Required Textbook: Exploring Psychology (9th Edition) David G. Myers

Course Description: This course is an introduction to the study of human behavior and cognition. Includes consideration of many of the major topics in psychology including, but not limited to, the biology of behavior, learning, human development, sleep and consciousness, personality, mental disorders and therapy, and social processes

Student Learning Outcome (IVC): 1. Identify basic parts and functions of the neuron and lobes of the brain (ILO1; ILO2; ILO3), 2. Identify different parenting styles and their effect on human development (ILO1; ILO2; ILO3), 3. Identify major psychological disorders, key symptoms, and the main strategies used for treatment (ILO1;ILO2; ILO3; ILO5)

Course Requirements:

Attendance and Class Participation

Attendance is a crucial part of this course. Students are expected to demonstrate their understanding of the assigned readings by actively participating in class discussion. If you are absent, it is your responsibility to get class notes from a fellow student. Additionally, if you decide not to continue the course, it is your responsibility to drop the course on WEBSTAR by or before the drop date.

Thought Papers (25 pts x 3)

Students are required to find and read an article (newspaper, magazine, or journal), watch a TV show, or a movie. Following, you will write a 1-2 page paper on how it relates to psychology and everyday life. Alternatively, you may choose to write about your favorite song. Describe how the lyrics make you feel and relate them to psychology. There will be a total of three thought papers throughout the semester. Each paper is worth twenty-five points. All thought papers must be typed, in twelve point font, and double spaced. All papers are due at the beginning of class. No late papers will be accepted.

Project (100 pts)

Students will research and present a power point on a psychological disorder (Chapters 14 and 15). The presentation must be a minimum of 7 slides. A hard copy must be submitted to me before you begin your presentation in class. The presentation must include the definition of the disorder, the diagnosis and symptoms, therapies, types of medications used to treat the symptoms, statistics and a works cited page/slide. Your presentation must be twenty minutes in length.

Please make sure to tell the class everything they need to know about your topic. Remember, you are the teacher! You may use handouts, demonstrations, etc. Please, make it interesting, interactive and be creative! Do not just read from your power point.

Tests (50 pts x 3)

There will be a total of three tests given throughout the semester. All tests will be multiple choice and are worth fifty points each. Please make sure to bring a #2 pencil and scantron with you to class. No make-up exams will be given.

In-Class/Homework Assignments (15pts x 5)

In class assignments and/or homework will be given for each chapter we cover. Further information will be given as the semester transpires.
