Course Description

This course examines cultural achievements and aesthetic developments, ethical values, intellectual history, and the influence of philosophical orientations of native and Mestizo Spanish-speaking peoples of North America. This includes how Chicanas and Chicanos—and other Latinos—have adapted to the various cultural elements of U.S. society compared to other groups. This course tracks racial formation by studying cultural production, consumption, and contestation. (CSU/UC)

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon course completion, the successful student will have acquired new skills, knowledge, and or attitudes as demonstrated by being able to:

1. Describe elements that make up the culture and how they apply to the Chicano cultural experience, using appropriate terminology and theoretical frameworks.
2. Use academic library sources to research a Chicana/o-related topic to write an essay, deliver an oral presentation, or develop a group project. Students will be able to apply the MLA format or another formal citation system.
3. Deliver a short presentation following specific guidelines on a Chicana/o-related topic.
4. Compare and contrast aspects of Chicana/o culture to that of other groups in the United States and/or the world.
5. Cooperate with other fellow students in developing a cultural community event.

Course Objectives

1. Describe and examine the influence of cultural processes and practices that shape the Chicano family structure comprising role-playing, gender roles, and attitudes toward race and color.
2. Examine and analyze cultural assimilation, acculturation, transculturation, and hybridity as it relates to Chicana/o cultural identity.
3. Describe and analyze the dynamics of Chicana/o folk culture in a globalized society.
4. Interpret and develop an understanding of the cultural contributions of Chicanas/os and Mexicanas/os to mainstream American culture.
5. Analyze and articulate concepts that are foundational to the field of ethnic studies, including but not limited to, race, racism, racialization, anti-racism, ethnicity and culture, settler colonialism, decolonization, equity, imperialism, power, liberation, sovereignty, self-determination, Eurocentrism, insurgent knowledges, and white supremacy.
6. Examine from an interdisciplinary perspective, the history, culture, and/or lived experiences from Chicanos/Chicanas/Latinx.
7. Explain how Chicano/Chicana/Chicanx/Latinx communities use different forms of resistance and culture affirmation for community engagement and the advancement of anti-racism and decolonialization.
8. Critically analyze how race and racism intersects with ethnicity, class, gender, sexuality, religion, spirituality, national origin, immigration status, tribal citizenship, sovereignty, language and/or age to shape life chances and social relationships in Chicano/Latinx communities.
9. Engage social and academic practices originating in Chicano/Chicana/Latinx communities to work toward building a more inclusive, anti-racist, decolonial, and equitable society beyond the classroom.
10. Apply theory and knowledge produced by Chicano/Chicana/Latinx communities to describe the critical events, histories, cultures, intellectual traditions, contributions, lived-experiences and social struggles of those groups with a particular emphasis on agency and group-affirmation.
11. Critically review how struggle, resistance, racial and social justice, solidarity, and liberation, as experienced and enacted by Chicano/Latinx communities are relevant to current and structural issues such as communal, national, international, and transnational politics as, for example, in immigration, settler colonialism, multiculturalism, language policies.
12. Demonstrate engagement with anti-racist and anti-colonial issues and the practices and movements in Chicana/Chicano/Latinx communities to build a just and equitable society, both in and beyond the classroom.

Course Requirements and Instructional Methods

INSTRUCTIONAL METHODS: Students earn grades by completing learning activities, writing assignments, quizzes, and Discussion Boards. In addition, students will complete weekly reading assignments and bring questions to class to participate in instructions to achieve learning objectives and excel in the course.

COLLABORATIVE LEARNING ACTIVITIES: Students will engage each other to complete group activities designed to develop critical analytical skills further. Because research shows how experiences in social, contextual, and student-owned projects lead to deeper learning, all students will engage each other in collaborative learning that is fun and meaningful.

CULTURAL/HISTORICAL FILM ANALYSIS: Students are required to complete a written film analysis that presents a developed argument or critique of a featured film. Students are required to interpret coded/encoded meanings (themes and values) that represent ethnic Mexican culture, heritage, and history

IN-PERSON CULTURAL EXPERIENCE: Each student is required to attend one in-person cultural event/performance/show during this class. Students will then write and submit an essay that applies course concepts to their experience.

QUIZZES: Students will complete quizzes throughout the course to help them learn course content and ensure they keep up with required reading assignments. Quizzes include multiple choice, fill-in-the-blanks, true/false, short answers, and/or essay questions.

DISCUSSION BOARD: To facilitate course discussions, students are required to participate in and complete Discussion Board assignments on reading assignments and learning activities. Students will first respond to a prompt and then to two classmates' responses.

Course Grading Based on Course Objectives

The following percentages from completed assignments determine the total grade:

- Cultural/Historical Film Analysis 25%
- In-Person Cultural Experience 25%
- Quizzes 25%
- Discussion Board Activities 25%

Grading Scale:

- A (90 – 100%)
- B (80 – 89%)
- C (70 – 79%)
- D (60 – 69%)
- F (50 – or lower)

Attendance

Attendance and Drop/Participation Policy

Students who do not log into the course or do not complete the mandatory first-week assignments will be dropped by the instructor as a “No Show.” Students must log into the course and complete the Course Syllabus Quiz 1 and Discussion Board activity to prevent being dropped. Should readmission be desired, the student’s status will be the same as any other student adding to the course. It is the student’s responsibility to drop or officially withdraw from the course. See IVC’s General Catalog for details.

Following the first quiz, students will complete weekly quizzes on subjects and topics the curriculum presents. If students do not access the website for more than two consecutive weeks following Course Syllabus Quiz 1, students will be dropped from the course.

Regular attendance in all classes is expected of all students. A student whose continuous, unexcused absences exceed the hours the class is scheduled to meet per week may be dropped. Students who fail to complete three consecutive required assignments will be considered to have excessive absences and will be dropped from the course.

Absences attributed to the representation of the college at officially approved events (conferences, contests, and field trips) will be counted as 'excused' absences.

Classroom Etiquette

Each student is required to follow respectful classroom etiquette and must be open-minded and prepared to engage in controversial issues that may challenge their personal beliefs. Material covered in class will cause a personal or emotional effect on students. Therefore, if students are unwilling to commit to using respectful classroom etiquette, they are encouraged to enroll in another class. Please be advised that I will do my best to maintain a positive and constructive classroom environment.

- Electronic Devices: Cell phones and electronic devices must be turned off and put away during class, unless otherwise directed by the instructor.
- Food and Drink Prohibited: Water bottles with lids/caps are the only exception. Additional restrictions will apply in labs. Please comply as directed by the instructor.
- Disruptive Students: Students who disrupt or interfere with a class may be sent out of the room and told to meet with the Campus Disciplinary Officer before returning to continue with coursework. Disciplinary procedures will be followed as outlined in the General Catalog.
- Children in the classroom: Due to college rules and state laws, no one who is not enrolled in the class may attend, including children.

Online Netiquette

Netiquette is internet manners, online etiquette, and digital etiquette all rolled into one word. Basically, netiquette is a set of rules for behaving properly online. Students are to comply with the following rules of netiquette: (1) identify yourself, (2) include a subject line, (3) avoid sarcasm, (4) respect others' opinions and privacy, (5) acknowledge and return messages promptly, (6) copy with caution, (7) do not spam or junk mail, (8) be concise, (9) use appropriate language, (10) use appropriate emoticons (emotional icons) to help convey meaning, and (11) use appropriate intensifiers to help convey meaning [do not use ALL CAPS or multiple exclamation marks (!!!!)].

Academic Honesty

Academic honesty in the advancement of knowledge requires that all students and instructors respect one another's work's integrity and recognize the importance of acknowledging and safeguarding intellectual property.

There are many different forms of academic dishonesty. The following kinds of honesty violations and their definitions are not meant to be exhaustive. Instead, they are intended to serve as examples of unacceptable academic conduct.

- Plagiarism is taking and presenting as one's own the writings or ideas of others without citing the source. You should understand the concept of plagiarism and keep it in mind when taking exams and preparing written materials. If you do not know how to "cite a source" correctly, you must ask for help.
- Cheating is defined as fraud, deceit, or dishonesty in an academic assignment, or using or attempting to use materials, or assisting others in using materials that are prohibited or inappropriate in the context of the academic assignment in question.
- AI Use: IVC values critical thinking and communication skills and considers academic integrity essential to learning. Using AI tools as a replacement for your own thinking, writing, or quantitative reasoning goes against our mission and academic honesty policy and will be considered academic dishonesty or plagiarism unless you have been instructed to do so by your instructor. In case of any uncertainty regarding the ethical use of AI tools, students are encouraged to contact their instructors for clarification.

Anyone caught cheating or plagiarizing will receive a zero (0) on the exam or assignment, and the instructor may report the incident to the Campus Disciplinary Officer, who may place related documentation in a file. Repeated acts of cheating may result in an F in the course and/or disciplinary action. Please refer to the General Catalog for more information on academic dishonesty or other misconduct. Acts of cheating include, but are not limited to, the following: (a) plagiarism; (b) copying or attempting to copy from others during an examination or on an assignment; (c) communicating test information with another person during an examination; (d) allowing others to do an assignment or portion of an assignment; (e) using a commercial term paper service.

Additional Student Services

Imperial Valley College offers various services in support of student success. The following are some of the services available for students. Please speak to your instructor about additional services which may be available.

- Canvas LMS Site. The support site provides a variety of support channels available to students 24 hours per day.
- Learning Services. There are several learning labs on campus to assist students through the use of computers and tutors. Please consult your Campus Map for the Math Lab; Reading, Writing & Language Labs; and the Study Skills Center.
- Library Services. There is more to our library than just books. You have access to tutors in the Study Skills Center, study rooms for small groups, and online access to a wealth of resources.

Disabled Student Programs and Services (DSPS)

- Disability Support Program and Services (DSPS). Any student with a documented disability who may need educational accommodations should notify the instructor or the Disabled Student Programs and Services (DSP&S) office as soon as possible. Please contact them if you feel you need to be evaluated for educational accommodation.
