Class Dates:	Aug. 14-Dec. 9, 2023
Units:	4
Class Format:	online	Office Phone #:	(760) 355-6518

Course Description

The standard course in freshman English. The course seeks to improve the student's ability to understand serious and complex prose and to improve the student's ability to write an exposition that is thoughtful and clear, including the production of a well-documented research paper. Limitation on Enrollment: Course not open to students with a C or higher in English 105. (CSU/UC)

Course Prerequisite(s) and/or Corequisite(s)

ENGL 009 or

ENGL 010 with a grade of "C" or better or appropriate placement.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon course completion, the successful student will have acquired new skills, knowledge, and or attitudes as demonstrated by being able to:

- 1. Compose college-level essays that contain clear thesis statements, effective support, and unified organization. (ILO1, ILO2, ILO4)
- 2. Synthesize information from multiple sources to produce a research paper that is formatted and documented according to MLA guidelines. (ILO1, ILO2, ILO4, ILO5)
- 3. Demonstrate an ability to comprehend and interpret a variety of college-level texts, including complex arguments and at least one fulllength novel, play, or non-fiction book, without relying on outside sources for assistance (ILO1, ILO2, ILO3, ILO4)

Course Objectives

Upon satisfactory completion of the course, students will be able to:

- 1. Write multiple essays—including one research paper and one final exam—that, together, add up to 6,000 words of formal writing
- 2. Demonstrate a command of the writing process, which may include pre-writing, drafting, revising, self-editing, peer group editing, and proofreading
- 3. Compose error-free essays that avoid sentence-level and grammar problems
- 4. Compose unified essays that include support for the thesis statement, clear development, and effective transitions
- 5. Demonstrate a command of writing patterns by effectively integrating various rhetorical modes, such as compare/contrast, definition, cause/effect, and argumentation together to produce sophisticated, college-level essays as appropriate
- 6. Demonstrate an ability to adapt writing strategies to the requirements of the writing situation (e.g. in-class writing, research writing, reflective writing) or to tailor a written assignment to address specific audiences (both general and academic)
- 7. Demonstrate a thorough understanding of research strategies and library skills (including electronic databases) to identify and evaluate resources for a research paper
- 8. Synthesize information from multiple sources to produce a research paper that is formatted and documented according to MLA guidelines
- 9. Demonstrate a command of rules regarding plagiarism and academic ethics
- 10. Read actively, using metacognitive strategies to monitor comprehension, build vocabulary, and improve analysis of college-level texts
- 11. Analyze the rhetorical context when reading by identifying genre, medium, purpose, audience and tone
- 12. Analyze and evaluate the strategies an author uses to make and support a claim, including the use of fallacies
- 13. Synthesize knowledge by relating texts to personal experience, to past and present events, and to other texts

Textbooks & Other Resources or Links

REQUIRED TEXTS:

- Fahrenheit 451 by Ray Bradbury
  - $\circ \quad \text{ PDF is also provided on Canvas}$
    - However, if a printed text is preferred, this is the book I'm using: Fahrenheit 451 -- 60th Anniversary Edition
  - Other readings will be provided through Canvas, either in PDF document or website link
- MLA style handbook (those listed below are the books and website I use):
  - MLA Handbook 9th Edition OR
  - o Pocket Style Manual (9th edition) by Diane Hacker and Nancy Sommers OR
  - o The OWL: Purdue Online Writing Lab https://owl.purdue.edu/owl/purdue_owl.html
- Good college level dictionary; updated within last few years; contains around 70-75,000 entries, biographical info, word histories, and grammar assistance (print, online, phone app)

Course Requirements and Instructional Methods

The semester begins on Monday, August 14, 2023 and will end on Saturday, December 4, 2023. WEEK 1 assignments start Monday, August 14, 2023.

- I use a modified work week: each new week begins on Tuesday mornings at 12:00 am and ends the following Monday night at 11:59 pm.
  - WEEK 1 starts on Monday, August 14, 2023 (first day of ALL classes) and ends on Monday, August 21, 2023, 11:59 pm;
  - WEEK 2 starts TUESDAY, August 22, 2023, 12:00 am and ends Monday, August 28, 2023, 11:59 pm;
  - WEEK 3 starts TUESDAY, August 29, 2023, 12:00 am and ends Monday, September 4, 2023, 11:59 pm;
  - And so on--the rest of the semester will follow this pattern.
- Assignments will open on Tuesdays at 12:00 am and are due by the next Monday at 11:59 pm.
  - You do not have to immediately begin and end at the start and end days and times, nor do you have to wait to submit until the end of the work week.
  - You may do any kind of work at any time during the assigned week; there are specific dates and times for many items. Pay close attention to explanations and due dates.
  - o If there is any modification to the due date and time, these instructions will be clearly explained within the assignments.

CLASS SET UP

This is not a self-paced course—each week is accessible only at it's appropriate time frame.

There are six UNITs throughout the 16 weeks of the semester (Spring Break does not count as a school week); each unit is broken down into 1-4 weeks, depending on the focus of the UNIT. Each week typically has two assignments: a small group or whole-class discussion and a writing assignment that builds a piece of the semester project Final Draft. Additionally, there are tutoring reviews required every two weeks, and there are a few surveys scattered throughout the semester. Most of the writing assignments will be available beyond their prospective due dates; the discussions will close at the end of the week and tutoring reviews will close at the end of each two-week period; surveys may have slightly different date ranges and will close at the end of that time frame.

UNITs Assignments

- The PROJECT PREPARATION UNIT covers the first two weeks of school, Weeks 1-2: you will be required to read the entire novel Fahrenheit 451 Links to an external site. by Ray Bradbury and pass a reading quiz on the novel in order to begin UNIT 1.
   Begin reading the class version the novel in PDF format by clicking the title above.
- UNIT 1: PREWRITING covers Wks 3-5: you will complete assignments that focus on brainstorming and outlining. At the end of the unit, you will submit a Portfolio.
- UNIT 2: DRAFTING covers Wks 6-9: you will complete assignments that build to the first rough draft; these assignments focus on the parts of the essay: the Body Section, the Introduction and Conclusion paragraphs, and the Works Cited and MLA format. At the end of the unit, you will submit Rough Draft 1.
- UNIT 3: REVISING covers Wks 10-13: you will complete assignments that revise the first rough draft; these assignments also focus on the same three parts as the drafting unit: the Intro and Conclusion, Body, and WC and MLA format. At the end of the unit, you will submit Rough Draft 2.

- UNIT 4: EDITING covers Wk 14: you will complete an assignment that edits the second rough draft into the Final Draft. At the end of the unit, you will submit the Final Draft.
- UNIT 5: EVALUATION covers the last two weeks of the semester, Wks 15-16: you will complete a self-evaluation of your Final Draft. At the end of the unit, you will submit the self-evaluation rubric and explanation of the Final Draft. This self-evaluation assignment is your class final.

Discussions

- There is an Introduce Yourself discussion in Week 1 that must be submitted to ensure your place in the class.
- In Weeks 2-12, there is one discussion per week, for a total of 11 discussions.
  - These are brainstorming and drafting exercises that can be used to gain perspectives from other classmates and group members.
  - Discussions must meet minimum requirements to receive full credit (rubric posted on each discussion), but they are not formal writings--they are designed to allow you to share ideas, questions, and information among classmates.
  - Discussions close at the end of each week and cannot be accessed after the due date, nor can they be made up.

Surveys/quizzes

- Scattered throughout the semester are a few surveys and/or quizzes.
  - There is an Course Orientation survey in Week 1 that must be submitted to ensure your place in the class.
  - There is a required reading quiz in Week 2 to ensure that you are ready to begin the project. This quiz requires a 70% pass rate and can be taken multiple times until passed; but, it must be submitted before moving on to UNIT 1.
  - There are a few other surveys through the semester that are just to gauge understanding of the setup of the course.

Tutoring Review Sessions

- These are continuous, on-going reviews, beginning in Week 2 and ending in Week 15. Every two weeks, you are required to show proof of having attended ONE review (every 14 days, you have to show that you did a review on ONE of those days), for a total of 7 reviews by the end of the semester. Week 1 and Week 16 are not included.
  - There are multiple tutoring options and all can be completed online.
  - More than one review per two weeks can be completed, but a review cannot be used for another two-week time period.
  - TRS must be submitted within the two-week period and cannot be made up.

Course Grading Based on Course Objectives

Grade Breakdown with Percentages: Standard A-F (100%-0%) grading scale

Surveys	5%	UNIT 4: EDITING	5%
Discussions	10%	UNIT 5: EVALUATION	25%
Tutoring Reviews	15%	TOTAL	100%
UNIT 1: PREWRITING	10%
UNIT 2: DRAFTING	15%
UNIT 3: REVISING	15%

LATE WORK:

- UNIT Assignments: There are no penalties for submitting the weekly assignments late; if you need an extra day or two, or fall behind, you have built-in time to get the work submitted and there are no points taken off for late submission*. HOWEVER, the last assignment for each UNIT (stated above) is required to be submitted before moving on to the next UNIT; so, while there is no penalty for late submissions, there will be an effect on the timeliness of future assignments and discussions.
  - Assignments have CLOSING DATES; check the "Until" date near the bottom of each assignment explanation to know how long you have to submit an assignment late. After the closing date, you cannot submit.
  - *If the assignment DOES NOT MEET THE REQUIREMENTS, then, points are taken off. For a late submission, a redo may not be offered.
  - If an assignment is submitted on time and there is a problem with what was submitted, I may offer the option to redo and resubmit; the resubmitted assignment is not considered late, but if it fails to meet requirements the second time, it will not be given another option to redo.
  - Discussions: As stated above, discussions are required weekly and close at the end of the week. These CANNOT be made up as they require interacting with group or class members to complete.
  - Tutoring Review Sessions: Also as stated above, these are on-going reviews; there are no make-ups if a submission is not made in time.

Academic Honesty (Artificial Intelligence--AI)

ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE (AI)

IVC values critical thinking and communication skills and considers academic integrity essential to learning. Using AI tools as a replacement for your own thinking, writing, or quantitative reasoning goes against both our mission and academic honesty policy and will be considered academic dishonesty, or plagiarism unless you have been instructed to do so by your instructor. In case of any uncertainty regarding the ethical use of AI tools, students are encouraged to reach out to their instructors for clarification.

ACADEMIC HONESTY

Academic honesty in the advancement of knowledge requires that all students and instructors respect the integrity of one another's work and recognize the important of acknowledging and safeguarding intellectual property.

There are many different forms of academic dishonesty. The following kinds of honesty violations and their definitions are not meant to be exhaustive. Rather, they are intended to serve as examples of unacceptable academic conduct.

- Plagiarism is taking and presenting as one's own the writings or ideas of others, without citing the source. You should understand the concept of plagiarism and keep it in mind when taking exams and preparing written materials. If you do not understand how to "cite a source" correctly, you must ask for help.
- Cheating is defined as fraud, deceit, or dishonesty in an academic assignment, or using or attempting to use materials, or assisting others in using materials that are prohibited or inappropriate in the context of the academic assignment in question.

Anyone caught cheating or plagiarizing will receive a zero (0) on the exam or assignment, and the instructor may report the incident to the Campus Disciplinary Officer, who may place related documentation in a file. Repeated acts of cheating may result in an F in the course and/or disciplinary action. Please refer to the General Catalog for more information on academic dishonesty or other misconduct. Acts of cheating include, but are not limited to, the following: (a) plagiarism; (b) copying or attempting to copy from others during an examination or on an assignment; (c) communicating test information with another person during an examination; (d) allowing others to do an assignment or portion of an assignment; (e) using a commercial term paper service.

How do I show academic honesty and integrity in an online "classroom"?

- KEEP YOUR PASSWORDS CONFIDENTIAL.
  - You have a unique password to access online software like Canvas. Never allow someone else to log-in to your account.
- COMPLETE YOUR OWN COURSEWORK.
  - When you register for an online class and log-in to Canvas, you do so with the understanding that you will produce your own work, take your own exams, and will do so without the assistance of others (unless directed by the instructor).

Examples of Academic Dishonesty that can occur in an online environment:

- Copying from others on a quiz, test, examination, or assignment;
- Allowing someone else to copy your answers on a quiz, test, exam, or assignment;
- Having someone else take an exam or quiz for you;
- Conferring with others during a test or quiz (if the instructor didn't explicitly say it was a group project, then he/she expects you to do the work without conferring with others);
- Buying or using a term paper or research paper from an internet source or other company or taking any work of another, even with permission, and presenting the work as your own;
- Excessive revising or editing by others that substantially alters your final work;
- Sharing information that allows other students an advantage on an exam (such as telling a peer what to expect on a make-up exam or prepping a student for a test in another section of the same class);
- Taking and using the words, work, or ideas of others and presenting any of these as your own work is plagiarism. This applies to all work generated by another, whether it be oral, written, or artistic work. Plagiarism may either be deliberate or unintentional.
