Course Requirements and Instructional Methods

- Speeches
Speeches presented in this class will account for most of your course grade. All speeches may be delivered with speaking notes. Some speeches will require audio, visual aids. All speeches require you to turn in an outline and work cited page. Please follow MLA formatting for these citations. You will be delivering several mandatory speeches during the course including:
  1. Self and Classmate Introductory Speeches (2 minutes each)

2. Present Fallacies in Advertisement or in Political Speeches (3-5 minutes)
3. Informative/Demonstrative Speech (5-7 minutes)
4. Persuasive Speech (6 - 8 minutes)

✓ You will be instructed on the details on these types of speeches at an appropriate time.

✓ You must present all major speeches and fallacy presentation in order to pass this course, regardless of your grade.

- Study Guides

In this course you will be assigned specific chapters for each of the 4 Modules from your textbook, The Art of Public Speaking. As you are reading, you will create a study guide for each Module (total of 4 study guides) which may include key term definitions for each assigned chapter, any concepts, and/ or comments on something you find interesting. These notes and definitions must include page numbers from the textbook. You may include quotes or anything else that will help you study for the final exam. You will turn these in the day of the final exam for a grade. These are your study guides; there is no required word or page limit.

- Quizzes

In this course, you will be quizzed on every assigned chapter from the course textbook. Quizzes may be a combination of true/false, multiple-choice, fill in the blanks, and short answer questions.

- Lectures:

1. Speech skills and practice
2. Ethical practices in speech composition and delivery
3. Organization
4. Use of supporting materials
5. Delivery
6. Introduction to rhetorical theory/persuasion
7. Methods of research
8. Reduction of communication apprehension
9. Listening
10. Topic selection
11. Analysis of diverse audiences
12. Evaluation and criticism of live and recorded speeches

- Out of Class Assignments: The Department of Education policy states that one (1) credit hour is the amount of student work that reasonably approximates not less than one hour of class time and two (2) hours of out-of-class time per week over the span of a semester. WASC has adopted a similar requirement.

Course Grading Based on Course Objectives

In this course, you will be evaluated on:

- How well you deliver your speeches
- How clearly organized and well-written your outlines are
- Speech content analysis
- How well you cite evidence from your research in your outlines and when presenting
- How effectively you use your visual aids
- Quizzes and Final Exam on chapter readings and study guides
- Homework, attendance, and participation

Attendance

Course Policies

- A student who fails to attend the first meeting of a class or does not complete the first mandatory activity of an online class will be dropped by the instructor as of the first official meeting of that class. Should readmission be desired, the student's status will be the same as that of any other student who desires to add a class. It is the student's responsibility to drop or officially withdraw from the class. See General Catalog for details.
- There are no acceptable "excused absences." It is your responsibility to schedule personal appointments so that they do not interfere with this class. Regular attendance in all classes is expected of all students. A student whose continuous, unexcused absences exceed the number of hours the class is scheduled to meet per week may be dropped. More than three (3) absences will get you dropped from this class. For online courses, students who fail to complete required activities for two consecutive weeks may be considered to have excessive absences and may be dropped.
- Attendance is mandatory for scheduled presentation days.

Classroom Etiquette

- Absences attributed to the representation of the college at officially approved events (conferences, contests, and field trips) will be counted as 'excused' absences.
- When attending class, please demonstrate respect for the speaker(s).
  - Do not distract or interrupt the speaker when delivering a speech by talking with other students.
  - Do not enter or leave the classroom on days when we will be presenting speeches. If you are late on delivery days, please come in quietly and quickly.
  - Always show respect and give your full attention to the speaker. Remember that a very important part of this class is to demonstrate your ability to listen responsibly.
- Electronic Devices: Cell phones and electronic devices must be turned off and put away during class unless otherwise directed by the instructor.
- Food and Drink are prohibited in all classrooms. Water bottles with lids/caps are the only exception. Additional restrictions will apply in labs. Please comply as directed by the instructor.
- Disruptive Students: Students who disrupt or interfere with a class may be sent out of the room and told to meet with the Campus Disciplinary Officer before returning to continue with coursework. Disciplinary procedures will be followed as outlined in the General Catalog.

Online Netiquette

- Children in the classroom: Due to college rules and state laws, only students enrolled in the class may attend; children are not allowed.

IMPERIAL VALLEY COLLEGE

Alma Castro-COMM 100-10582- Fall 2022

- What is netiquette? Netiquette is internet manners, online etiquette, and digital etiquette all rolled into one word. Basically, netiquette is a set of rules for behaving properly online.
- Students are to comply with the following rules of netiquette: (1) identify yourself, (2) include a subject line, (3) avoid sarcasm, (4) respect others' opinions and privacy, (5) acknowledge and return messages promptly, (6) copy with caution, (7) do not spam or junk mail, (8) be concise, (9) use appropriate language, (10) use appropriate emoticons (emotional icons) to help convey meaning, and (11) use appropriate intensifiers to help convey meaning [do not use ALL CAPS or multiple exclamation marks (!!!!)].

Academic Honesty

Academic honesty in the advancement of knowledge requires that all students and instructors respect the integrity of one another's work and recognize the important of acknowledging and safeguarding intellectual property.

There are many different forms of academic dishonesty. The following kinds of honesty violations and their definitions are not meant to be exhaustive. Rather, they are intended to serve as examples of unacceptable academic conduct.

- Plagiarism is taking and presenting as one's own, the writings or ideas of others, without citing the source. You should understand the concept of plagiarism and keep it in mind when taking exams and preparing written materials. If you do not understand how to "cite a source" correctly, you must ask for help.
- Cheating is defined as fraud, deceit, or dishonesty in an academic assignment, or using or attempting to use materials, or assisting others in using materials that are prohibited or inappropriate in the context of the academic assignment in question.

Anyone caught cheating or plagiarizing will receive a zero (0) on the exam or assignment, and the instructor may report the incident to the Campus Disciplinary Officer, who may place related documentation in a file. Repeated acts of cheating may result in an F in the course and/or disciplinary action. Please refer to the General Catalog for more information on academic dishonesty or other misconduct. Acts of cheating include, but are not limited to, the following: (a) plagiarism; (b) copying or attempting to copy from others during an examination or on an assignment; (c) communicating test information with another person during an examination; (d) allowing others to do an assignment or portion of an assignment; (e) using a commercial term paper service.
