Course Policies

Essay Grading Policy

- Essays are graded on a percent of 100.
- Grade reflects the overall quality of the work turned in, how complete the work is and whether the instructions from the assignment were properly followed.
- A rubric will be used to grade each essay.
- Missing or unsatisfactory work will be scored “no credit.” This is a 0 (F) and averaged into your grade.
- Essays that do not follow the prompt instructions will receive a 0 (F).
- Late essays are not accepted.

The course is divided into units, at the end of each unit, you will complete an essay. Every essay is a research essay which means that you will use outside sources. Each essay is an opportunity for you to showcase the skills you have learned throughout the unit. Here are the essays you'll complete this semester:

- Essay 1: Definition Essay
- Essay 2: Cause & Effect Essay
- Essay 3: Persuasive Essays

Late Work Policy

Late work interrupts the flow of learning in this course, and could cause serious problems. Discussions, in particular, are designed to be interactive--the feedback you give to and get from your peers is just as valuable as any feedback you will receive from me. For this reason, late work is discouraged, and some late work will not be accepted. Late work will receive a 10% deduction per day; late work submitted after 3 days late will not be accepted.

If an emergency arises, such as illness or a family emergency, please let me know ASAP. I can't reiterate enough that your success is my central goal, but your success also involves a partnership between you and me that is supported by strong communication.

Feedback Policy

- I will provide feedback to you for all assignments and graded discussions within one week of the due date.
- I will be using a rubric to grade your assignments and discussions.
- I will add comments and annotations to your submitted files.

Attendance and Participation Policy

In this course, logging in on a regular basis and your participation in discussions is how I will gauge your "attendance." Thus, meeting the due dates for discussions is very important. The beauty of an online course is that you can fit your studying in around your schedule. This doesn't mean, however, that the course is self-paced.

Add/Drop Policy

If, after reviewing the syllabus and orientation unit, you feel this is not the right course for you, please let me know ASAP, so that you can be dropped from the course and another student can be added in your place. Students who miss more than two graded assignments (lessons, discussions, drafts, peer reviews, or conferences) may be dropped from the course. In addition, students who fail to log in to the course for 7 consecutive days risk being dropped from the course. If you are struggling, experiencing access issues, or are seriously ill, please contact me immediately so we can develop a success plan together.

Plagiarism and Cheating Policy

Plagiarism is taking and presenting as one's own the writings or ideas of others, without citing the source. You should understand the concept of plagiarism and keep it in mind when taking exams and preparing written materials. If you do not understand how to "cite a source" correctly, you must ask for help.

Cheating is defined as fraud, deceit, or dishonesty in an academic assignment, or using or attempting to use materials, or assisting others in using materials that are prohibited or inappropriate in the context of the academic assignment in question.

Anyone caught cheating or plagiarizing will receive a zero (0) on the exam or assignment, and the instructor may report the incident to the Campus Disciplinary Officer, who may place related documentation in a file.

At least some assignments in this course use the plagiarism prevention tool, Unicheck. This tool does not require any additional system requirements. When submitting an assignment with Unicheck enabled, a plagiarism report viewable by your instructor will be generated. Before submitting the assignment, you are required to check a box stating that the assignment you are submitting is your own original work.
