Course Description

Emphasizes critical thinking in reading and writing beyond that achieved in ENGL 110 or ENGL 101. Written argumentation will focus on deduction and induction, an understanding of the fallacies of language and thought, the application of valid evidence, and refutation. Limitation on Enrollment: Course not open to students with a C or higher in English 204. (C-ID ENGL 105/ENGL 115) (CSU/UC)

Course Prerequisite(s) and/or Corequisite(s)

ENGL 105 or ENGL 110 or ENGL 101 with a grade of "C" or better.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon course completion, the successful student will have acquired new skills, knowledge, and or attitudes as demonstrated by being able to:

1. Interpret appropriately and analyze a written argument for claim, evidence, reasoning, fallacies, and overall effectiveness. (ILO1, ILO2)
2. Develop an effective written argument containing a factual claim, providing valid and appropriate evidence, utilizing appropriate reasoning strategies, and avoiding fallacies. (ILO1, ILO2, ILO3)
3. Demonstrate command of rules regarding plagiarism and academic ethics. (ILO3)

Course Objectives

Upon satisfactory completion of the course, students will be able to:

1. Student will identify the structure of arguments, including the assertions/claims and the proof/support.

2. Student will analyze arguments critically, evaluating multiple arguments for validity and soundness, distinguishing fact from judgment and knowledge from opinion, and differentiating relevant from irrelevant support.
3. Student will analyze and construct both deductive and inductive arguments.
4. Student will write argumentative prose that defines, that analyzes casual relationships, that advocates solutions, that evaluates judgments, and that refutes other arguments.
5. Student will identify formal and informal fallacies in language and thought.
6. Student will recognize and apply the effects of denotation and connotation; emotive language; and various figures of speech, especially metaphor, within argumentative prose.
7. Student will revise written drafts and edit appropriately for an academic audience, observing conventions of coherence, unity, purpose, grammar, mechanics, and documentation.
8. Students will write essays and research papers, mostly argumentative and analytical, composing a total of at least 6,000 words of formal writing.

Textbooks & Other Resources or Links

This is a zero textbook cost course. That means that you will not be required to purchase any textbook materials. Required reading materials for this course will be provided to you via the Canvas platform.

As this is a hybrid course, you will be required to have access to a computer and internet. Please let me know ASAP if this becomes an issue for you.

Course Requirements and Instructional Methods

Instructional Methods
Discussion
Assignments
Group Activity
Individual Assistance
Independent Reading
Independent Writing

Each week, students will be responsible for completing the required reading, which includes book chapters, articles, textbook chapters, and module pages on Canvas. Additionally, students are required to stay on top of assignments on Canvas. Students are expected to participate in all discussions and activities as well as be respectful to their peers, tutors, and instructor. Students who choose not to do so will be asked to remove themselves from the course. Unless otherwise specified, all assignments will be available one week before the due date and one week after the due date. Students who need additional time to complete assignments will need to speak with the instructor.

Mistakes are expected-that's how you learn! Don't be too hard on yourself. Students will be allowed to resubmit certain assignments for credit after first submission. Resubmissions must be provided no more than one week after the resubmission has been requested by the instructor.

Essay points: Total essay points include rough drafts (rough draft upload to Canvas, prewrites, outline, body drafts, 3 introduction drafts, 2 conclusion drafts) and final drafts (final draft upload to Canvas, 3 peer reviews, self-review, grammar review, and tutor review), and potential various other assignments relating to the essay. Students must take your essay to be reviewed by a tutor. Students who do not turn in the rough draft may regain up to 50% of the rough draft points by attending the instructor's office hours for at least 15 minutes to discuss their essay plans prior to the due date of the final draft.

All essays must have proper formatting.
-Proper format: Paragraphs should be double-spaced, Times New Roman, 12 point font. The first line in each paragraph should be indented .5 inches (half an inch). In the top left corner of page 1, please use the following heading style on all drafts:

Name
Professor Elliott
Date draft is due

Mini Analysis: Students are required to submit ten (10) mini analyses throughout the semester. These miniessays will be in response to specified reading/prompts and at least 2 pages in length and submitted via Canvas.

Discussions: During the semester, you will read several articles and other materials. Students will respond to a reading on Canvas. The response must include an engaging quote, one question for classmates, and relevant thoughts on the pages read. Students must also reply to two peers.

Weekly Review: Each week, students will reflect upon their work for the week. Responses include what students learned that week, what they feel they did well on, what they need to work on, how they plan to approach the following week, and any relevant questions students may have.

Unless otherwise specified,

- Discussions will be due on Wednesday
- Assignments will be due on Thursdays and Fridays
- Weekly Reviews will be due on Sunday

Late Policy: Students have seven (7) days after the due date to turn in late work with the exception of Essay #3 which cannot be turned in late. All late work will be given partial credit. All assignments, quizzes, and discussions must be submitted on Canvas.

Out of Class Assignments: The Department of Education policy states that one (1) credit hour is the amount of student work that reasonably approximates not less than one hour of class time and two (2) hours of out-of-class time per week over the span of a semester. WASC has adopted a similar requirement.

Course Policies

Attendance

- A student who fails to attend the first meeting of a class or does not complete the first mandatory activity of an online class will be dropped by the instructor as of the first official meeting of that class. Should readmission be desired, the student's status will be the same as that of any other student who desires to add a class. It is the student's responsibility to drop or officially withdraw from the class. See General Catalog for details.
- Regular attendance in all classes is expected of all students. A student whose continuous, unexcused absences exceed the number of hours the class is scheduled to meet per week may be dropped. For online courses, students who fail to complete required activities for two consecutive weeks may be considered to have excessive absences and may be dropped.
- Absences attributed to the representation of the college at officially approved events (conferences, contests, and field trips) will be counted as 'excused' absences. *Students should not rely on the instructor to drop them.

Students must be responsible for their own education and should drop themselves should they desire to discontinue the course.

Online Netiquette

What is netiquette? Netiquette is internet manners, online etiquette, and digital etiquette all rolled into one word. Basically, netiquette is a set of rules for behaving properly online.

Students are to comply with the following rules of netiquette: (1) identify yourself, (2) include a subject line, (3) avoid sarcasm, (4) respect others' opinions and privacy, (5) acknowledge and return messages promptly, (6) copy with caution, (7) do not spam or junk mail, (8) be concise, (9) use appropriate language, (10) use appropriate emoticons (emotional icons) to help convey meaning, and (11) use appropriate intensifiers to help convey meaning [do not use ALL CAPS or multiple exclamation marks (!!!!)].

Really, just use common sense. Consider how you are presenting yourself in the various modalities that we may use.

Academic Honesty

Academic honesty in the advancement of knowledge requires that all students and instructors respect the integrity of one another's work and recognize the important of acknowledging and safe guarding intellectual property.

There are many different forms of academic dishonesty. The following kinds of honesty violations and their definitions are not meant to be exhaustive. Rather, they are intended to serve as examples of unacceptable academic conduct

- Plagiarism is taking and presenting as one's own the writings or ideas of others, without citing the source. You should understand the concept of plagiarism and keep it in mind when taking exams and preparing written materials. If you do not understand how to "cite a source" correctly, you must ask for help.

• Cheating is defined as fraud, deceit, or dishonesty in an academic assignment, or using or attempting to use materials, or assisting others in using materials that are prohibited or inappropriate in the context of the academic assignment in question.

Anyone caught cheating or plagiarizing will receive a zero (0) on the exam or assignment, and the instructor may report the incident to the Campus Disciplinary Officer, who may place related documentation in a file. Repeated acts of cheating may result in an F in the course and/or disciplinary action. Please refer to the General Catalog for more information on academic dishonesty or other misconduct. The first student to point out this sentence to the instructor will receive two points of extra credit. Acts of cheating include, but are not limited to, the following: (a) plagiarism; (b) copying or attempting to copy from others during an examination or on an assignment; (c) communicating test information with another person during an examination; (d) allowing others to do an assignment or portion of an assignment; (e) using a commercial term paper service.
