1. Course Requirements and Instructional Methods

2. This course is an online course. There are no class meetings. you will have a week to complete each module.
3. Each Unit is contained in Modules in Canvas.
4. A module is similar to a Unit or Chapter in a textbook. Every Module on Canvas will include class online discussions, readings, audios (such as videos) , and written work that consists of editing, responding to readings, other exercises focusing on sentence structure and form, as well as grammar and mechanics .
5. Modules Open: Saturday Modules Close: Friday 5:00 pm
6. Out of Class Assignments: The Department of Education policy states that one (1) credit hour is the amount of student work that reasonably approximates not less than one hour of class time and two (2) hours of out-of-class time per week over the span of a semester. WASC has adopted a similar requirement.
7. Internet access: Homework or other information will be posted on the class Canvas site. To get the information, you need to have internet access. If you do not have a computer or internet access at home, you can use the computers at school. Computers are located in the library ○ Library hours M-Th 8:00-8:00 F 8:00-5:00. Another option is the lab in room 2600 M-F 9:00-4:00
8. What if I need to borrow technology or access to WIFI? If you would like to borrow a laptop or wifi device, please fill out the following form: <https://forms.imperial.edu/view.php?id=565744> If you do not hear about after a week, please go directly to 3600 and tell them you are a walk in. Someone will assist you! You can also go to the IVC library to drop in and use a computer

This semester we will use the online textbook: Français interactif. This text offers a unique beginning French program developed at the University of Texas. Français interactif helps you explore the French language and culture by following the lives of real UT students who participated in the UT Summer Program in Lyon, France. The UT students will introduce you to their French host families, their French university, and their lives in France. Keep in mind as you watch these students that they were in your position only a year ago--enrolled in beginning French at UT! This program shows you that it IS possible to learn French well enough to communicate with native speakers.

In addition to following the exploits of these UT students, you will also watch videos of native French speakers as well as scenes of day-to-day interactions (e.g., vendors in the market, waiters at a café, children getting ready to go to school, etc.) These video-based materials give Français interactif an authenticity and immediacy lacking in most commercially produced textbooks.

As its name implies, Français interactif emphasizes interaction: student/teacher, student/student, student/computer, and even student/native-speaker. The goal of these materials is in its title: interaction in French! You can print out individual chapters in the text or access it electronically via the PDF version. Chapter 00-5 will be used in French 100. All audio and video material will be available online and will be downloadable in MP3 file format either through the Canvas course or directly from the <http://www.laits.utexas.edu/fi> website.

As we want to develop our speaking skills as much as possible, I want to give you individual attention to help identify your strengths and improve on targeted areas of pronunciation. Therefore, you will be required to submit online homework assignments that require you to include a video of yourself as you say/pronounce the targeted information. It is necessary for me to see your face as I need to see the position and movement of your mouth as you pronounce the words! I will not share these weekly assignment videos with anyone without your permission!!! However, you MUST record a video that includes your face in order to get credit for the assignment.

Group work: It is impossible to learn another language and not talk to another person!! Therefore, this semester you will be doing several types of speaking assignments! First will be 3 15 min conversations with a native French speaker! We will prepare for each of the conversations by preparing questions and practicing responding to questions. The professor will not participate in these conversations, but will listen to the conversation to assign a grade. The second type of oral assignment is weekly oral assignments with a group of students from class. With your group, you will record a weekly conversation that must include everyone's face. Although this is a group assignment, each person is responsible for uploading the video (which you will record on Pronto) to submit the assignment. For these group assignments, half credit will come from participating equally with group members. If you appear in the video but do not participate or contribute, you will not earn credit for participating. The other half of credit comes from how well you complete the assignment requirements as outlined in the assignment prompt.

Chapter tests and the final test will be taken online and will use the Honorlock program which will record you as you take the exam. It is important to note that the video recording is not kept for future use but is erased once I have graded the test.

Course Grading Based on Course Objectives

| Category  | Percentage |
|---|------------|
| Homework Assignments (including writing, conversation, listening, pronunciation, and reading assignments) | 25%        |
| Discussions   | 5%         |
| TalkAbroad Conversations (3 @15 min) 5% each  | 15%        |
| Chapter Projects (Chapters 1, 3, 5) 5 % each  | 15%        |
| Chapter Exams (Chapters 1, 2, 4, ) 10% each   | 30%        |

|                                 |     |
|---------------------------------|-----|
| Oral Mid-term and final 5% each | 10% |

Total 100% 90-100%= A 80-89% = B 70-79% = C 60-69% = D Below 59% =F Extra Credit: The week after each of the three chapter exams, there will be an optional review session to review the exam. Attendance of this session and completion of tailored assignment packet (based on the areas you need help as demonstrated on exam) = maximum of 5% extra credit on exam score.

Course Policies

Attendance: First Day of Class A student who fails to attend the first meeting of a class or does not complete the first mandatory activity of an online class will be dropped by the instructor as of the first official meeting of that class. Should readmission be desired, the student’s status will be the same as that • A student who fails to attend the first meeting of a class or does not complete the first mandatory activity of an online class will be dropped by the instructor as of the first official meeting of that class. Should readmission be desired, the student’s status will be the same as that of any other student who desires to add a class. It is the student’s responsibility to drop or officially withdraw from the class. See General Catalog for details.

- Regular attendance in all classes is expected of all students. A student whose continuous, unexcused absences exceed the number of hours the class is scheduled to meet per week may be dropped. For online courses, students who fail to complete required activities for two consecutive weeks may be considered to have excessive absences and may be dropped.
- Absences attributed to the representation of the college at officially approved events (conferences, contests, and field trips) will be counted as ‘excused’ absences. What does it mean to “attend” an online class? Attendance is critical to student success and for IVC to use federal aid funds. Logging onto Canvas alone is NOT adequate to demonstrate academic attendance by the student.
- Any student who does not complete the orientation unit or take at least one practice quiz by the end of the first day of class will be dropped.
- Regular participation is required. Participation includes: Posting and responding in weekly discussions; o Completing weekly work on Canvas; o Submitting your work on time; • If there is a problem with completing your work (such as being in the hospital or being sick), please let me know. I am willing to help you, but you need to make sure you communicate with me. Participation: To ensure your success, plan to participate in all class activities! There are many ways that we can participate, collaborate, and share ideas in an online environment.

Here are a few: • Contribute and share ideas in group discussion boards. • Attend virtual office hours to ask questions when you do not understand something. • Reading information from the instructor as well as classmates. • Be prepared and complete homework before due dates. • Turning in assignments, quizzes, homework on-time

What happens if I don’t participate? You may be dropped if you are no longer actively participating in the course, logging into Canvas, and engaging in course material. Active participation includes logging into Canvas and engaging with course content, completing and turning in homework, assignments, and quizzes. If you are unable to log into Canvas for a long period, it is your responsibility to find out everything you missed. If you have a personal problem or issue, please communicate with me and let me know what’s going on before too much time has passed.

Exams: If you are absent on the day of the exam, you have 1 week to make up the exam. For example, if you are absent on Monday, the day of the exam, you will have to take the exam by Friday before next Monday’s class. It is not possible to take the exam the following Monday as exams will be returned this day. It is your responsibility to schedule a time to take the exam prior to the last day. Late homework will not be accepted unless by previous arrangement with professor. If you have an unavoidable emergency, please communicate with the professor as soon as you are able. Face to face or via email are preferred methods of communication.

Out of Class Assignments: The Department of Education policy states that one (1) credit hour is the amount of student work that reasonable approximates not less than one hour of class time and two (2) hours of out-of class time per week over the span of a semester. WASC has adopted a similar requirement.

Other Course Information

This semester we are fortunate to have embedded tutors. It is advised that you use the help offered by the embedded tutors. They offer hours online as well as in person. Please refer to the canvas page on Our French Tutors to get more information about hours and locations.

Language Learning Outcomes for French 100 There is a distinction between Performance and Proficiency in a language. Performance is a level of mastery as demonstrated in a controlled situation, such as a semi-scripted conversation or an exam. Proficiency is the ability to use language in a spontaneous interaction and non-rehearsed context, and in a manner acceptable and appropriate to native speakers of the language. The following Students Learning Outcomes are based on the American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages (ACTFL) Skill Level descriptions. The student who completes this course with a B or better will be able to: 1. SPEAK at a performance level equal to Novice High. Begin to create with language using simple sentences. Attempt to express own meaning. Maintain simple conversations on familiar topics. Ask and answer most basic questions. In some contexts, language may still be mostly memorized words and phrases. 2. LISTEN at a performance level equal to Novice High. Understand words and phrases from questions, statements, high-frequency commands and formulaic expressions. Comprehend sentence-level speech in basic personal and social contexts where there is extralingual support. 3. READ at a performance level equal to Intermediate Low. Identify the main ideas of appropriate texts, when the topic is familiar. Infer meaning of unfamiliar words and phrases, though not all may be accurate. 4. WRITE at a performance level equal to Novice High. Begin to create with language using simple sentences. Attempt to express own meaning while focusing on successful task completion. In some contexts still uses memorized words and phrases. Vocabulary conveys basic meaning. 5. DEMONSTRATE CULTURAL KNOWLEDGE. Gain knowledge of and sensitivity to the political, historical, social, philosophical and economic underpinnings of the language's culture(s), including elements such as geography, history, literature and the arts, ethnicities, customs, philosophies and values. 6. PRACTICE CULTURAL SENSITIVITY. Use language to reflect authentic cultural practices and perspectives in a limited way. Begin to be aware of the value of the differences between U.S. culture and the language culture(s)
