III. COURSE DESCRIPTION: French 100 is a first semester, five-unit course designed for students who wish to acquire basic knowledge of French language and French and Francophone civilization. Students will begin to achieve proficiency in listening, speaking, reading and writing. Active participation in French is expected of all students. Translation will not be used.

IV. SELECTED LEARNING OUTCOMES

1. Demonstrate spoken French by responding in complete sentences to questions about every-day activities and occurrences.
2. Comprehend, organize and effectively communicate in level-appropriate spoken French information about a simple topic related to French/francophone culture.
3. Upon reading a text based on an aspect of French/francophone culture, with the aid of a dictionary, effectively demonstrate comprehension by answering questions related to the text.

V. ASSESSMENT: The course grade is calculated using the following percentages:

Online homework 15%: Assignments are given daily. Use the vtext to study and the Supersite for the homework at www.vhlcentral.com. The Supersite code accompanies the new textbook. Assignments must be submitted by 11:59 p. m. on the date due. It is the students' responsibility to check Blackboard Announcements for assignments daily. Headphones and microphone are required to do the exercises. The language lab is equipped with computers and headphones. It is located in the 2600 building and can be reached by phone at 760-355-6292.

Compositions and other homework 15% : The purpose of the compositions is to demonstrate mastery of the material presented in the lesson. No electronic submissions. Blue or black ink only.

Quizzes 15%: There are no make-up quizzes. The lowest quiz score will be dropped.

Midterm 20%: April 14. There are no make-up midterm exams.

Final exam 25%: June 9. There are no make-up final exams.

Participation 10%: Based on performance of oral exercises in class and the following:

1. Pay attention in class.
2. Raise your hand if you wish to speak or ask a question.
3. A French-only policy is in effect during class.
4. All electronic devices must be turned off and stowed away during class. before class to avoid grades being lowered.

VI. LOGON INSTRUCTIONS:

PURCHASING A SUPERSITE CODE

This class requires technology access. This access allows you to complete and submit assignments and tests; access all media and study tools; receive announcements; and communicate with your instructor.

Shop smart: only buy books that include the required Supersite code!

You will spend more if you purchase the textbook and code separately. New textbooks purchased at the bookstore will include this code. Most books that are sold online or used DO NOT include the access code. Always check that what you are buying includes the code.
