Course Description

ESL 891 is an integrated skills course designed for ESL students to continue the development of language skills at the high-beginning level. Students learn how to speak and write about personal and workplace topics, give presentations, and use the writing process. Students continue to develop reading skills, knowledge of vocabulary, grammatical competence, and overall language comprehension. The course may be taken concurrently with ESL 890. (CEFR A2) (Nontransferable, nondegree applicable)

Course Prerequisite(s) and/or Corequisite(s)

Completion of ESL 890 is encouraged.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon course completion, the successful student will have acquired new skills, knowledge, and or attitudes as demonstrated by being able to:

1. Speaking: Can initiate and respond to simple statements on very familiar topics.
2. Listening: Can identify basic facts in short, simple dialogues or narratives on familiar everyday topics, if spoken slowly and clearly.
3. Writing: Can write a paragraph on topic of personal interest.

Course Objectives

Upon satisfactory completion of the course, students will be able to:

1. Engage in conversations about familiar topics in the workplace and in the community.
2. Listen and understand materials at the high-beginning level on a variety of topics from various sources.
3. Provide short, basic descriptions of people, events, and personal workplace preparedness.
4. Write and edit sentences and paragraphs.
5. Use the writing process to plan and write a short paragraph on a topic of personal interest.
6. Use reading strategies to improve reading comprehension and speed.

- Students are to comply with the following rules of netiquette: (1) identify yourself, (2) include a subject line, (3) avoid sarcasm, (4) respect others' opinions and privacy, (5) acknowledge and return messages promptly, (6) copy with caution, (7) do not spam or junk mail, (8) be concise, (9) use appropriate language, (10) use appropriate emoticons (emotional icons) to help convey meaning, and (11) use appropriate intensifiers to help convey meaning [do not use ALL CAPS or multiple exclamation marks (!!!!)]

Other Course Information

Reading and Writing

Prepare for and Give a Presentation

Assignment: Present a 2 – 3 minute oral review of a movie. Use the language and vocabulary from assigned readings. Follow these steps:

1. Select a movie that you have seen recently or that you know well. Pick a movie that you think is either very good or one that you consider bad. If you have time, you can watch a movie again. Don't pick a movie you have never seen.
2. Write an email and send an email to the instructor with the title of your film. Each student will present on a different movie. If another student has already chosen your movie, you will have to select a different one.
3. Re-read the movie review. Look for language that is useful to describe your movie. Write down the words and phrases that you want to use.
4. Use Internet Movie Database www.imdb.com to research additional information about your film. Listen to examples of movie reviews on Canvas.
5. Prepare your presentation by writing out your script. Make sure to have the presentation reviewed by your teacher or a tutor.
6. Practice giving your presentation. Remember to that you want to present; you do not want to read.
7. Presentations will be on the last week of the semester.
