Course Requirements and Instructional Methods

The instructor will generally be teaching with a voice-off approach. At times, there will be spoken lectures. This will increase your receptive and expressive comprehension, as you will be expected to respond and converse in ASL. You will participate in a variety of online class exercises designed to increase both your receptive and expressive skills. New vocabulary will be introduced weekly and applied through a variety of exercises. Students will learn grammatical structures weekly as units in the book are completed. ASL assignments will require to be done in Canvas (online). Clear instructions will be given by the instructor to produce successful assignments. Students will sign with instructor through video submissions/uploads. One-on-one Zoom conversational assessment meetings will be announced throughout the semester. During lecture, students will be given specific exercises and instructions to focus on improving their signing skills. All presentations will be signed (do not voice or whisper when signing). You must practice offline. Canvas Online Assignments: The Department of Education policy states that one

(1) credit hour is the amount of student work that reasonably approximates not less than one hour of class time and two

Other Class Information

Class will be conducted in person Mondays and Wednesdays in room 806 from 1pm to 3:30pm. There will be a 15-minute break in between.

Classes will be conducted with a Voice-Off approach, meaning that at the beginning of each class, students will not be able to talk and therefore learn through their eyes, not their ears. Once the Voice-Off lesson is over, students and instructor will be able to talk. The Voice-Off lesson will be permitted throughout the class daily.

We will be introducing new vocabulary weekly, and then applying it through a variety of exercises. You MUST practice outside of class. We will also be learning new grammatical structures weekly as we go through. There will be presentations as well as signing individually with the instructor, in partners in front of the class and in small groups.

Besides learning in class, I will upload weekly videos to Canvas on Modules, mostly Mondays. You will have the opportunity to watch the video lessons taught that week in case you were absent. If you plan to be absent, you MUST email me explaining why you will not attend class.

American Sign Language level 1 (AMSL 100) focuses on Units 1-12. It's crucial for you to have your book in class at all times.

Furthermore, ASL is a visual language and you MUST pay attention at all times during class. Cellular devices are not permitted on desks and if needed, you have to inform the instructor to give you permission.

You must check every week on Canvas Modules for videos and watch them as many times as you want before taking the Quiz for that unit. You're responsible for watching the video lessons on your own time.

All Quizzes and/or Assignments are due Sundays before midnight. There will be an opportunity to have the quizzes in class. Every other week, quizzes will be online and we will switch.

You must email me if you have any questions or concerns. If you wish to review any signs and/or lessons.
