Academy Behavior Procedures and Rules

This section sets forth guidelines for the administration of policies, procedures, and operations that regulate the conduct and responsibilities of all members assigned to the Imperial Valley College Basic Fire Academy (FT-130).

All cadets involved in the Imperial Valley College Basic Fire Academy shall adhere to the guidelines, contained in this section and to all the Imperial Valley College policies and regulations. The Academy recognizes that due to the nature of training, modifications to the guidelines may be necessary in order to maintain program continuity however; such changes shall be kept to a minimum.

The Imperial Valley College Basic Fire Academy is an arduous, highly disciplined, and demanding program. A high level of commitment, training, and discipline is necessary to effectively prepare cadet firefighters for the responsibilities and dangers inherent to the fire service. The training is presented in both the controlled environment and in dynamic settings designed to simulate the field environment in the fire service.

IVC Basic Fire Academy Part II (FT-131) Spring Semester-2013

The Imperial Valley College Basic Fire Academy Instructors will instruct, train, evaluate, and discipline in a fair and equitable manner emphasizing the cadets basic skills, abilities, physical conditioning, and attitude. The Instructors will observe, evaluate, and instruct all aspects of the cadets performance. - Be ethical: Do what you know to be right even in the face of resistance or peer pressure.
- Commit to excellence: Give 100% in everything you do. Do not judge yourself by comparison to others, but by your own sense of self-esteem and personal accomplishment.
- Be decisive: Make decisions based on what you have been taught
- Be honest: Never lie, cheat, or tolerate another cadet who does.

Plagiarism and Cheating

Cheating is defined as fraud, deceit, or dishonesty in an academic assignment or using or attempting to use materials, or assisting others in using materials, or assisting others in using materials which are prohibited or inappropriate in the context of the academic assignment in question, such as:

- copying or attempting to copy from others during an examination or on an assignment;
- communicating test information with another person during an examination;
- allowing others to do an assignment or portion of an assignment, including the use of a commercial term paper service.

Plagiarism includes the deliberate misrepresentation of someone else's works and ideas, as one's own, as well as paraphrasing without footnoting the source.

The bottom line is you cannot copy anything directly from any source including your textbooks or the Internet, unless you are using a quotation and you must note the book or article or website, and page number from the source of your quote. If you paraphrase something, you must also cite the source of your information. If you copy and paste other people's writing into your answers on any assignment, the assignment will be given "0" points the first time you do it and if you do it again, you will be terminated from the academy. If you use plagiarized material in your firefighter assignments (even if it is just a single sentence), you will receive a "zero" for the assignment and an "F" for the course.

As a cadet, you are entitled to be treated with respect and dignity regardless of race, gender, religion, age, sexual orientation or national origin. You have the right to learn in an environment free from discrimination, harassment, and retaliation. You must not engage in any discriminatory behavior. Your conduct at all times reflects not only yourself, but also of this academy and educational institution.

- Hair standards: A neat, clean, and well-groomed appearance contributes to building pride essential to an effective Basic Fire Academy. It is the responsibility of each member to be properly groomed while in the program.
- There are many hair styles which are acceptable to the Imperial Valley College Basic Fire Academy. As long as the style does not lessen the protection of required safety equipment or expose the member to added personal injury. The acceptability of the style will be judged by the Lead Instructor using the following criteria: The length and/or bulk of the hair shall not be excessive or present a ragged or extreme experience. Hair styling (outward flip, teased, Afro, perm, block, or tapered), shall not cause hair to exceed in length or bulk the standards described in this section

General Performance

Listed below is required performance and skills to be a safe and effective cadet. Failure in one of these areas may result in a recommendation for termination from the Imperial Valley College Basic Fire Academy.

Strength and Stamina

The strength and stamina of all cadets will be continuously evaluated throughout the Academy. Each cadet will take part in fitness evaluations during the program. Cadets must demonstrate the strength and stamina to safely and effectively perform the tasks of an entry-level firefighter.

Manipulative Skills

All cadets will be required to develop sufficient manipulative skill to properly handle the tools, equipment, fittings, and breathing apparatus to complete their Firefighter I certification and pass the skills in accordance with the 5th Edition Essentials.

Professionalism

A professional demeanor is demonstrated by the manner in which a recruit presents him/herself in and out of the Academy. Professionalism is demonstrated in both performance and personal appearance. Personal appearance means neatness, good grooming, and being in uniform as directed. Additionally, awareness of and observance of the chain is another element of professional conduct in a paramilitary organization. All of these elements are subject to evaluation. Unprofessional behavior will not be tolerated.

Work Ethic

A positive work ethic is a collection of values and actions that appropriate for the workplace. Work ethics are traits such as punctuality, attendance, efficient use of time, character, appearance, productivity, communication, cooperation, respect for others, initiative, and teamwork.

Acrophobia

All cadets will be required to perform a variety of above ground evolutions. Manifestations of acrophobia (fear of heights), such as failure to perform an above ground evolution or excessive hesitation during an above ground evolution, demonstrates an inability to perform the tasks necessary to be a safe and effective Basic Firefighter Academy cadet.

Weekly Evaluations and Academic Probation

Each week during the Academy, each cadet will receive a weekly evaluation from the Lead Instructor. This evaluation will include your academic and manipulative scores for the week. It will also include any observed performance that is below standard. This evaluation is for the cadet to receive feedback regarding any barriers to learning or perceived deficiency in the program. Failure to maintain a standard level of performance will lead to academic probation. Continual failure to maintain a standard level of performance demonstrates an inability to perform the tasks necessary to be a safe and effective Basic Fire Academy cadet. Additional training, counseling, oral reprimands, deficiency notices or personal notices will be issued to cadets who fail to meet the Imperial Valley College and Imperial Valley College Basic Fire Academy standards. The Academy standards will include, but not be limited to the following:

- Physical Performance
- Manipulative Performance
- Academic Performance
- Personal Appearance/Uniform
- Professionalism and Work Ethics
- Punctuality/Reliability/Dependability
- Violation of Imperial Valley College and Imperial Valley College Basic Fire Academy

The Levels of corrective action will be as follows:

Taking an online course and corresponding via the World Wide Web presents communicators with the task of overcoming the lack of non verbals in communication. When taking a course online, it is important to remember several points of etiquette that will smooth communication between the students and their instructors.

1. Avoid language that may come across as strong or offensive. Language can be easily misinterpreted in written communication. If a point must be stressed, review the statement to make sure that an outsider reading it would not be offended, then post the statement. Humor and sarcasm may easily be misinterpreted as well, so try to be as matter-of-fact and professional as possible.

IVC Basic Fire Academy Part II (FT-131) Spring Semester-2013

2. Keep writing to a point and stay on topic. Online courses require a lot of reading. When writing, keep sentences poignant and brief so that readers do not get lost in wordy paragraphs and miss the point of the statement. Also, do not introduce new topics; it may just confuse the readers.
3. Read first, write later. It is important to read all posts or comments of students and instructors within the course discussion before personally commenting to prevent repeating commentary or asking questions that have already been answered.
4. Review, review, then send. There's no taking back a comment that has already been sent, so it is important to double-check all writing to make sure that it clearly conveys the exact intended message.
5. An online classroom is still a classroom. Though the courses may be online, appropriate classroom behavior is still mandatory. Respect for fellow classmates and the instructors is as important as ever.
6. The language of the Internet. Though still a fairly young type of communication, certain aspects of this form of communication are becoming conventional. For example, do not write using all capital letters, because it will appear as shouting. Also, the use of emoticons can be helpful when used to convey nonverbal feelings (example: :-) or :- (), but avoid overusing them.
7. Consider the privacy of others'. Ask permission prior to giving out a classmate's email address or other information.
8. If possible, keep attachments small. If it is necessary to send pictures, change the size to an acceptable 100k.
9. No inappropriate material. Do not forward virus warnings, chain letters, jokes, etc. to classmates or instructors. The sharing of pornographic material is forbidden.

Termination from the Academy

Recommendation for termination from the Academy will be made when it is determined that a cadet fails to demonstrate the required skills to perform the duties of a safe Basic Fire Academy cadet. Some of the following are grounds for termination from the program:

- Insufficient Progress- manipulative skills
- Insufficient Progress- Academic Knowledge
- Inappropriate behavior

- Insufficient Progress- Firefighter Fitness
- Below standard on weekly performance evaluations

Testing/Lecture/Manipulative Drills/ and Online Quiz Schedule

- Written/Online tests will be completed after each section of the course. Multiple-choice, matching, identify, and short-answer written tests are used to evaluate student achievement of the cognitive lesson objectives taught. Each test item has its own criterion standard. To show mastery of each tested objective, you must achieve a required percentage score of 70%.
- Skills Sheet will be completed after each section of the course that requires evaluation of the student's mastery of the lesson's psychomotor objectives. Performance tests address the highest thinking and performance skills- those that are likely to give the firefighter the most problems on the job. All manipulative skills must be passed with a percentage score of 80%.
- Final Evaluation:
 - A) All written tests must be successfully completed.
 - B) All performance tests must be successfully completed.

IMPERIAL VALLEY COLLEGE FIRE ACADEMY CADET GUIDELINES RULES AND REGULATIONS SOP 100 MANUAL

Rules and Regulations SOP 100.01

INTRODUCTION

- I. These Rules and Regulations shall be known as the Imperial Valley College Firefighter I Academy Rules and Regulations Standard Operating Procedure (SOP) 100 Manual
- II. The purpose of this manual is to inform agencies, staff, and cadets of instructional guidelines, acceptable behavior, and training procedures for the Imperial Valley College Firefighter I Academy
- III. Imperial Valley College Firefighter I Academy's curriculum is designed to provide the cadet with the necessary knowledge and skills to function at the entry-level firefighter position. Since a certain personality is required to function in a quasi-military organization we have established a chain of command. This is similar to the structure as used in a fire department, and will allow the cadets the opportunity to evaluate how they function under the conditions of both giving and taking orders.
- IV. Purposeful failure to follow these standard operating procedures, and any guidelines established by the Imperial Valley College Firefighter I program is considered to be an act of insubordination. Willful and or repeated violations will lead to disciplinary action and possible dismissal from the Imperial Valley College Firefighter I Academy program.
- V. These standard operating procedures are to provide:

IVC Basic Fire Academy Part II (FT-131) Spring Semester-2013

- A. Uniform classroom instruction and practical field training for Imperial Valley College Firefighter I Academy classes, and to assure that adequate materials are available as required for each class.
 - B. To clarify the cadet's role and responsibilities within the training program.

 - A. Any misuse of credit cards or dishonored checks for registration or other related expenses, including uniform or supplies, will be cause for disciplinary action up to dismissal from the academy.
- III. 100% attendance is the expected standard. Missing more than 3 days in either half of the academy WILL cause the cadet to be dropped from the Imperial Valley College Firefighter I Academy by the coordinator. Taking fire service entrance tests, picking up applications, oral interviews, chronic illness, or other reasons will not change this policy, there are no exceptions or excused absences.
- IV. Many of the required subject matter classes are taught over a one or two day period. Absence during a required Certification Training Standard subject matter area will not allow the cadet to receive the Firefighter I completed training certificate.

IVC Basic Fire Academy Part II (FT-131) Spring Semester-2013

- V. Whenever a cadet is delayed and unable to report for a class or formation at the designated time, the cadet must turn in a leave-of-absence slip at the first break after arriving. The chain-of-command will be utilized. Time will be used in increments of 15 min. i.e. 1-15 minutes late = 15 minutes, 16-30 minutes = 30 minutes.
- VI. Any cadet needing to leave the facility, or any drill grounds, before the end class shall notify and receive permission from the Imperial Valley College Firefighter I Academy Coordinator, or Instructor, through the chain of command, prior to the requested dismissal time. A leave of absence slip must be turned in. The time is based on the scheduled end of class not the actual end of class.

instructional goals. Knowledge tests are multiple-choice, true-false, matching, short essay, or fill in the blank tests. For the most part, they measure only declarative knowledge (i.e., recall of information without analysis or application).

- B. A comprehensive knowledge test is a paper-and pencil test that measures acquisition of knowledge in multiple subject areas. These tests are similar to the knowledge tests except that they cover performance objectives in more than one subject area.
- C. Fire Service Terminology tests in which the cadet must provide the correctly spelled word or term when the definition is read in the classroom.

Physical manipulative skills test: The physical manipulative skills tests are Imperial Valley Firefighter I Recruit Academy developed processes for testing the physical skills required by the Firefighter I Curriculum. Each demonstrated skill will be evaluated to meet the standards required in each subject area.

However, exercise tests are most often used to assess the students' ability to perform relatively discrete motor tasks such as tying knots, donning SCBA, or performing hose evolutions.
- VI. Pass/Fail Decisions
 - A. Every mandated test requires a pass/fail decision. On knowledge tests, the cut score (i.e., minimum passing score) is set by the State of California in the

IVC Basic Fire Academy Part II (FT-131) Spring Semester-2013
Firefighter I Curriculum. The Firefighter I Career Development Guide also sets the required standards on all physically demonstrated performance skills.

- B. Physical manipulative skills test: The physical abilities test is a Imperial Valley College Firefighter I Academy developed process for testing the physical skills required by the Firefighter I Curriculum. Each demonstrated skill will be evaluated to meet the standards required in each subject area. On these tests, students must demonstrate their proficiency in performing the tasks required by the test. Proficiency means that the student performed at a level that demonstrates that he or she is prepared for entry into the fire service at the firefighter I recruit level, and this determination is made by the academy staff following guidelines established by the State of California.

VII. Remediation and Retesting

- C. Failure: Cadet's who fail to pass a test when retested, fail the course. Although students who fail the course may be dismissed from the academy class in which they are currently enrolled, they are not prohibited from repeating the Firefighter I Academy.

- D. High-stakes tests: All Firefighter I Academy tests are high-stakes tests because students who twice fail the same subject matter area certification examinations may be dismissed from the course. High-stakes tests have been shown to influence the behavior of students, instructors, and administrators by focusing attention on those things that are required and away from those things that are not.
