Course Requirements and Instructional Methods

This is a scheduled online class. We meet on M/W from 9:35-10:40. I will take attendance, so you must come to class. I have posted a link to our classes in an announcement, and you can find the link in each module we review. In every unit of our Northstar 1 textbook, you will do inferencing, note taking, listening, grammar, pronunciation, and speaking activities. You are responsible for learning the vocabulary from each unit. I will give you quizzes on it. You will also have a unit exam at the end of every unit. When you come to class, we will review the activities in your book, so you must do your homework activities before class.

Course Grading Policy

Your class grade will be based on the unit tests, vocabulary quizzes, presentations, and class participation. Unit examinations and quizzes are 60 percent of your grade. Presentations and class participation are 40 percent. You cannot make up quizzes or examinations, so be sure to take them on time.

Course Policies

Attendance is mandatory and part of your grade. You must attend class. If you cannot make it to class, I will post videos of my lectures through announcements, but you cannot just watch the class videos. You need to be in class. If you miss a quiz or exam, you CANNOT make it up, so be sure to complete all exams and quizzes by the due date. When you are in a Zoom class lecture, try to be quiet. I want you to talk to me and your classmates, but be careful of the noise in your home. It can be very distracting to me and your classmates. When you give a presentation, you need to do it on time and in class. I'm looking forward to an interesting semester with you. We will learn a lot and have fun!
