Welcome to ESL 023! I am here to help you succeed in my class. Please ask questions!

Course Description

ESL 023 is a designed to assist intermediate ESL students in developing reading skills and reading efficiency in English. Focus will be placed on understanding text structure and overall comprehension of texts. Further development of reading skills will also be emphasized.

In a face-to-face class, course activity occurs at IVC. The course meetings occur on Fridays from 8 am - 11:10 am. We will still use Canvas to enhance the class outside of the face-to-face meetings, such as by posting documents, discussions, and announcements.

Course Prerequisite(s) and/or Corequisite(s)

ESL 003 or appropriate placement.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon course completion, the successful student will have acquired new skills, knowledge, and or attitudes as demonstrated by being able to:

1. Analyze a reading to identify the topic and main idea, and to distinguish between major and minor details (SLO 1).
2. Use vocabulary to determine the rhetorical mode of a reading (SLO 2).
3. Apply knowledge of usage of an English-only dictionary to aid in reading comprehension. (SLO 3)

Course Objectives

Upon satisfactory completion of the course, students will be able to:

1. Demonstrate ability to use reading skills such as skimming, scanning, vocabulary in context, making inferences, previewing and making predictions to aid in overall comprehension.
2. Demonstrate ability to identify topics of readings.
3. Demonstrate ability to identify explicit and implicit main ideas, and major/minor supporting details.
4. Identify text structures – listing, time order, comparison/contrast, cause/effect – for the purpose of drawing a conclusion.
5. Demonstrate competency to interpret charts and graphs.
6. Demonstrate ability to choose a book of an appropriate level, read independently and provide supporting documentation of such, such a reading log and report.
7. Correctly use an English-only dictionary to locate and decode words, identify parts of speech and antonyms and synonyms in order to understand texts.

Course Policies

Communication Policy:

- Communicate with me via Canvas Inbox, which is my preferred method of contact. I will get back to you within 24 hours during the weekdays and within 48 hours during the weekend.
- Refrain from sending me messages via Pronto or emails from your personal email account as I won't be checking either of them.
- This class aims to help you develop your English skills; therefore, you are expected to communicate in English only at all times (spoken and written communication).
- Speak with me if you are facing a problem, remember that I'm here to help you! If you have any questions, reach out!

Late Work Policy:

- Late assignments will be accepted but with a penalty (10% will be deducted for every day your assignment is late). You will have one week to submit your late work.
- MyEnglishLab assignments will not be accepted late.
- If you can't submit an assignment/take a quiz due to a tech problem, take a screenshot of the message that you get on your computer and email it to me along with a brief explanation of the problem.

Academic Honesty Policy

- Plagiarism is taking and presenting as one's own the writings or ideas of others, without citing the source. You should understand the concept of plagiarism and keep it in mind when taking exams and preparing written materials. If you do not understand how to "cite a source" correctly, you must ask for help.
- Cheating is defined as fraud, deceit, or dishonesty in an academic assignment, or using or attempting to use materials, or assisting others in using materials that are prohibited or inappropriate in the context of the academic assignment in question.

Anyone caught cheating or plagiarizing will receive a zero (0) on the exam or assignment, and the instructor may report the incident to the Campus Disciplinary Officer, who may place related documentation in a file. Repeated acts of cheating may result in an F in the course and/or disciplinary action. Please refer to the General Catalog for more information on academic dishonesty or other misconduct. Acts of cheating include, but are not limited to, the following: (a) plagiarism; (b) copying or attempting to copy from others during an examination or on an assignment; (c) communicating test information with another person during an examination; (d) allowing others to do an assignment or portion of an assignment; (e) using a commercial term paper service.

Examples of Academic Dishonesty that can occur in an online environment:

- Copying from others on a quiz, test, examination, or assignment;
- Allowing someone else to copy your answers on a quiz, test, exam, or assignment;
- Having someone else take an exam or quiz for you;
- Conferring with others during a test or quiz (if the instructor didn't explicitly say it was a group project, then he/she expects you to do the work without conferring with others);
- Buying or using a term paper or research paper from an internet source or other company or taking any work of another, even with permission, and presenting the work as your own;
- Excessive revising or editing by others that substantially alters your final work;
- Sharing information that allows other students an advantage on an exam (such as telling a peer what to expect on a make-up exam or prepping a student for a test in another section of the same class);
- Taking and using the words, work, or ideas of others and presenting any of these as your own work is plagiarism. This applies to all work generated by another, whether it be oral, written, or artistic work. Plagiarism may either be deliberate or unintentional.

Dropping/Withdrawal Policy:

- A student who fails to complete the first mandatory assignment will be dropped. Should readmission be desired, the student's status will be the same as that of any other student who desires to add a class.
- It is the student's responsibility to drop or officially withdraw from the class. See General Catalog for details.
- Regular attendance in all classes is expected of all students. A student whose continuous, unexcused absences exceed the number of hours the class is scheduled to meet per week may be dropped. For online courses, students who fail to complete required activities for two consecutive weeks may be considered to have excessive absences and may be dropped. Absences attributed to the representation of the college at officially approved events (conferences, contests and field trips) will be counted as 'excused' absences.
