Course Description

Early World History is a broad survey of the diverse societies of Africa, Asia, Europe, the Americas, and Oceania from prehistory through the 1400s. This course seeks to describe the emergence and development of civilizations, societies, trade, religions and cultures, and to recognize the interconnections between different peoples and across time.

This course is the first part in a two-semester survey of world history from prehistoric to present times. Because of the scope of this course, we will be unable to explore any one region or civilization in depth. Instead, we will attempt to look at the history of the world in order to understand the emergence of civilizations, societies, religions and cultures, and to recognize the connections between different peoples and across time. Though an understanding of “what happened when” is critical as a foundation, we will go beyond names and dates. Instead, we will look at the social bonds and conflicts created by culture, religion and trade. We will discuss the patterns of society and government that our ancestors developed in order to meet their desire for political and social stability. By the end of the course, students will understand the main trends in world history from its beginnings until early modern times.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon course completion, the successful student will have acquired new skills, knowledge, and or attitudes as demonstrated by being able to:

- Identify and describe the chief political, social, economic and/or cultural characteristics of important ancient and pre-modern civilizations, cultures, and societies.
- Read, evaluate, and analyze primary and secondary historical sources and display an understanding of these sources competently and persuasively in a written and/or oral report, on topics relevant to early world history.
- Display an understanding of world geography relevant to early world history and successfully explain how the physical and natural environment has both affected and been affected by human societies.

Course Objectives

Upon satisfactory completion of the course, students will be able to:

- Describe the political, social, economic, cultural, and religious characteristics of the major societies, civilizations, states and cultures of the world from prehistory to around 1500 CE.
- Describe the patterns of trade and cross-cultural interaction during different eras in world history.
- Explain the origins, basic belief structures, and patterns of expansion of the major world religions before 1500 CE.
- Describe the key scientific and technological developments of ancient and pre-modern world history, and analyze and explain how these scientific and technological innovations diffused throughout different human societies and changed and influenced cultures and civilizations.
- Analyze and describe cultural practices and expressions, such as art, literature, religion and music, as well as patterns of family life and gender relations of ancient and pre-modern societies.
- Exhibit a basic knowledge of world geography and explain how the physical and natural environment has influenced patterns of settlement, the emergence of different types of societies and cultures, and how human use of the environment has contributed to both the success and collapse of civilizations.
- Exhibit awareness of how different people in different times and places have viewed themselves, viewed others, and viewed the world around them.
- Demonstrate an understanding of civilization through multiple analytical categories such as race, class, gender, and ethnicity.
- Demonstrate the ability to read, understand, and interpret primary and secondary historical sources, and to compose an argument, either in a written or oral report, which uses these sources, as appropriate, for support.

Textbooks & Other Resources or Links

The following textbook is required for this course for all students:

Duiker, William J. and Spielvogel, Jackson J. The Essential World History. Volume 1: to 1800. 8th edition, 2017. Cengage Learning. ISBN: 978-1-305-64535-6

Bookstore Prices: Buy New $174.25, Rent New: $130.69, Digital Version: $100.99

Less expensive options may be available on-line from the publisher – website: www.cengage.com. If you buy from other websites, be sure to get the correct volume and edition of the textbook – Volume 1, 8th edition.

Copies of the textbooks are available at the Spencer Library in the Reserved section. Students can borrow the book for two hours and use it in the library to read and complete assignments for the course. Go to the main desk to request the book.

In addition to the textbook, students need to have the following supplies for this course:

- Notebook with paper – for notes and assignments
- pens or pencils to take notes in class each day
- 3 Scantron forms #882 – one for each exam
- Colored pencils, markers or crayons for map exercises

Attendance

- The study of history requires an understanding of the contrasts and interconnections of times, peoples and places. Therefore, attendance, participation, and preparation are critical for success in this course. I will take roll every class period. If you are late please check in with me at the end of class or you will be marked absent. All persons who are attending the class must complete the enrollment process promptly in order to remain in the classroom.
- In this course, if you miss either of the first two class sessions you will be dropped and your place will be given away to another student.

What the Law Says:

IVC Attendance Policies:

- A student who fails to attend the first meeting of a class or does not complete the first mandatory activity of an online class will be dropped by the instructor as of the first official meeting of that class. Should readmission be desired, the student's status will be the same as that of any other student who desires to add a class. It is the student's responsibility to drop or officially withdraw from the class. See General Catalog for details.
- Regular attendance in all classes is expected of all students. A student whose continuous, unexcused absences exceed the number of hours the class is scheduled to meet per week may be dropped. For online courses, students who fail to complete required activities for two consecutive weeks may be considered to have excessive absences and may be dropped. However, it is the student's responsibility to drop or officially withdraw from the class.
- Absences attributed to the representation of the college at officially approved events (conferences, contests, and field trips) will be counted as 'excused' absences.

Course Requirements and Instructional Methods

What the Law Says:

Out of Class Assignments: The Department of Education policy states that one (1) credit hour is the amount of student work that reasonably approximates not less than one hour of class time and two (2) hours of out-of-class time per week over the span of a semester. WASC has adopted a similar requirement.

Reading Assignments

- Reading the textbook is critical for success in this course.
- The reading assignment for each week is listed in the course schedule section at the end of this syllabus. Basically, you will be reading one or two chapters in your textbook each week. You are expected to read the material before the day that is listed in the schedule and be prepared to discuss the assigned readings in class. Students who complete the reading assignments before class are better able to ask questions or get clarifications during class and consequently often get better grades in the course.
- Each chapter in the book is about 25 - 30 pages long and we are reading about one chapter each week. Each week you will spend about 3 hours in class and at least 6 hours outside of class reading, studying, working on assignments and preparing for exams. Please be ready to invest the amount of time required to read, reflect on, comprehend, and review the material in order to be successful in this course.

Classroom Activities

- Each class period will consist primarily of lecture and discussion. Interesting and informative discussion requires that students be prepared for class by having read the material. During the class period we may also have some class activities that require participation by all students. These activities will usually require the use of your textbook or other materials so please bring your books to class every day so that you will be able to participate in any activities.
- During some classes we will have video presentations. These videos have been chosen to highlight a particular aspect of history, or present a viewpoint that adds to our understanding of past attitudes and concerns. Videos, therefore, are an integral part of the classroom experience; they are not entertainment or time wasters. You will see questions on the exams that refer directly to information from the video presentations. Please take notes accordingly.

Homework

- During this course there will be a number of homework assignments covering the material from the textbook, lectures, and videos. The assignments will consist of a mixture of different activities such as: practice test objective questions (multiple choice, matching, true/false, etc.), map exercises, mini projects and/or short answer essays.
- Homework will be due on the date indicated on the assignment in Blackboard, approximately on the date listed in the course schedule of this syllabus. I will post each of the homework assignments to Blackboard approximately a week before it is due. It is your responsibility to download the assignment early enough that you can complete it on time.
- Everyone is required to complete all of the homework assignments.

Late Assignments

- Late assignments are accepted but are strongly discouraged. Except under extraordinary circumstances and with my specific permission, assignments that are turned in late will have 10% deducted for each calendar day the assignment is late. Since 10% is deducted for each day an assignment is late, after 10 days there is no point in turning in anything late since it will be worth nothing.
- If you are absent from class on the day an assignment is due you are still required to turn it in on time. You can email your work, send it with a friend, turn it in early, or bring it to my office and leave it in my box or with the department secretary. As long as I receive it on or before the due date there will be no penalty.

Exams

- There will be three exams during the course covering the material in the textbook, as well as all the material presented in class. Each exam will be worth 150 points and consist of objective questions (multiple choice, true/false, matching, etc.) and a map identification section.
- In the Resources area of Blackboard I will post study guides for each of the chapters in your textbook to help you learn the material and prepare for the exams. These study guides consists of key terms and concepts for each textbook chapter. In general, for each term the student should be able to define the term (what is it) and explain the importance, impact, or cause and effect of the event or idea. The exam questions will be taken directly from these study guides.
- You must bring a Scantron #882 and a regular pencil in order to take the test.
- “Cheat Sheet” - for each exam each student is allowed to bring one page of notes (a single 8 ½ x 11 sheet of paper, hand written only, on one side of the paper, no typed, no electronic, no photocopies) to refer to during the exam if desired.

Make Up Exams

- Generally speaking, exams can be made up only for serious reasons that are beyond the ability of the student to control (for example: serious illness, required military service, etc.). You must contact me no later than the day of the exam, preferably sooner, if you will miss a test. You must provide proof that you could not come to school (doctor’s note, court appearance notice, service orders, etc.) in order to be eligible for a makeup exam.
- Make up exams must be completed within 10 calendar days of the student’s return to school from absence. You must schedule an appointment to come to my office to make up the exam outside of class.
- Please note that each exam represents 25% of your final course grade. Therefore, if you miss an exam and do not make it up, the best grade you can get in the course is 75%, a C, and that is only if you achieve 100% on the other two exams. Throughout my many years teaching I have observed that students who miss an exam and do not make it up almost always get a F in the course, at best a D. Obviously, if you intend to pass the course, you must take all of the exams.

Extra Credit

- Throughout the semester I may offer students the chance to earn extra credit points for participating in educational opportunities outside of class. If and when these are available I will announce them in class and on Blackboard.
- However, regardless of the number and type of activities a student participates in, each student may earn more no more than 30 points in extra credit for the course.

Course Grading Based on Course Objectives

- Students earn grades based on the level of achievement of course material mastery and not on the level of effort expended. My grade of any assignment or exam is final without evidence of fraud, bad faith or error on my part. I will be happy to meet with you privately should you wish to discuss the criteria and reasoning I used to assign a particular grade on your work. I have been known on rare occasions to make mathematical miscalculations of grades. If this should occur the error will be corrected immediately upon presentation by the student.
- There are a total of 625 points possible for this course; therefore, final course grades will be determined based on the following scale:

625 – 562	100% - 90%	A
561 – 500	89% - 80%	B
499 – 437	79% - 70%	C
436 – 375	69% - 60%	D
374 – 0	59% or lower	F

Point Value for Assignments and Exams

Classroom Etiquette

Children in the classroom

- Due to college rules and state laws, only enrolled students may attend the class, including children.

Dropping the Course

- If for any reason you decide not to complete the course, remember that it is your responsibility to drop the class. If you simply stop coming to class and do not log on to WebSTAR and officially withdraw from the course, you will receive an “F” as a final grade.

Notification of Absences

- It is not necessary for you to call me if you will be absent unless you will be gone from class for longer than two consecutive class periods. There are no excused absences except for official, documented college related activities. Please make all counseling, financial aid, or non-emergency doctor appointments for times when you are not scheduled to be in class.
- If a serious illness or problem arises during the course that will cause you to be absent for an extended period of time, please let me know as soon as possible so that we can determine if you will be able to finish the course. I am more than willing to work with students to resolve problems if I am promptly informed about them.

Cell Phones & Other Electronic Equipment

- Out of consideration for others, please turn your cell phones and any other electronic equipment off at the beginning of class. These items distract other students and me when they ring or beep during class.
- Absolutely no cell phones are allowed on or within view during exams; ringing phones will be confiscated for the duration of the exam. Anyone who answers or uses a cell phone or any other type of electronic equipment during a test without my permission will receive a zero on that test.

Course Interruptions

- It is expected that you will be present, in your seat, and participating in class for the entire course period. Please take care of any personal needs (phone calls, restroom breaks, beverage needs) before or after class. Every time you step out in the middle of class it is disrupting the learning of the entire class and this is not acceptable.
- Anyone who leaves the room during a test without my permission will be assumed to have finished the test and will not be allowed to continue.
- If you have a serious medical or other problem that makes it impossible for you to remain in your seat for the entire class period, please inform me as soon as possible and accommodations will be made.

Behavioral Expectations

- In college it is assumed that everyone is an adult and has chosen to be here in order to better his/her knowledge, experience, and job opportunities and for personal growth and development. This is a large class and therefore it is imperative that each student show respect for your fellow students and not engage in behaviors that will make it difficult or impossible for other students to learn effectively. I will not tolerate any behavior that interferes with another student’s opportunity to learn.
- At all times, each member of the class will attempt to comport him or herself in a professional manner. That means, in a manner consistent with a professional setting such as a business office or place of worship. Students are encouraged to ask questions and participate in discussions regarding the material under consideration. However, disruptions that tend to diminish or extinguish learning will not be tolerated. The following behaviors are inappropriate in a college classroom:
  - Personal conversations between students during class, regardless of the topic, including cell phone calls;
  - Classroom interruptions due to tardiness, coming and going from class, or leaving early;
  - Writing and passing notes to one another;

- Completing assignments for other classes during lecture or discussions;
- Sleeping, particularly if you snore or drool;
- Reading magazines, playing with electronic games, playing cards, listening to music, or other disruptive, immature actions;
- Disrespectful, argumentative or combative behavior;
- Harassing or irritating another student.

Discipline Penalties

- If your behavior is disruptive to the class or to other students I will first give you a verbal warning in class. If the disruptive behavior continues I will then give you a second and final verbal warning to stop the immature behavior. Please take these verbal warnings seriously, because if the disruptive behavior continues, I will immediately dismiss you from the class, I will turn your name over to the Dean of Student Affairs and you will not be able to return to class until after you have met with the Dean. The Dean will outline for you the penalties if you continue to display disruptive and immature behavior in class. If you return to class and continue the disruptive behavior I will again refer you to the Dean. At that point, he may choose to drop you from the class, or if your behavior in other classes has also been disruptive, suspend you from the college for the remainder of the semester. In extreme cases of dangerous, threatening, or abusive behavior you may be immediately expelled from the college and law enforcement will be contacted.

Digital Netiquette

Digital Communication Behavioral Expectations

- Remember, your digital communications, whether email or text messages, with other students or with the instructor of this course are a professional, rather than a personal interaction. You should communicate digitally in the same manner as you would talk in person in a similar professional situation. You would not talk to your grandmother, your boss, or the leader of your religious group using the same language as you would use with your best friends. So too, your digital communications with professional colleagues should be different and more formal than what you would use with your best friends.

What the Law Says:

IVC Digital Communication Rules:

- What is netiquette? Netiquette is internet manners, online etiquette, and digital etiquette all rolled into one word. Basically, netiquette is a set of rules for behaving and communicating appropriately online.
- Here are some rules for professional, digital communication: (1) identify yourself, (2) include a subject line, (3) avoid sarcasm, (4) respect others' opinions and privacy, (5) acknowledge and return messages promptly, (6) copy with caution, (7) do not spam or junk mail, (8) be concise, (9) use appropriate language, (10) use only appropriate emoticons (emotional icons) to help convey meaning, (11) use appropriate intensifiers to help convey meaning [do not use ALL CAPS or multiple exclamation marks (!!!!)], and (12) avoid obscene, offensive, or abusive language at all times.

Academic Honesty

One of the greatest benefits of modern American society is that every single person has the right to pursue whatever education, knowledge or skills that they want, for as long as they want, and to whatever level that they want. Granted, there are financial barriers that must be overcome. But unlike societies in the past which limited access to knowledge only to certain racial, ethnic or gender groups, today, no one is turned away from school just because they are female, or dark skinned, or their parents aren't powerful.

But college is a choice. No one is required by law to attend college, unlike kindergarten through high school. In college, each student can choose his or her own course of study and the classes and instructors she wants to work with. Sure, there are requirements that you may not be particularly enthusiastic about, or limited options available, but in essence it is still the student's choice.

So with this in mind, the old saying that when you cheat in school you only cheat yourself is even more true than ever. What you truly learn is yours for the rest of your life, more so than any material items that you may purchase but will wear out and be discarded in a few days, weeks or at best years. But what you learn, whether it is factual knowledge or new skills and techniques, will be yours for the rest of your life. Finishing a college degree or academic certificate means that you have achieved something through your own hard work, effort, blood, sweat, and tears and I can assure you that the feeling of self satisfaction and accomplishment is truly wonderful. Don't taint that amazing feeling of accomplishment by knowing that you only got there because you cheated.

What the law says:

IVC Academic Honesty Policy:

Academic honesty in the advancement of knowledge requires that all students and instructors respect the integrity of one another's work and recognize the important of acknowledging and safeguarding intellectual property.

There are many different forms of academic dishonesty. The following kinds of honesty violations and their definitions are not meant to be exhaustive. Rather, they are intended to serve as examples of unacceptable academic conduct.

- Plagiarism is taking and presenting as one's own the writings or ideas of others, without citing the source. You should understand the concept of plagiarism and keep it in mind when taking exams and preparing written materials. If you do not understand how to "cite a source" correctly, you must ask for help.
- Cheating is defined as fraud, deceit, or dishonesty in an academic assignment, or using or attempting to use materials, or assisting others in using materials that are prohibited or inappropriate in the context of the academic assignment in question.

Anyone caught cheating or plagiarizing will receive a zero (0) on the exam or assignment, and the instructor may report the incident to the Campus Disciplinary Officer, who may place related documentation in a file. Repeated acts of cheating may result in an F in the course and/or disciplinary action. Please refer to the General Catalog for more information on academic dishonesty or other misconduct. Acts of cheating include, but are not limited to, the following: (a) plagiarism; (b) copying or attempting to copy from others during an examination or on an assignment; (c) communicating test information with another person during an examination; (d) allowing others to do an assignment or portion of an assignment; (e) using a commercial term paper service.
