Textbook: NorthStar 4. Pearson Longman

Class Information: ESL 014 is a grammar-based speaking class in an English-only Environment, for the high-intermediate ESL student. Students will further develop listening comprehension and will demonstrate greater fluency, accuracy, and confidence in oral production.

Prerequisites: A grade of "C" or higher in English 013, or appropriate placement test score.

Course Objectives and minimum standards for a grade of "C":

- 1. Students will contribute fully in individual and small group work.
- 2. Students will speak English only in the classroom.
- 3. Students will be prepared for class by completing all homework assignments.
- 4. Students will combine knowledge of grammar which is appropriate at this level.

Attendance Policy: Students are expected to attend all classes. More than three unexcused absences will result in being dropped from the class. Three times late equals one absence.

Grading Policy: there will be an exam every two weeks (oral and written) Your grade is calculated by adding up the total scores of all tests and dividing by the total number of exams.

Academic Misconduct Policy

Academic misconduct includes misconduct associated with the classroom, laboratory or clinical learning process. Some examples of academic misconduct are cheating and plagiarism.

Cheating includes, but is not limited to, (a) use of any unauthorized assistance in taking quizzes, tests, assessment tests or examinations; (b) dependence upon the aid of sources beyond those authorized by the faculty member in writing papers, preparing reports, solving problems, or carrying out other assignments; or (c) the acquisition, without permission, of tests or other academic material belonging to a member of the college faculty or staff.

Plagiarism includes, but is not limited to, the use of paraphrased or directly quoted published or unpublished work of another person without full and clear acknowledgment. It also includes the unacknowledged use of materials prepared by another person or agency engaged in the selling of term papers or other academic materials. Information gathered from the internet and not properly identified is also considered plagiarism.

Any student found by a faculty member to have committed academic misconduct may be subject to sanctions as determined by the faculty member. Sanctions MAY include a warning, grade adjustment, and course failure. Consequences for plagiarism include a zero on the assignment and a referral to Sergio Lopez, Dean of Student Development and Campus Events.
