Course Description

This course examines the major physical, psychosocial, and cognitive/language developmental milestones for children, both typical and atypical, from conception through adolescence. There will be an emphasis on interactions between maturational processes and environmental factors. While studying developmental theory and investigative research methodologies, students will observe children, evaluate individual differences and analyze characteristics of development at various stages. (Same as PSY 104) (C-ID CDEV 100) (CSU) (UC credit limited. See a counselor.)

Course Prerequisite(s) and/or Corequisite(s)

None

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon course completion, the successful student will have acquired new skills, knowledge, and or attitudes as demonstrated by being able to

- 1. Identify cultural, economic, political, historical contexts that impact children's development. (ILO2, ILO4, ILO5)*
- 2. Apply knowledge of development and major theoretical frameworks to child observations, surveys, and/or interviews. (ILO2, ILO4, ILO5)*

3. Describe (typical and atypical) development of children from conception through adolescence in the physical, social, emotional, and cognitive domains. (ILO2, ILO4, and ILO5)

Course Objectives

MEASURABLE COURSE OBJECTIVES AND MINIMUM STANDARDS FOR GRADE OF "C":

Upon satisfactory completion of the course, students will be able to:

1. Describe development of children from conception through adolescence in the areas of physical, psychosocial, cognitive, and language development.
2. Identify cultural, economic, political historical contexts that affect children's development.
3. Identify and compare major theoretical frameworks related to the study of human development.
4. Apply developmental theory to child observations, surveys, and/or interviews using investigative research methodologies.
5. Differentiate characteristics of typical and atypical development

Course Requirements and Instructional Methods

Regular and substantive contact between the student and the instructor is a critical component to the learning process. To assure effective contact in this course the instructor will provide:

Orientation material that provide the students with the basic structure and operations of the course.*

Weekly announcements that keep students course information.*

Threaded discussion boards within the course that allows the instructor to interact with students and*

Provides students a forum to post questions/concerns to the instructor.

Email contact within or outside Canvas, with a response to student emails within 48 hours.*

Grades for all coursework posted no later than 10 days after submission*

Zoom video orientation meeting will be provided to within the first day of the semester*

Optional Zoom review sessions prior to the dates of exams*

Optional individual Zoom meetings on the campus of IVC, arranged anytime during the semester.*

Optional face-to-face review sessions prior to the dates of the midterm and the final exam*

Optional individual face-to-face meetings on the campus of IVC, arranged anytime during the semester.*

Course Structure and Required Course Work:

This course is an On-Campus course, which requires students to regularly attend course sessions held on the campus of IVC. All students must attend during the Tuesda/Thursday, 9:40-11:05 am meeting hours.

The wearing of protective mask is encouraged for students attending on-campus class sessions.

Although this is not an 'Online' course, we will utilize our Canvas site for essential class content and complete and/or to submit some class assignment

We will have a Canvas Module related to all main class topics

Within these Modules will be notes from material covered during class time, related videos, and links to relevant internet materials.

It is critical that you stay current with work for each Unit- Students who get behind in their coursework often end up failing the course as a result

*NOTE: For the various required course work addressed below, (PLO #) indicates the Child Development Program Learning Outcome that is met by passing completion of the work.

Assignments: A total of 6 Assignment submissions will be required for the course. Each Assignment will be worth 10 points. The structure of the Assignments may vary but all will be submitted in the same manner on Canvas- Assignments will be focused on the following:

1: Introduction Assignment: This Assignment is designed to allow students to become comfortable submitting an Assignment- Students are asked to share with the instructor with any personal information the feel would allow the instructor to better understand and serve the student.

*2: Vygotsky/ZPD/Scaffolding: Students will provide an overview of Vygotsky's concept of Scaffolding. Student when then apply the concept scaffolding to a learning experience in their childhood. Students are also asked to reflect on how they might use scaffolding in a classroom setting. (PLO 1,5)

3: New Mother Interview: Based on course content, students will create 10 questions and interview a mother of an infant/toddler- Students will provide a discussion of the interview responses, using source material to compare/contrast with the interviewed mother's experience pre and post-natal. *(PLO 1, 2,6)

4: Milestones of Development: Students will focus on milestones of development related to cognitive, social-emotional, and physical domains of development for age groups 0-6 months, 7-12 months, 13-18 months, 19- 24 months, 2 years, 3 years, and 4 Years . For each age group students will describe a specific milestone of development related to each developmental domain and provide a picture that exemplifies the milestone, and a short description of who the milestones aids future development. Students will provide sources for their milestone descriptions. *(PLO1, 3)

5 Activity plan- You will be required to develop engaging learning activities designed to promote specific developmental skills

6: Observation/Conservation: Students will provide a written overview of the concept of Conservation. Students are required to test the concept of conservation on a preschool age child and a child between 7-8 years, and provide a written record of what they observed and a discussion related to the development of conservation skills. *(PLO 1,3)

7: Adolescent Personal Reflection: Students will reflect on their own adolescent years, applying course material to their own adolescent experience: Topics of focus include: Relationship with parents, peer pressure, self-esteem, friendship/ dating, idealism, rebellion, reckless behavior, and personal fable. *(PLO 1, 3)

For those assignments that will be submitted on Canvas, I would suggest you type your Assignments in Word, save them on your computer, and then cut and paste into the Assignments area on Canvas. You can save your work in the Assignment tool as a draft, if you are not ready to submit it yet, BUT you must remember to go back and click the submit button before the deadline or you will not be able to submit it at all. If you chose to submit your work as an attachment, make sure it is in MS Word, or a text file.

Take care to make sure your response all well-supported, and free of grammatical errors.

Discussions: A total of 6 Discussion submissions will be required for the course. Each Discussion will center on a topic question posed by the instructor, and will primarily ask for your opinion related to the question or to the responses of other students. *(PLO 1,2,3,4,5,6 , Collectively) – Your Discussion responses will be then be shared with the entire class

Your Discussion response will be graded on whether it is a well thought out response, that it is clear from your response that you did the reading, and that your opinion is based on evidence from your readings or a thoughtful response of another student's post.

You should respond when you have something to say and don't be afraid to engage in an argument, just remember that you need to be respectful to all students.

If any student uses inappropriate language or is disrespectful to another student, that student will lose points and need to have a personal conversation with the instructor.

Because actively reading and responding to the Discussions posted by your fellow students is essential, after the due date and time, the Discussion will be locked, and you will not be able to post a response. No exceptions will be made on these deadlines.

Theory Paper: 50 points: You will be researching a specific developmental theory of your choice- You are required to provide an overview of the main terms and concepts of your chosen theory- And you will be required to apply this theory to a provided scenario- The paper must be supported with at least 3 professional sources, and the sources and reference page are required to follow APA style.*(PLO 1,2,3,) Quizzes: There will be a short 5 point quiz for most of the Units that will be taken on your Canvas site. These quizzes are basic and intended to help you review the material and introduce you to the type of questions you will see in the exams. However, they may not be the exact questions in the exams. The quizzes will open near the beginning of the Unit and close on the due date of the Unit. Quizzes are not timed.

No late quizzes allowed. You can take as long as you want on the quizzes, but you can only submit it for grading once.

Exams: There will be 4 exams worth 30/35 points Exams will be closed book-study guides will be provided..

*The instructor reserves the right to create exams that will be taken/submitted outside of class, on Canvas- If so, the exams to be submitted on Canvas will be active for at least 2 days- Students may begin the exam anytime within the 2-day period. However, once the exam is started, it must be completed within the time allotted.

There will also be a take-home 'open-book', untimed exam covering the Chapters on the Middle Years- Students will have a week to submit the Test.

Exams will consist of a combination of short answers, longer essay question that will allow you to apply what you have learned – There may also be multiple-choice questions. But the focus of the test will be on your written application of what you learned.

*(Study groups are highly recommended and would help alleviate the isolation that sometimes occurs in an online course)

Out of Class Assignments: The Department of Education policy states that one (1) credit hour is the amount of student work that reasonably approximates not less than one hour of class time and two (2) hours of out-of-class time per week over the span of a semester. WASC has adopted a similar requirement.

It is strongly suggested that all work be saved as a file, such as a Word or Google Doc file.

Those students who plan to complete the Child Development majors please be mindful that in the CDEV 200 course, you will be required to create a portfolio of core assignments from each of your CDEV classes. So it is wise to save all your work

Course Grading Based on Course Objectives

Course Grading Based on Course Objectives

[Course Grade: The course grade is based on total points accumulated during the semester. . Grades are determined by dividing the total points you earn by the total points available (to get your percentage). I will use the grad-book on Canvas, but it is a good idea to keep your own records to compare with your instructor's records. The grade-book on Canvas my not always show the correct total.

There will be NO IVC campus meetings required for the course

There are no make-up exams, unless you have a very good reason and make arrangements with the instructor before the exam. All students must take the final exam or the course grade will be F.

Students are expected to do all course work outlined in each Lesson. The course work will consist of :

7 Discussions : Intro Discussion @ 2pts (+) 6 Discussions @ 5 points each =32 points 6

Assignments

Discussions: 6 at 3 points= 12 points

Mother Interview and application of concepts: 15 points

Milestone Projects: 15 points

Observation/ Conservation: 10 points

Learning Activity: 10 pts

Adolescent Reflection: 5 points

Application of Theory Assignment = 50 points

14 Unit Practice Quizzes @ 2 points = 28 points

1 Untimed Middle Years Exam = 5 points

4 In-class or on-Canvas application of knowledge Exams @ 30 points = 150 points

Total points possible = 260 total points

Grade Breakdown: A=90%-100%, B=80%-89%, C=70%-79%, D=60%-69%, F= 59% and below

Course Policies

Attendance

- A student who fails to attend the first meeting of a class or does not complete the first mandatory activity of an online class will be dropped by the instructor as of the first official meeting of that class. Should readmission be desired, the student's status will be the same as that of any other student who desires to add a class. It is the student's responsibility to drop or officially withdraw from the class. See General Catalog for details.
 - Regular attendance in all classes is expected of all students. A student whose continuous, unexcused absences exceed the number of hours the class is scheduled to meet per week may be dropped. For online courses, students who fail to complete required activities for two consecutive weeks may be considered to have excessive absences and may be dropped.
 - Absences attributed to the representation of the college at officially approved events (conferences, contests, and field trips) will be counted as 'excused' absences.
- For those students who do not maintain regular attendance, It is the responsibility of the student to drop themselves from the class by the official drop date. Failure to drop will result in a letter course grade being assigned to the student.

Online Netiquette

- What is netiquette? Netiquette is internet manners, online etiquette, and digital etiquette all rolled into one word. Basically, netiquette is a set of rules for behaving properly online.
- Students are to comply with the following rules of netiquette: (1) identify yourself, (2) include a subject line, (3) avoid sarcasm, (4) respect others' opinions and privacy, (5) acknowledge and return messages promptly, (6) copy with caution, (7) do not spam or junk mail, (8) be concise, (9) use appropriate language, (10) use appropriate emoticons (emotional icons) to help convey meaning, and (11) use appropriate intensifiers to help convey meaning [do not use ALL CAPS or multiple exclamation marks (!!!!)].

Academic Honesty

Academic honesty in the advancement of knowledge requires that all students and instructors respect the integrity of one another's work and recognize the important of acknowledging and safeguarding intellectual property.

There are many different forms of academic dishonesty. The following kinds of honesty violations and their definitions are not meant to be exhaustive. Rather, they are intended to serve as examples of unacceptable academic conduct.

- Plagiarism is taking and presenting as one's own the writings or ideas of others, without citing the source. You should understand the concept of plagiarism and keep it in mind when taking exams and preparing written materials. If you do not understand how to "cite a source" correctly, you must ask for help.
- Cheating is defined as fraud, deceit, or dishonesty in an academic assignment, or using or attempting to use materials, or assisting others in using materials that are prohibited or inappropriate in the context of the academic assignment in question.

Anyone caught cheating or plagiarizing will receive a zero (0) on the exam or assignment, and the instructor may report the incident to the Campus Disciplinary Officer, who may place related documentation in a file. Repeated acts of cheating may result in an F in the course and/or disciplinary action. Please refer to the General Catalog for more information on academic dishonesty or other misconduct. Acts of cheating include, but are not limited to, the following: (a) plagiarism; (b) copying or attempting to copy from others during an examination or on an assignment; (c) communicating test information with another person during an examination; (d) allowing others to do an assignment or portion of an assignment; (e) using a commercial term paper service.
