1. contain a controlling idea (or thesis) that responds to the prompt.
2. support the main idea using fully developed reasons and examples.
3. present a clear organization that avoids repeating ideas, and this includes use of transitions that give continuity and coherence to the prose.
4. demonstrate clear command of grammar and punctuation skills.
5. follow MLA format, paragraph and page length, and other prompt requirements.

— In-Class Work —

Students will be required to

Imperial Valley College Course Syllabus and Calendar

Out of Class Assignments: The Department of Education policy states that one (1) credit hour is the amount of student work that reasonably approximates not less than one hour of class time and two (2) hours of out-of-class time per week over the span of a semester. WASC has adopted a similar requirement.

Course Grading Based on Course Objectives (Tentative)

NOTE: This course can be taken for a letter grade or Pass/No Pass credit.

Compositions - 60%

Homework - 10%

= for a total of 100% of grade.

In-class Participation/Journals - 10%

Quizzes - 10%

Common Final - 10%

NOTE: All composition drafts (this includes homework/workshop “rough drafts”) must be typed and MLA format compliant.

Imperial Valley College Course Syllabus and Calendar

NOTE: In order to receive full credit on a composition, you must turn in a “rough draft” on the assigned date. Additionally, the “rough draft” must be stapled to the back of the “final draft” prior to submitting the assignment on the due date. Failure to compose the rough draft or failure to attach the rough draft to the final draft will result in a 10% (or more) grade deduction for that assignment.

*NOTE: Late work is unacceptable. Assignments that are late will either not be accepted or will be penalized a full letter grade (10%) or more.

NOTE: Journal prompts will be assigned at the beginning of class or once the class resumes after the instructional break.

NOTE: Some homework and rough draft assignments will not be collected by instructor and/or may not be graded. Regardless of this fact, students are expected to complete all assignments.

NOTE: Regular attendance is important because certain assignments (such as quizzes) will be taken during class sessions. Some of these assignments will NOT have make-up opportunities. Additionally, some of the larger (paper) compositions may be written in class, and students must be present to be able to compose and submit the in-class compositions.

Attendance

- A student who fails to attend the first meeting of a class or does not complete the first mandatory activity of an online class will be dropped by the instructor as of the first official meeting of that class. Should readmission be desired, the student’s status will be the same as that of any other student who desires to add a class. It is the student’s responsibility to drop or officially withdraw from the class. See General Catalog for details.
- Regular attendance in all classes is expected of all students. A student whose continuous, unexcused absences exceed the number of hours the class is scheduled to meet per week may be dropped. For online courses, students who fail to complete required activities for two consecutive weeks may be considered to have excessive absences and may be dropped.
- Absences attributed to the representation of the college at officially approved events (conferences, contests, and field trips) will be counted as ‘excused’ absences.

If a student needs to miss class, the student should contact the instructor ahead of time to inform him of a planned absence.

Moreover, the student is responsible for contacting the instructor to find out what work needs to be made up and, if possible, for making up in-class work and homework for the missed day. It is the student’s responsibility to log into BB and check for the missed class assignments and homework. It is the student’s responsibility to depend on the kindness of a classmate to obtain the missed lecture notes.

!!ATTENTION!! If a student is absent on the day a composition or a major assignment is due, he/she must make every possible effort to email the instructor a copy of the completed assignment before the scheduled class meeting that assignment is due. If the instructor does not receive the completed assignment in advance or in a timely manner, late work note (see above) rules will apply. Moreover, students must make sure to hand-in a hard copy of the assignment to the instructor.

Classroom Etiquette

Electronic Devices: Put cell phones away and set them on silent mode. If there is a call you must make or receive, please step outside of class to do so. If you do not understand how to correctly 'cite a source', you must ask for help.
- Cheating is defined as fraud, deceit, or dishonesty in an academic assignment or using or attempting to use materials, or assisting others in using materials, which are prohibited or inappropriate in the context of the academic assignment in question.

Repeated acts of cheating may result in an F in the course and/or disciplinary action. Please refer to the General School Catalog for more information on academic dishonesty or other misconduct. Acts of cheating include, but are not limited to the following: (a) plagiarism; (b) copying or attempting to copy from others during an examination or on an assignment ;(c) communicating test information with another person during an examination; (d) allowing others to do an assignment or portion of an assignment, (e) use of a commercial term paper service.
