Discussion Overview

\(Links to an external site.\) \(Links to an external site.\)

Discussion forums are used to communicate with other students on a specific topic or general course questions. Postings should be thoughtful and reflect your understanding of the subject matter. You are required to respond to your classmates each week. I will participate in our discussions and will also typically summarize of the class. If someone asks for help in the "Q&A" discussion, please feel free to respond. I will also jump in as needed. Discussion Tips For online discussions to be successful, it is recommended that you participate within the designated time indicated in the course. As you develop your response here are a few tips you can use to avoid the

"I agree or disagree" responses"

1. Share your experiences as it relates to the topic. Make connections to your own personal background and culture.

2. Identify and discuss your opinion and describe why you agree or disagree.

3. Search and share reputable sites, books, or articles that pertain to the topic. 4. Add a different view with specific examples.

Academic Honesty

Academic honesty in the advancement of knowledge requires that all students and instructors respect the integrity of one another's work and recognize the important of acknowledging and safeguarding intellectual property.

There are many different forms of academic dishonesty. The following kinds of honesty violations and their definitions are not meant to be exhaustive. Rather, they are intended to serve as examples of unacceptable academic conduct.

- Plagiarism is taking and presenting's one's own the writings or ideas of others, without citing the source. You should understand the concept of plagiarism and keep it in mind when taking exams and preparing written materials. If you do not understand how to "cite a source" correctly, you must ask for help.

- Cheating is defined as fraud, deceit, or dishonesty in an academic assignment, or using or attempting to use materials, or assisting others in using materials that are prohibited or inappropriate in the context of the academic assignment in question.

Anyone caught cheating or plagiarizing will receive a zero (0) on the exam or assignment, and the instructor may report the incident to the Campus Disciplinary Officer, who may place related documentation in a file. Repeated acts of cheating may result in an F in the course and/or disciplinary action. Please refer to the General Catalog for more information on academic dishonesty or other misconduct. Acts of cheating include, but are not limited to, the following:

(a) plagiarism;

(b) copying or attempting to copy from others during an examination or on an assignment;

(c) communicating test information with another person during an examination; (d) allowing others to do an assignment or portion of an assignment;

(e) using a commercial term paper service.

How do I show academic honesty and integrity in an online "classroom"?

•KEEP YOUR PASSWORDS CONFIDENTIAL.

You have a unique password to access online software like Canvas. Never allow someone else to log-in to your account.

•COMPLETE YOUR OWN COURSEWORK.

When you register for an online class and log-in to Canvas, you do so with the understanding that you will produce your own work, take your own exams, and will do so without the assistance of others(unless directed by the instructor).

Examples of Academic Dishonesty that can occur in an online environment

- Copying from others on a quiz, test, examination, or assignment;

- Allowing someone else to copy your answers on a quiz, test, exam, or assignment; •Having someone else take an exam or quiz for you;

- Conferring with others during a test or quiz (if the instructor didn't explicitly say it was a group project, then he/she expects you to do the work without conferring with others);

- Buying or using a term paper or research paper from an internet source or other company or taking any work of another, even with permission, and presenting the work as your own;
- Excessive revising or editing by others that substantially alters your final work;
- Sharing information that allows other students an advantage on an exam (such as telling a peer what to expect on a make-up exam or prepping a student for a test in another section of the same class);
- Taking and using the words, work, or ideas of others and presenting any of these as your own work is plagiarism. This applies to all work generated by another, whether it be oral, written, or artistic work. Plagiarism may either be deliberate or unintentional.

"Do's"

- Trust the value of your own intellect.
- Undertake research honestly and credit others for their work. •Demonstrate your own achievement and abilities.
- Ask for help from me, or for more time if you need it!

"Do Not's"

- Purchase papers or have someone write a paper for you. Recent reports show that agents who sell paper or take exams for pay by other students may end up being "blackmailed" by those agents in a variety of situations.(If you default on the agreed amount of compensation, do not purchase additional services, etc.) Agents have been known to notify the college of the misbehavior of students caught in this kind of trap.
- Copy ideas or wording without citing your source.
- Copy answers from another student.
- Ask another student to do your work for you.

Student Equity Program

The Student Equity & Achievement Program strives to improve Imperial Valley College's success outcomes, particularly for students who have been historically underrepresented and underserved. The college identifies strategies to monitor and address equity issues, making efforts to mitigate any disproportionate impact on student success and achievement. Our institutional data provides insight surrounding student populations who historically, are not fully represented. SEA addresses disparities and/or disproportionate impact in student success across disaggregated student equity groups including gender, ethnicity, disability status, financial need, LGBTQIA+, Veterans, foster youth, homelessness, and formerly incarcerated students. The SEA Program also houses IVC's Homeless Liaison, Foster Youth Liaison, Formerly Incarcerated Liaison, and Military Affiliated Liaison, who provide direct services and referrals to students in need. SEA strives to empower students experiencing insecurities related to food, housing, transportation, textbooks, and shower access. We recognize that students who struggle meeting their basic needs are also at an academic and economic disadvantage, creating barriers to academic success and wellness. We strive to remove barriers that affect IVC students' access to enrollment, education, degree and certificate completion, and the ability to transfer to a university. SEA also provides outreach at local Imperial County high schools to ensure graduating seniors are successfully matriculated into the college and have a strong support system. Please visit us online for assistance at <https://imperial.edu/students/student-equity-and-achievement/> or call us at 760-355- 6465 or when campus reopens, visit Building 401.
