

BUS 126 – Business and the Legal Environment
Code: 20131

“The only legal certainty is the certainty of legal change. What makes law, it’s study and practice, qualitatively unlike most other things that human beings do is that we can never be sure of anything.”

-Justice E. Peters, Conn. Supreme Court

“The life of the law has not been logic: it has been experience.”

-Oliver Wendell Holmes, Jr.

“Law is not justice and a trial is not a scientific inquiry into truth. A trial is the resolution of a dispute.”

-Edison Haines

Course Requirements and Instructional Methods

Class activities will primarily consist of lecture and group discussion activities. Assignments will include reading of the textbook and other relevant material, and analysis of legal cases and problems. This will be done both in-class and through out-of-class homework assignments that will be distributed throughout the semester. There will be three Mid-term Exams throughout the course of the semester. These exams will occur approximately every 5 weeks and will focus on material that we have recently studied. One of these exam scores will be dropped when calculating student grades. There will also be a comprehensive Final Exam during Finals week. (Please see the "Course Grading" section below for more information on this topic.)

Course Grading

Exam 1	60
Exam 2	60
Exam 3	60
Drop Exam	-60
Final Exam	80
Take-Home Exam	30
Homework	70
Total	300

Scale

A = 270-300
B = 240-269
C = 210-239
D = 180-209

Note on Exams: Each student will need to provide a Scantron (100), a # 2 pencil, and a Blue Book for each exam. Once an exam has started, students may not leave the classroom until they have finished the exam. There will be no make-up exams.

Note on Take-Home Exam: The Take-Home Exam will consist of essay questions covering Chapters 4 and 5 of the text. It will be assigned in the latter half of the course. Students will have approximately 2 weeks to complete the exam. Details to follow.

Note on Homework: Homework will consist of student analysis of legal case problems. Homework must be turned in on the date assigned to receive full credit. Homework may be turned in one class period late for up to one-half credit. No homework will be accepted that is more than one class period late.

Attendance Policy:

A student who fails to attend the first meeting of a class or does not complete the first mandatory activity of an online class will be dropped by the instructor as of the first official meeting of that class. Should readmission be desired, the student's status will be the same as that of any other student who desires to add a class. It is the student's responsibility to drop or officially withdraw from the class. See IVC General Catalog for details.

Regular attendance in all classes is expected of all students. If a student is absent from class, it is the student's responsibility to obtain class notes for that day's lecture. A student whose continuous, unexcused absences exceed the number of hours the class is scheduled to meet per week may be dropped. For online courses, students who fail to complete required activities for two consecutive weeks may be considered to have excessive absences and may be dropped.

Absences attributed to the representation of the college at officially approved events (conferences, contests, and field trips) will be counted as 'excused' absences.

Classroom Etiquette

Electronic Devices: Cell phones and electronic devices must be turned off and put away during class unless otherwise directed by the instructor.

Food and Drink are prohibited in all classrooms. Water bottles with lids/caps are the only exception. Additional restrictions will apply in labs. Please comply as directed.

Disruptive Students: Students who disrupt or interfere with a class may be sent out of the room and told to meet with the Campus Disciplinary Officer before returning to continue with coursework. Disciplinary procedures will be followed as outlined in the General Catalog.

Children in the classroom: Due to college rules and state laws, no one who is not enrolled in the class may attend, including children.

Academic Honesty

Plagiarism is to take and present as one's own the writings or ideas of others, without citing the source. You should understand the concept of plagiarism and keep it in mind when taking exams and preparing written materials. If you do not understand how to correctly 'cite a source', you should ask for help.

Cheating is defined as fraud, deceit, or dishonesty in an academic assignment or using or attempting to use materials, or assisting others in using materials, which are prohibited or inappropriate in the context of the academic assignment in question.

Anyone caught cheating will receive a zero (0) on the exam or assignment, and the instructor may report the incident to the Campus Disciplinary Officer, who may place related documentation in a file. Repeated acts of cheating may result in an F in the course and/or disciplinary action. Please refer to the General School Catalog for more information on academic dishonesty or other misconduct. Acts of cheating include, but are not limited to the following: (a) plagiarism; (b) copying or attempting to copy from others during an examination or on an assignment; (c) communicating test information with another person during an examination; (d) allowing others to do an assignment or portion of an assignment; (e) use of a commercial term paper service

Disabled Students Programs and Services:

Any student with a documented disability who may need educational accommodations should notify the instructor or the Disabled Student Programs and Services (DSP&S) office as soon as possible. The DSP&S office is located in Building 2100, telephone 760-355-6313 if you feel you need to be evaluated for educational accommodations.

Student Counseling and Health Services

Students have counseling and health services available, provided by the pre-paid Student Health Fee. We now also have a fulltime mental health counselor. For information see <http://www.imperial.edu/students/student-health-center/>. The IVC Student Health Center is located in the Health Science building in Room 2109, telephone 760-355-6310.

Student Rights and Responsibilities

Students have the right to experience a positive learning environment and due process. For further information regarding student rights and responsibilities please refer to the IVC General Catalog available online at
