considered “excused” absences.

Other Course Information

- This class is an online class, and all class content is uploaded to modules on the online canvas.
- Every Monday morning, new course content and assignments are uploaded to the module for a week, so students must familiarize themselves with the course uploaded each week and take quizzes and tests.
- IVC has several links on its website that inform students about the wide variety of services and technological trainings and assistance available to them. Please partake. Go to <https://www.imperial.edu/>, scroll down to mid-page, and Click on STUDENT SUPPORT SERVICES banner.
