Course Description

A study of the theory, process, and practice of interviewing and counseling in community service and other counseling situations. The course is designed to assist the student to gain knowledge and develop skills in order to help a client or interviewee in counseling situations. Theories of counseling and basic helping skills will be presented, demonstrated, and practiced. (Same as ADS 120)(CSU)

Student Learning Outcomes

Required language: Upon course completion, the successful student will have acquired new skills, knowledge, and or attitudes as demonstrated by being able to:

1. Present active listening skills using body language and empathetic paraphrasing. (ILO1, ILO2, ILO3)
2. Demonstrate advanced cognitive behavioral therapy techniques. (ILO1, ILO2, ILO3)
3. Research a counseling theory and present material in class. (ILO1, ILO2, ILO3, ILO4, ILO5)

Course Objectives

Required language: Upon satisfactory completion of the course, students will be able to:

1. Name therapies such as summarize, and explain the principal methods of techniques used in client centered, Gestalt, rational, emotive, family systems, and psychoanalytic forms of counseling or psychotherapy, and will be able to compare and contrast each method or technique with the others.
2. Listen and empathize with a client for five minutes and then verbally reflect back (repeat using other words) the gist of what the clients has expressed.
3. Explain the personal and professional characteristics of an effective counselor.
4. Demonstrate advanced empathetic understanding.
5. Explain which of the methods of counseling he prefers and will be able to justify that choice.

Course Requirements and Instructional Methods

Students will be required to read assigned chapters; participate in class discussions, dyads, triads, small and large group activities, practice active and advanced active listening, research and present counseling theories, critique counseling demonstrations. Instructional methods also include lecture, discussion, film reviews, and group work.

Out of Class Assignments: The Department of Education policy states that one (1) credit hour is the amount of student work that reasonably approximates not less than one hour of class time and two (2) hours of out-of-class time per week over the span of a semester. WASC has adopted a similar requirement.

Course Grading Based on Course Objectives

Grades will be calculated by the following criteria:

-20 Pts. Class participation

-10 Pts. Journal

-10 Pts. Group presentations

-30 Pts. Quizzes

-30 Pts. Final (written & oral exam)

A=90-100; B=80-89; C=70-79; D=60-69; F= below 60

Attendance

- A student who fails to attend the first meeting of a class or does not complete the first mandatory activity of an online class will be dropped by the instructor as of the first official meeting of that class. Should readmission be desired, the student's status will be the same as that of any other student who desires to add a class. It is the student's responsibility to drop or officially withdraw from the class. See General Catalog for details.
- Regular attendance in all classes is expected of all students. A student whose continuous, unexcused absences exceed the number of hours the class is scheduled to meet per week may be dropped. For online courses, students who fail to complete required activities for two consecutive weeks may be considered to have excessive absences and may be dropped.
- Absences attributed to the representation of the college at officially approved events (conferences, contests, and field trips) will be counted as 'excused' absences.

Classroom Etiquette

Electronic Devices: Cell phones and electronic devices must be turned off and put away during class, unless otherwise directed by the instructor.

Food and Drink are prohibited in all classrooms. Water bottles with lids/caps are the only exception. Additional restrictions will apply in labs. Please comply as directed.

Disruptive Students: Students who disrupt or interfere with a class may be sent out of the room and told to meet with the Campus Disciplinary Officer before returning to continue with coursework. Disciplinary procedures will be followed as outlined in the General Catalog. This includes coming into class late, and personal chit chat or side discussions which distract your instructor or other students.

Children in the classroom: Due to college rules and state laws, no one who is not enrolled in the class may attend, including children.

□ During test taking there will be nothing allowed on your desk or chairs next to you. This will prevent cheating and /or the appearance of cheating during test time. Cell phones must be completely put away and out of sight. During tests no one will be allowed to come into class late and disrupt the testing environment.

Academic Honesty

Required Language

- Plagiarism is taking and presenting as one's own the writings or ideas of others, without citing the source. You should understand the concept of plagiarism and keep it in mind when taking exams and preparing written materials. If you do not understand how to 'cite a source' correctly, you must ask for help.
- Cheating is defined as fraud, deceit, or dishonesty in an academic assignment, or using or attempting to use materials, or assisting others in using materials that are prohibited or inappropriate in the context of the academic assignment in question.

Anyone caught cheating or will receive a zero (0) on the exam or assignment, and the instructor may report the incident to the Campus Disciplinary Officer, who may place related documentation in a file. Repeated acts of cheating may result in an F in the course and/or disciplinary action. Please refer to the General School Catalog for more information on academic dishonesty or other misconduct. Acts of cheating include, but are not limited to, the following: (a) plagiarism; (b) copying or attempting to copy from others during an examination or on an assignment; (c) communicating test information with another person during an examination; (d) allowing others to do an assignment or portion of an assignment; (e) using a commercial term paper service.
