2. Write essays showing support for a thesis statement or controlling idea. (ILO1, ILO2, ILO4)
3. Construct complete sentences with few errors in sentence structure such as fragments, comma splices, run-on sentences. ILO1, ILO2, ILO3, ILO4)
4. Compose a multi-paragraph essay response to a reading. (ILO1, ILO2, ILO4, ILO5)

Required Text:

Henry, D. H. Writing For Life (please bring to every class!)

Required Novel:

Santana, Patricia: Motorcycle on the Sea of Tranquility (please bring to every class!)

Required Websites:

1. Aplia - <http://login.cengagebrain.com/course/A2XU-K3N4-V9P2>
2. Blogger - <https://www.blogger.com/>
3. Diana Hacker: Grammar Exercises - http://dianahacker.com/bedhandbook6e/subpages/gm_menu.asp
4. Wikispaces - <http://www.wikispaces.com/>
5. IVC Friends of the Earth Borderline Journal - ivcborderline.org

Required materials:

Standard 8x10 hardcover composition book (your writing journal!)

Good, strong 3-ring binder – Writing/reading/study instruments; pens, highlighters, glue sticks... a good college dictionary is recommended.

Required website activities/quizzes/tests

Blackboard – count on submitting one discussion board entry per week

Myskillstutor.com – sharpen your skill and confidence with weekly online assignments.

Owl Purdue Writing Lab: <https://owl.english.purdue.edu/> - Great site to help your sentence construction, paragraph development, and essay writing.

Blogger.com – you will be responsible for developing your own writing blog.

Planetmexicali.squarespace.com – look for extra credit opportunities.

Your keys to success (a fast five..):

1. Attendance: You are expected to attend and participate in each class meeting. It's critical that you arrive on time, prepared and ready to learn. Students will be DROPPED after 2nd absence or fourth tardy (students dropped for excessive absences after the last day to drop with a 'W', will receive an 'F' for the course.)

2. Homework and Classwork: You will raise your skill levels (and your grade!) by completing all assigned work. You are responsible for turning in all homework at the beginning of each class. In class assignments must be completed with the required time-frames. Follow the examples that will be provided for you each week:
 - a. Writing for Life: paragraph work
 - b. Writing for Life: basic sentence structure exercises
 - c. Writing Assignment: specific writing projects
 - d. Aplia: weekly grammar reinforcement
 - e. Blackboard: weekly quizzes, paragraphs, discussion board

3. Writing journals: By keeping track of your writing assignments, you will be able to build on your ideas and reinforce your skills. Notes taken in class and specific informational charts pasted to your pages will help you develop through the course of the semester (and information registered will come in handy on open-note quizzes!)
4. Participation: Each class will offer specific activities that will invoke your participation: classroom discussions, partner talk, peer review, jigsaw analysis... Don't hesitate to share. Get involved. Your participation is required.
5. Writing Projects: specific papers that will be assigned for specific purposes and specific due dates. They will compose a large part of your grade. You will not be asked to do anything that we don't cover in our homework or in-class assignments.
6. Blackboard: Look each week to the discussion board for exciting ways to develop your writing and boost your grade.

All student work is expected to meet the standards of course. Written work will be graded upon sentence construction, language usage, paragraph development, organization, critical thinking skills, etc. Blackboard, Blog, and Wiki work will be expected to meet the same standards – and in addition, present a neat, professional, organized look (review with tutor is encouraged.)

All late work is subject to 50 percent penalty in points earned.

Your instructor reserves the right to add and subtract from work assigned in the syllabus and on Blackboard. Keep your eyes open for exciting extra credit opportunities on Facebook and in the IVC Friends of the Earth Borderline Journal.

MEASURABLE COURSE OBJECTIVES AND MINIMUM STANDARDS FOR GRADE OF "C":

Student will be able to:

1. Student will identify at least three discovery techniques such as freewriting and clustering and implement each to create an original main idea for a personal or expository essay.
2. Student will write descriptive, narrative, and exemplificative paragraphs that develop supporting details from a topic sentence, using appropriate transitions and a concluding sentence.
3. Student will demonstrate use of critical thinking by identifying support for the main idea in a text.
4. Student will generate supporting sentences using varied sentence patterns; locate errors in sentence structure, such as fragments, fused sentences, comma splices, and word order; and reconstruct sentences that contain these types of errors.
5. While some “first language” interference may be present, student will produce writing in which meaning is unobscured by grammar or usage errors in punctuation, spelling, subject-verb agreement, and verb tense.
6. Student will participate in a number of activities and areas of study as deemed appropriate by the instructor.

Simple Rules:

1. Be accountable! Any critical emergencies that may prevent you from attending class should be communicated through e-mail or phone number listed above. Work performed in class will be critical to your grade.
2. Do your own work! No one may type or edit your papers for you. Help and support is available in the Reading/Writing Lab. Be careful. The penalty for plagiarism involves dismissal from the class.
3. Absolutely no food or drink in the class, including bottled water, as per college policy.
4. Be respectful to others: No cell phones, beepers, walkmans, or other interruptions that take away from the learning of others.

	Final Essay Exam	Final Essay Exam	Final Essay Exam

Final Grade Determination:

Common Final: Our final exam is known as a “Common Essay Exam.” For this assignment you will be asked to write a short essay in response to a prompt. It is an opportunity for you to demonstrate the sentence, paragraph, and essay skills you will have (hopefully) learned in class over the course of the semester. It will be graded by English professors throughout the department in a group grading session, and it is very likely that I will not play a role in the grading of any of my own students' essays.

If the graders fail your common essay exam, the highest possible grade you will receive on that assignment is a 50%, and the lowest you could receive is a 5%. You must do well on this assignment in order to pass the class!

Congratulations. You are a writer!

Jay's Appendix for finding online help:

Help with Log-in on Blackboard

Student can login by visiting: <http://imperial.blackboard.com>

For username, use the first part of your student email address (e.g. jdoe2)

For password, use your WebSTAR PIN (which should automatically be synced when updated via WebSTAR)

If you do not know student email address, these two locations can help you find out that information: <https://www.imperial.edu/students/student-email-lookup/> (Does not require additional login, but will only work if the student is registered for 0.5 or more units for the current semester)

<https://my.imperial.edu/student-email> (Does require additional login to the Student Portal, but will work regardless of whether or not the student is registered for any classes)

Getting Additional Blackboard Help for Students

There is also training material available for students:

How to Log-in to MySkillstutor:

Instructions for myskillstutor:

1. Log onto myskillstutor.com (remember the 's' in skills)
2. User Name – enter student G#
3. Password – enter student G#
4. Site – enter imperial01 (remember to use a zero, not an 'o')
5. If you made it this far – Great! Now the fun begins.
6. Click on to the writing link.
7. Your assignments should appear on the screen for you – sentence structure

To begin, you must take sentence structure pretest. Don't worry about this score, but you have to take this test in order to enter the required exercises. Then proceed. I think there are like 14 quizzes. You will need 80 percent or higher to have the grade count. Please feel free to take each quiz as many times as needed (the pretest, however, will only allow you in just once!)

How to Visit Planet Mexicali:

Please follow the following instructions to practice on planetmexicali: For Extra Credit (ten points)

1. Log on to planetmexicali.squarespace.com
2. On right side navigation column – click Parts of Speech Tips
3. Scroll to the bottom of Jay’s Tip Sheet – click on to E-ex B1-7
4. In left hand column – click on Grammar Exercises
5. On this log-in page – click on Student Registration
6. Enter the requested information in the boxes
(my e-mail:jaylewenstein@hotmail.com)
- 6.5 Click on continue
7. Here on Grammar Exercise Page – scroll all the way down: at the bottom, Click on Basic Grammar (E-ex B1-7 – E-ex B4-1)
8. Here In right hand column – click on to E-ex B1-7: all parts of speech
9. Complete the exercises. Your score will be forwarded into my gradebook.

How to get your Blog on:

This semester, you will be required to maintain a writer’s blog throughout the course of the semester.

FIVE TIMES, I will ask you to convert in-class writing , Blackboard work, or parts of your essays into blog posts.

Here is how it should look. Take a look at the following models to create your own:

1. Jay’s Museum of College Writing:
http://planetmexicali.typepad.com/jays_museum_of_college_wr/
2. Teresa , Queen of Blog: <http://teresaqueenofblog.blogspot.mx/>
3. Pilar’s Blog of the Innocents: <http://pzcarrazco.blogspot.mx/>

Here is how you get started.

1. Create a blog on blogger.com – It’s FREE, It’s EAZY, and this way there will be plenty of people around to help you or share new and exciting techniques. In fact, I expect you to teach me a few things. Let’s work together. I mean, we are Friends of the Earth.

- a. Here is a website with a 20-step plan to get you started:
<http://www.wikihow.com/Start-a-Blog-on-Blogger>

(Don’t Forget: You will have to first Create a Google Account before you can Create a Blogger Account.)

- b. Here is a site on youtube that will give you a strong visual:
<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=n6PuHFpfscA&feature=sharecontrol>

Step 3

Repeatedly click the right side arrow next to the month and year. Continue clicking the arrow until the date displayed is at least a few years in the future.

Step 4

Choose a day on the monthly calendar and click "Done" under the calendar. Click "Update" at the top of the blog and click "Close." Go to your blog to ensure the post you wanted is at the top.

2. Here is something I discovered this year to enhance the look of my blog: Flickr.com
 - a. develop a library of images
 - b. learn to upload your images by copying the embed code (I'll teach you this in class).

3. Here is what you need to worry about:

1. First, your writing – rough draft - for the post will be checked and graded in class.
2. You need to submit your post to be graded on blackboard.
3. Your post from Blackboard can be copied and customized for presentation on Blogger.
4. At the midterm exam, I will look at your Blogger blog and review at least five assigned posts.
5. All posts must meet deadlines for full credit.
