Course Description: This course is designed to introduce students to the main concepts and theories of developmental psychology, from conception to death. This course surveys psychology as both a science and an applied discipline. Topics to be covered include conception, prenatal development, infancy, toddlerhood, preschool years, middle childhood, adolescence, early adulthood, middle adulthood, late adulthood and death and looks at physical, mental and social development in each of the above mentioned stages.

Student Learning Outcome (IVC): Upon completion of the course, students will have acquired new skills, knowledge, and/or attitudes as being demonstrated by being able to:

- Identify and demonstrate understanding of the physical milestones from conception to death. (ILO1, ILO2, ILO3, ILO5)
- Identify and demonstrate understanding of the cognitive development patterns from conception to death. (ILO1, ILO2, ILO3, ILO5)
- Identify and demonstrate understanding of Erikson's stages of psychosocial development. (ILO1, ILO2, ILO3, ILO5)

Course Requirements:

Attendance and Class Participation

Attendance is a crucial part of this course. Students are expected to demonstrate their understanding of the assigned readings by actively participating in class discussion. If you are absent, it is your responsibility to get class notes from a fellow student. Additionally, if you decide not to continue the course, it is your responsibility to drop the course on WEBSTAR by or before the drop date.

Thought Papers (4 @ 25pts)

Students are required to find and read an article (newspaper, magazine, or journal), watch a TV show, or a movie. Following, you will write a 1-2 page paper on how it relates to psychology and everyday life. Alternatively, you may choose to write about your favorite song. Describe how the lyrics make you feel and relate them to psychology. There will be a total of three thought papers throughout the semester. Each paper is worth twenty-five points. All thought papers must be typed, in twelve point font, and double spaced. All papers are due at the beginning of class. No late papers will be accepted.

Tests (4 @ 50pts)

There will be a total of four tests given throughout the semester. All tests will be multiple choice and are worth fifty points each. Please make sure to bring a #2 pencil and scantron with you to class. No make-up exams will be given.

In-Class/Homework Assignments (5 @ 10pts)

To be discussed further in class.
