

English 201: Advanced Composition Spring 2004
CRN 20082 (3 credits)
Monday/Wednesday 10:15 – 11:40am, Room 304B

Basic Course Information:

Class Dates: January 22 – May 12, 2014

Instructor: Deirdre Rowley Office # 2792 Phone: (760) 355-6484

email: deirdre.rowley@imperial.edu Preferred: Use messaging in the class Blackboard site

Office Hours: Monday/Tuesday/Wednesday/Thursday 12:00-1:00pm

Course Description:

Emphasizes critical thinking in reading and writing beyond that achieved in ENGL 110 or ENGL 101. Written argumentation will focus on deduction and induction, an understanding of the fallacies of language and thought, the application of valid evidence, and refutation. (CSU, UC)

Student Learning Outcomes:

Upon course completion, the successful student will have acquired new skills, knowledge, and or attitudes as demonstrated by being able to:

1. Interpret appropriately and analyze a written argument for claim, evidence, reasoning, fallacies, and overall effectiveness. (ILO1, ILO2)
2. Develop an effective written argument containing a factual claim, providing valid and appropriate evidence, utilizing appropriate reasoning strategies, and avoiding fallacies. (ILO1, ILO2, ILO3)
3. Demonstrate command of rules regarding plagiarism and academic ethics. (ILO3)

Measurable Course Objectives and Minimum Standards for a Grade of “C”:

Upon satisfactory completion of the course, students will be able to:

1. Student will identify the structure of arguments, including the assertions/claims and the proof/support.
2. Student will analyze arguments critically, evaluating multiple arguments for validity and soundness, distinguishing fact from judgment and knowledge from opinion, and differentiating relevant from irrelevant support.
3. Student will analyze and construct both deductive and inductive arguments.
4. Student will write argumentative prose that defines, that analyzes casual relationships, that advocates solutions, that evaluates judgments, and that refutes other arguments.
5. Student will identify formal and informal fallacies in language and thought.
6. Student will recognize and apply the effects of denotation and connotation; emotive language; and various figures of speech, especially metaphor, within argumentative prose.
7. Student will revise written drafts and edit appropriately for an academic audience, observing conventions of coherence, unity, purpose, grammar, mechanics, and documentation.

- A spiral notebook or other notebook of the student's choice for in class journaling.

Course Requirements and Instructional Methods:

- This class uses the Writing Workshop Method, which provides time and help to improve your writing.
  - Peer conferences.
  - Essays going through several drafts.
  - All drafts are turned in with the completed hard copy essay.
  - Essays submitted through Blackboard and hard copy submitted in class.
    - Essays must be submitted electronically and hard copy to be eligible for grading.
- All essays use MLA format. This will be gone over in class.
- Out of Class Assignments: The Department of Education policy states that one (1) credit hour is the amount student work that reasonably approximates not less than one hour of class time and two (2) hours of out-of-class time per week over the span of a semester. WASC has adopted a similar requirement.
  - English 201 is a 3 credit class.
  - 3 hours spent in class.
  - 6 hours spent out-of-class reading, studying, and doing assignments.
- Assigned reading must be completed before coming to class to enable the student to join in class discussions in a knowledgeable manner.
- Online journals are in the class Blackboard site. Each journal assignment is related to an assigned reading. Students have one week to complete an assigned journal. Minimum length is two paragraphs, with each paragraph having a minimum of seven sentences.
- In class journals are done in class in a notebook of the student's choice.

Course Grading Based on Course Objectives:

- Grades are weighted as follows:
  - Essays – 20%
  - Quick Writes – 25%
  - Quizzes – 10%
  - Homework (covers out-of-class assignments plans, drafts, research, and journals) – 5%
  - Mid-Term – 15%
  - Final – 25%
- Assignments are due when collected, usually at the beginning of class.
- Late work is not accepted. If you arrive late to class and the assignment has already been collected, your work is considered late and will not be accepted.
- Students who arrive after an activity has begun will not be individually accommodated.
- Essays are only accepted for grading the day they are due.
- Essays must be submitted electronically and in hard copy to be eligible for grading.
- There is no extra credit.
- Quizzes:
  - Not all quizzes are announced.
  - Missed quizzes cannot be made up. (No exceptions)
  - Late arrivals are not eligible to take quizzes already in progress.
- Quick Writes:
  - Quick Writes – done completely in class are not always announced.

- One missed Quick Write may be made up within five school days of the day it was originally given. A second or third missed Quick Write may not be made up.
- It is the student's responsibility to make arrangements to make up a missed Quick Write.
- Missed Quick Writes are made up in the English Department in the Science Building.
- Grades will be available in engrade 24/7. Students will be sent instructions via Blackboard for logging in through the web link posted in the class Blackboard site.

Attendance:

- A student who fails to attend the first meeting of a class will be dropped by the instructor as of the first official meeting of that class. Should readmission be desired, the student's status will be the same of any other student who desires to add a class. It is the student's responsibility to drop or officially withdraw from the class. See General Catalogue for details.
- Regular attendance in all classes is expected of all students. A student whose continuous, unexcused absences exceed the number of hours the class is scheduled to meet per week may be dropped.
- Students are expected to arrive on time and to stay in class for the entire class period.
- If you miss class, do not depend on an email to me to find out what you missed. Two hours of class instruction cannot be reduced to an email.
- Liaison with your classmates. Exchange phone numbers. Organize a study group. Find a study buddy. Then, if absent, you have the resources to find out what class instruction you missed as well as the assignments.
- Do not schedule counseling, doctor, dentist, or mechanical appointments during class time. Missing class will count as an absence.
- Absences attributed to the representation of the college at officially approved events (conferences, contests, and field trips) will be counted as "excused" absences.
- Homework must be turned in previous to any "excused" absence.
- Quick Writes missed due to an "excused" absence, may be made up within the required five days.

Classroom Etiquette:

- Students are expected to have their own educational materials, books, paper, pens, pencils, scantrons, blue/green books. Any student choosing to attempt the course without his or her own educational materials may not expect other students to provide or share educational materials.
- Electronic Devices: Cell phone and electronic devices must be turned off and put away during class. The exception is using an ebook.
- Food and Drink are prohibited in all classrooms. Water bottles with lids/caps are the only exception.
- Disruptive Students: Students who disrupt or interfere with a class may be sent out of the room and told to meet with the Campus Disciplinary Officer before returning to continue with coursework. Disciplinary procedures will be followed as outlined in the General Catalogue.
- Children in the Classroom: Due to college rules and state laws, no one who is not enrolled in the class may attend, including children.

Academic Honesty:

- Plagiarism is to take and present as one's own the writings or ideas of others, without citing the source. You should understand the concept of plagiarism and keep it in mind when taking exams and preparing written materials. If you do not understand how to correctly "cite a source", you must ask for help.
- Cheating is defined as fraud, deceit, or dishonesty in an academic assignment or using or attempting to use materials, or assisting others in using materials, which are prohibited or inappropriate in the context of the academic assignment in question. Anyone caught cheating will receive a zero (0) on the exam, quiz, or assignment, and the instructor may report the incident to the Campus Disciplinary Officer, who may place related documentation in a file. Repeated acts of cheating may result in an F in the course and/or disciplinary action. Please refer to the General School Catalogue for more information on academic dishonest or other misconduct. Acts of cheating include, but are not limited to the following?

- Plagiarism
- Copying or attempting to copy from others during an examination, quiz, or on an assignment.
- Communicating test information with another person during an examination.
- Allowing others to do an assignment or portion of an assignment.
- Use of a commercial term paper service.

Additional Help:

- Blackboard Help: Use the Blackboard Support Center. Information is located under Blackboard login.
- Learning Labs: The Writing Lab has computers, printing services, and trained writing tutors.
- Use the writing lab. The senior tutors will help with keyboarding, mechanical problems in your paper, or briefly discuss your paper with you.
- Library Services: Need to improve your keyboarding? Check out the library Tutoring Center.
- Need information on a specific topic? Talk to a reference librarian.
- Need to improve your study skills? Check out the library Tutoring Center.
- If an emotional problem is interfering with your academic success, (death in the family, divorce, civil difficulty, or emotional distress), and you would appreciate some help, please contact the School Psychologist, Emily Bill at 355-6196.

Disabled Student Programs and Services (DSPS):

Any student with a documented disability who may need educational accommodations should notify the instructor or the Disabled Student Programs and Services (DSP&S) office as soon as possible. The DSPS&S office is located in Building 2100, telephone 760-355-6310.

Student Counseling and Health Services:

Students have counseling and health services available, provided by the pre-paid Student Health Fee. We now also have a fulltime mental health counselor. For information see <http://www.imperial.edu/student-health-center/>. The IVC Student Health Center is located in the Health Science building in Room 2109, telephone 760-355-6310.

Student Rights and Responsibilities:

Students have the right to experience a positive learning environment and due process.
