III. COURSE DESCRIPTION AND PROCEDURES: French 201 is a five-credit course designed to help students to acquire intermediate knowledge of French and Francophone language and culture. It is the third semester course in a four-semester sequence leading to an Associate of Arts degree in French. Successful completion of French 110 or its equivalent is required for enrollment. The course presents intermediate concepts of French and Francophone language and civilization. Students will increase their proficiency in listening, speaking, reading and writing in French. They will study French pronunciation, grammar and syntax in the context of real life and fictional situations. A variety of readings from the text, lectures, videos and discussions will facilitate learning and provide practice of French in class. Active participation in French is required of all students. Translation will not be used. Students should plan to dedicate two hours to study outside of class for each class session.

IV. SELECTED LEARNING OUTCOMES

1. Upon listening to a brief spoken text based on an aspect of French/francophone culture, accurately write down what they heard in the form of a dictée.
2. Research and effectively communicate in spoken French well-reasoned ideas and opinions about a topic related to an aspect of French/francophone culture.

3. Upon reading a brief text based on an aspect of French/francophone culture, demonstrate understanding by effectively communicating information in French in answer to questions about the reading.

4. Comprehend, organize and effectively communicate information in French by writing a one-page essay describing a hypothetical situation and the effects it may cause.

5. Read a literary work by a French/francophone writer with the aid of a dictionary, research the writer's history and write an analytical essay to interpret the work.

V. ASSESSMENT: The course grade is calculated using to the following percentages:

Homework 15%: Homework is assigned daily to reinforce and assess assimilation of material that has been introduced in class. No credit will be given for late assignments or for assignments submitted by another student. All homework assignments are posted on Blackboard.

Compositions 15%

Quizzes 15%: There is normally one or two quizzes per lesson. The lowest quiz score will be dropped. There are no make-up quizzes.

Midterm 20%: Written midterm: October 10. There is no make-up midterm exam.

Final exam 25%: Written final: December 3. There is no make-up final exam.

Participation 10%: The participation grade is given for performance of oral activities in-class. A French-only policy is in effect during class. Pay attention in class. For communication to take place, only one person may talk at a time. If you wish to speak, please raise your hand. Please ask any questions you may have (in French).

VI. WRITING GUIDE (for homework, compositions, quizzes and exams): 1. Only work that is typed or written in blue or black ink will receive credit. 2. Double space to allow room for corrections. 3. Please include name, date and, if appropriate, page and exercise number. 4. Always write in complete sentences. One-word answers will not receive credit.

VII. ACCENT MARKS FOR FRENCH WITH MICROSOFT WORD

1. ACCENT AIGU (as in café): Hold down control-key and type an apostrophe ('). Release keys. You will see nothing. Then type an e. You will see é.

2. ACCENT GRAVE (as in synthèse): Hold down control-key and type a grave accent (`), under the ~ (tilde). Release keys. You will see nothing. Then type an e. You will see è.

3. ACCENT CIRCUMFLEXE (as in forêt): Hold down the control-key and type a carat (^), that is, type CNTRL+SHIFT+6. Release keys. You will see nothing. Then type the vowel (a, e, i, o or u). You will then see â, ê, î, ô or û.

4. CÉDILLE (as in français): Hold down control-key and type a comma (,). Release keys. You will see nothing. Then type a c. You will then see ç.

VIII. ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION: Regular class attendance is essential for success in this course. Therefore, students who are absent more than three consecutive times may be dropped from the class. In addition, since you cannot participate if you are absent, numerous unexcused absences will affect your participation grade. To excuse an absence, there must be illness or a real emergency and students must submit a written document from a medical doctor, police officer or appropriate authority stating the reason for missing class, including the day and time of the absence. On the day of their return to class, students are responsible for handing in the written justification and any assignments they may have missed. Three late arrivals or early departures count as an absence. A late arrival means a student arrived after his or her name was called by the instructor at the beginning of class. Students who arrive late are responsible for letting the instructor know of their arrival after class or during the break. Students whose schedule conflicts with class hours are urged to take the course at another time.

Electronic devices, such as cell phones, headphones, laptops, tablets, cameras, etc. are not permitted in class. Please turn off and stow them away before class to avoid grades being lowered.

In order not to interrupt, students should not get up or leave the room during class. The bathroom is available before or after class or during the break. Students must inform the instructor if they have an emergency and need to go to the bathroom during class time.

No food or drink is permitted in the classroom. Students must dispose of food or drink before entering the classroom. Water is permitted.

IX. ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT: Students are expected to adhere to the highest standards of academic conduct. Any work submitted for a grade (including homework, compositions, quizzes and exams) must be entirely your own. You are not allowed to share your work with other classmates, copy, get help from other students or do homework with another person. The use of translation software is not permitted. For the first case of academic misconduct, students involved will receive an "F". For repeat offenses, an "F" will be given on the assignment and students will be referred to the Associate Dean of Students. The Associate Dean will decide if and when to return the student to class and may decide to sanction students with academic probation or expulsion. For further information about student rights and responsibilities, go to (<http://www.imperial.edu/index.php?pid=460>).

X. DISABILITY: Students with a documented disability of any kind who may need educational accommodations should notify the instructor and the Disabled Student Programs and Services office as soon as possible. The DSPPS office is located in the Health Sciences Building, room 2117. The telephone number is 355-6312.
